The Pawnee Republican reads the following good advice:

To see the large number of boys idling their time away upon the streets, one would be led to believe that free schools did not exist, and that education was not of much importance. The fathers and mothers of the boys of Pawnee are as well educated and know the importance of at least a common school education as well as any other community of the like size in the State, yet the fact stares us in the face that many of them pay little heed to the education of their children. It seems to be a matter of little importance to them whether their boys are loafing upon the streets or are at the school room. If they have no control over the actions of their children, it is high time for the State to take the matter in hand for them. Nearly one-third of the children of school age in district No. 1 are to-day out of school and wasting precious time in idleness. Have parents no regard for their children or interest in their future well being? It would seem that some of them are guilty, or there would not be so many boys permitted to loaf upon the streets during school hours.

Right to the Point.

The following from the Fremont Tribune is open expressive and right to the point and if not political is "chuck full" of truth.

The following letter written by one of our citizens and forwarded to Brooklyn, N. Y., explains itself. It likewise hits the nail squarely on the head.

Fremont, Neb., Oct. 31, '84

Mrs. H. W. BERCHER:

I have read Mr. Cleveland's letter to you; I would like to suggest that you go and see the woman, forsaken being, or send her such clippings as you sent the man who disgraced her and see what answer you would get from her. I think if you could hear what the rank and file of the party say about it you would not waste so much sympathy on the man.

They say his "raison" that is not the name they give it with the "Dutch girl" will do no harm but will make him plenty of votes. It has always been a mystery to me why your sex has so much interest to sustain the man and so little feeling for the woman. Can you explain?

Truly Yours,

M. F. SEELY.

Another Precinct Heard From.

The republican yeomanry of Liberty precinct met at Folds school house last Saturday evening, and despite the inclement weather, the meeting was one of the most enthusiastic held under the auspices of the Republican County Committee during the present campaign. The meeting was organized promptly on time with Mr. Geo. LaRue as chairman, who in a neat address thanked the speakers for braving the elements to keep their appointments and congratulated the energetic workers for an "honest ballot and fair count" on having abandoned their prejudices in such numbers to listen to the "feast of reason and flow of soul" prepared for them.

Dr. J. W. Thomas was introduced as the first speaker, and in one of his neat little speeches made a friend and supporter of every voter present.

Hon. M. A. Hartigan and Wm. L. Browne, Esq., Deputy County Clerk, followed in the order named, and made a thorough review of the platform of principles of the republican party and platform of expediency of our moss-back opponents. The audience paid close attention to the arguments of the speakers and appreciated the sound, solid truths of honest republicanism given them to reflect on in the short time between the meeting and election day.

The war of elements prevented our democratic friends from holding a meeting they had announced for Taylor's school house; but what was a dirge to their rapidly declining hopes, sounded like a sweet lullaby to stout republican hearts. Democracy speakers and principles are better housed in such weather as we were visited with on Saturday—they will not wash—but republican principles and supporters stand the crucial test without flinching, and stand forth in bright and glowing colors even under this class of adversity.

Big Rally at Council Bluffs.

The President of the Young Men's Republican Club this city, has received an invitation for the club to participate in the great rally that the citizens of Council Bluffs will hold Friday evening. Senator Ingalls, of Kansas, Hon. Clark E. Carr, of Illinois, Senator Wilson, of Iowa, Senator Manderson, of Nebraska, and other men of national repute, will be the speakers. As the rally there occurs the same evening that Gov. Dawes and Congressman Weaver speak in this city, Plattsouth cannot well be represented, but the affair will be one well worth attending, and in all probability will be the greatest rally of the campaign in this section.

THE NANCE COUNTY MURDER.

The Search for Ferveval.

From the Omaha Bee.

On Saturday afternoon last James W. Zibbell, sheriff of Nance county, the scene of the quintuple tragedy, arrived in Omaha from Lincoln in this State. Mr. Zibbell is still in pursuit of Ferveval, the undoubted murderer of the five victims and is still in hope that he will overtake him and bring him to justice. Early last week he received a telegram from the authorities of one of the interior towns of Mississippi that the perpetrator of the infamous crime was in that vicinity, and asking for a full and complete description of him. Mr. Zibbell telegraphed a reply, giving full particulars of his physical appearance and the marks upon his person, by which he could be distinguished. An answer was received the following day, confirming their statement that he was there and urging Mr. Zibbell

TO COME IMMEDIATELY.

He accordingly started from Fullerton Saturday morning, going to Lincoln and procuring from the governor a requisition upon the governor of Mississippi for the extradition of Ferveval. Not being able to get out of the capital city for the south on Saturday he came to Omaha on the evening train and left for Mississippi at 4 p. m. yesterday.

Mr. Zibbell feels very confident he is the man, having thought he had gone into the south ever since Ferveval was traced to Omaha.

The feeling of Nance county's people, the sheriff says, is still most bitter and revengeful, and should he be brought back into his shrievalty, nothing but militia would be able to save him from the violence of the mob. It is also Mr. Zibbell's intention, should the Mississippi man prove to be Ferveval, to leave him in some place, probably Lincoln, until such time as would be necessary to take him to Fullerton to appear before a magistrate for examination, or be put upon his trial in the district court of that county.

An investigation into the circumstances, and the motives which led to the crime gradually brings to the top hidden facts, adding to the atrocity of this fiendish deed. For a long time after the murder was committed nothing could be found of Mrs. Percipal's undereclothing, although a vigorous search was made for them. Only a few days ago parties looking through the house found her woolen jacket and chemise rolled tightly into a bundle and hidden away in a corner of the room. Both these articles of wearing apparel were cut down from the shoulder across the breast by some dull instrument and torn from the body of the murdered woman. This circumstance, in Mr. Zibbell's view of the case goes more than ever to prove the theory of an outrage committed upon her, and that she was one of the first, if not the

FIRST VICTIM OF THE TRAGEDY.

In the opinion of the people who have been at work upon the case, the circumstances attending the murder point toward others who, if they had no hand in plotting or executing the crime, knew of it long before it was discovered and made known to the world. It is now known that some of the neighbors visited Ferveval's place on the Monday of the tragedy, or the Tuesday following it, and from the nature of their errand there, it is presumed they must have discovered the terrible crime which, up to that time, was known only by the perpetrator himself.

Administrators have been appointed for the estates of all the deceased, and one has also been named for that of Ferveval. Percival was quite wealthy and his estate is valued at several thousand dollars.

Geo. H. Pendleton.

The HERALD learns that Hon. Geo. H. Pendleton of Ohio who speaks at Boyd's Opera House Omaha has been secured for a speech in this city at Waterman Opera House tomorrow night. Mr. Pendleton is an orator of National renown and one of the ablest Democrats in the country whose speech here will be a notable event and the Democracy of this city are to be congratulated upon securing him.

Off on the Hunt

This morning at 5 a. m. the Missouri Valley hunters left for the north. At 8.15 the party who hunt at Kenesaw and Lowell departed. At 10.10 the Percival crowd left for the south on the K. C. R. and about noon Smith, Jones, Richey and others went over by team to Wabonsa. On the K. C. train to night the Corning delegation go south and tomorrow morning fire commences.

Nebraska City sportsmen are having their fall hunt at White Lake below Percival and if they should run across the Plattsouth delegation down in that vicinity we hope the salutation of the governors will not be forgotten and that the usual amenities instead of shots will be exchanged between the two delegations.
