A Salisbury Dentist, in Rockwood Building.

Dr. Nunn, an experienced ear and eye physician will be at the Perkins house the 7th and 8th inst.

W. H. Pool had 13 instruments to file on record yesterday which is good for the first day's work.

The Plattsmouth building and loan association will meet in the G. A. R. hall next Monday night, Jan. 9th.

The sheriff of Sarpy county received a bullet in the leg yesterday as he came out of a house to stop a disturbance.

Jas. Carlisle a leading pedagogue of Friend and an old time friend of ye reporter passed through on No. 7 last evening.

Capt. L. D. Bennett and W. S. Wise indulged in an afternoon's recreation yesterday by going rabbit hunting over on the Iowa bottoms.

Little Hattie Brown, daughter of Wm. Brown, fell from a sled yesterday while coasting, severely cutting her lip and bruising her face.

In the case of Liley vs. Lindsay at Pacific Junction yesterday, an action was brought by Liley to recover a note and garnishee $148, of Lindsay's wages.

We have received a new magazine, the title is Woman. Vol. 1, No. 2, published in New York. It treats on many important subjects of especial interest to ladies.

The parties who emptied the hay and litter from a freight car at the end of Main street should be made move it, as it not only looks bad to the eye of the public, but is an inconvenience to those passing back and forth across the yards.

By invitation the members of the board of commissioners, Messrs Dickson and Foltz together with Mrs. L. A. Plumb and Clerk J. M. Robinson took dinner to-day at the pleasant home of Chairman A. B. Todd, where all enjoyed a delicious dinner prepared by Mrs. Todd.

A proud father in Duquense, Penn., has named his first son Thomas Benton Schuatterly Boyle Cleveland Genius of Liberty Flemming.—Glenwood Opinion.

Another man we heard of named his first son Oditorius Christopher Holmes Daniel Cadwalace David Carleton Jones Man of Destiny Cleveland. Next.

The Anheuser Bush Brewing Co., of St. Louis, have decided to erect a fine building 44x100 in the coming year on the corner of fourth and Main St. No longer will the old frame livery barn grace Main street. Work will commence as soon as the weather will permit.

The architect, Mr. Louis Voss, of Omaha, was in the city yesterday with plans and specifications. The building is to be two stories above the basement and after the same fashion of the Cass county bank, and will probably cost $33,000.

Society's Latest Fad. The Rainbow Party is a new holiday diversion which has just been introduced into society circles of St. Louis from New York.

The hostess invites an equal number of young ladies and gentlemen, and they select their partners for the evening by lot. Then the hostess produces a number of aprons, cut out but not sewed, and gives one to each couple, with the needle, thread, thimble and ribbon or tape needed for their completion.

The gentleman then puts on the thimble and makes the apron, the lady assisting him by her advice. When all the aprons are finished a committee, previously appointed, examines them and decides which is the best and which the worst, two prizes being given to the makers. The aprons become the property of the couple who have sewed them.

Another amusement for the long winter evenings which is a novelty in St. Louis, is the manufacture of Bible albums. A Bible album is simply a collection of pictures in a large scrap-book, each picture illustrating a text from the Bible, which is written beneath it, but in making one there is infinite room for the display of ingenuity and wit and the expenditure of money.

The pictures can be picked up and made to cost nothing at all, or they can be bought in books and at stores and so made to cost a large amount of money. One of these albums, richly illustrated, with the text done in colors by a good penman, is a very handsome ornament for a center table, and some very entertaining and unique ones can be made by the use merely of newspaper and magazine cuts.

A Shakespeare album is a variation of the Bible album and the pictures to illustrate the quotations are more easily found.

J. N. WISE, P. M.

A Dangerous Editor. From the Arizona Kicker.

That refined and cultured reptile, Bill Bosworth, whose chief occupation is swilling down 40 rod whisky and lying about his betters, is circulating the story that he gave us a licking last Sunday night.

Now, the truth of the matter is that Bill has been mashed on our eldest daughter and he called at our house on Sunday evening to ask our permission to spunk her. We promptly and indignantly showed him the door, while our wife stood ready with a horsewhip. Bill dared us to come out, and we went. We hit him three times that we know of, and we kept count of five kicks we got in on him, and in two minutes he was begging for mercy. We don't pretend to be any fighter, but if we can't lick Bill Bosworth with one hand tied behind us, we will go out of the newspaper business. Our friends have advised us to shoot him, and if it wasn't for our wife we'd do it. Bill, don't you come fooling around us no more!

What is a Clam? From the San Francisco Examiner.

Noah Li Hop Wee, with a smile upon his moon-like countenance, stood up in Judge Hornblower's court yesterday and said:

"Me no peddle clams. Me work for Hook Went, 819 Sacramento. Go long bleach, get clam, carry 'em to man who buy. He keeps restaurant on Sixth street. He says he no want clams that time."

The Mongolian was charged with peddling clams without a license.

"Please, your honor, I move to dismiss," said his attorney. "The ordinance says, 'meat, fish, game or vegetables.' Clams is not a vegetable, a game, a meat or a fish."

"It ain't, eh?" said the judge, with a puzzled look; "what is it, then?"

"It is a bivalve, your honor," was the reply, with a look of learned triumph.

"Well, they eat clams on Fridays, any way," interposed the learned Mr. Coffery.

"That don't make it a fish, and Webster's dictionary says it ain't."

"Well, who's Webster, I'd like to know? I run this court," said his honor, "and I decide that clams is a fish, and find defendant guilty. To-morrow for sentence."

Who is Your Best Friend? Your stomach of course. Why? Because if it is out of order you are one of the most miserable creatures living.

Give it a fair, honorable chance and see if it is not the best friend you have in the end. Don't smoke in the morning. Don't drink in the morning. If you must smoke and drink wait until your stomach is through with breakfast. You can drink more and smoke more in the evening and it will tell on you less.

If your food ferments and does not digest right—if you are troubled with Heartburn, Dizziness of the head, coming up of the food after eating, Biliousness, Indigestion, or any other trouble of the stomach, you had best use Green's August Flower, as no person can use it without immediate relief.
