

The Plattsmouth Daily Herald.

FIRST YEAR

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 13, 1888.

NUMBER 175

CITY OFFICERS.

Mayor, F. M. RICHY
Clerk, W. R. FOX
Treasurer, JAMES PATTERSON, JR.
Attorney, BYRON CLARKE
Engineer, A. MADOLE
Police Judge, CLIFFORD
Marshall, W. MAHLE
Commissioner, 1st ward, J. V. WICKHAM
" 2nd, D. M. JOHNSON
" 3rd, M. R. MURPHY
" 4th, S. W. DUTT
Board Pub. Works, FRID GOOLDER
D. H. HAWKSWORTH

COUNTY OFFICERS.

Treasurer, D. A. CAMPBELL
Deputy Treasurer, THOS. POLLOCK
Clerk, ERD CHITFIELD
Deputy Clerk, ENA CHITFIELD
Recorder of Deeds, JOHN M. LEVINA
Deputy Recorder, W. C. SHOWALTER
Sheriff, C. C. LINDSEY
Surveyor, A. MADOLE
Attorney, ALLEN BERSON
Supt. of Pub. Schools, MARY ANN STINE
County Judge, C. RUSSELL
BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.
Plattsmouth, Louis F. Foltz, Chm'n.
Weeping Water, A. B. De Koss, " " " "

CIVIC SOCIETIES.

CLASS LODGE NO. 106, I. O. O. F., Meets every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. All fraternal brothers are respectfully invited to attend.

PLATTSMOUTH ENCAMPMENT NO. 8, I. O. O. F., Meets every alternate Friday in each month in the Masonic Hall. Visiting Brothers are invited to attend.

TRIO LODGE NO. 84, A. O. U. W.—Meets every alternate Friday evening at 8 o'clock in R. of C. Hall. Transient brothers are respectfully invited to attend. F. J. Morgan, Master; Workman, E. S. Harlow, Foreman; Frank Brown, Scribe; J. Brown, Guide; George Housworth, Recorder; H. J. Johnson, Phisician; Wash. Smith, Receiver; M. Mayhugh, Port M. W.; Jack Dangleby, L. O. Deacons.

CLASS CAMP NO. 32, MODERN WOODMEN of America—Meets second and fourth Monday evening at 8 o'clock. All transient brothers are respectfully invited to attend. L. S. Larson, M. W.; F. Boyd, Foreman; S. C. White, Recorder; Leonard Anderson, Overseer.

PLATTSMOUTH LODGE NO. 8, A. O. U. W.—Meets every alternate Friday evening at 8 o'clock in R. of C. Hall. All transient brothers are respectfully invited to attend. L. S. Larson, M. W.; F. Boyd, Foreman; S. C. White, Recorder; Leonard Anderson, Overseer.

McCONNIE POST 45 G. A. R.

ROSTER.
J. W. JOHNSON, Commander
C. S. TWISS, Senior Vice
F. A. HAYES, Junior
GEO. NILES, Adjutant
HARRY STRONG, Q. M.
MALON DIXON, Officer of the Post
CHARLES FORD, Foreman
ANDERSON ERY, Quarter Master
JACOB GOHREMAN, Sergeant
L. C. CURTIS, Post Chaplain
Meeting Saturday evening

WM. L. BROWNE, LAW OFFICE.

Personal attention to all Business Entrusted to my care.

NOTARY IN OFFICE.

Titles Examined, Abstracts Compiled, Insurance Written, Real Estate Sold.

Better Facilities for making Farm Loans than

Any Other Agency.

Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

R. B. WINDHAM, JOHN A. DAVIES,
Notary Public, Notary Public.

WINDHAM & DAVIES, Attorneys - at - Law.

Office over Bank of Cass County.
PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA.

H. E. Palmer & Son

GENERAL

INSURANCE AGENTS

Represent the following first-class companies:

American Central-S. L. E. Co., Assets	$1,258,199
Commercial Union-England	2,500,000
Fire Association-Philadelphia	4,400,000
Franklin-Philadelphia	3,117,100
Home-New York	7,855,500
Ins. Co. of North America-Phil.	8,713,300
Liverpool & London & Globe-Eng.	6,000,500
North British & Mercantile-Eng.	3,378,750
Norwich Union-England	1,200,000
Springfield F. & M.-Springfield	3,044,000
Total Assets	$42,119,774

Losses Adjusted and Paid at this Agency

WHEN YOU WANT WORK DONE

—OF—

Any Kind

—CALL ON—

L. G. Larson,

Cor. 12th and Granite Streets,

Contractor and Builder

Sept. 12-6m.

Shot Dead by a Trooper.

MATAMOROS, Mex., April 12.—Yesterday, at the La Palma ranch, up the river, a vaquero, Jorge Carrera, and a trooper of the detachment of the 5th Cavalry stationed there, had a row. Carrera cursed the soldier, whose name is Francisco Martinez. He went off, got his carbine and shot Carrera dead.

Says Blaine is not Sick.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Dr. G. W. Pope, of this city, who was Blaine's physician when he was here in Washington, said to a reporter tonight that the rumors that Blaine had kidney diseases and diabetes was unfounded. The doctor thought that probably Blaine was suffering from nervous debility, augmented perhaps, by a slight attack of dyspepsia, caused by over work and failure to take sufficient exercises.

An Editor Missing.

AGUSTA, Ga., April 12.—There is much mystery here over the disappearance of Mr. T. H. Hudson, editor of the Lincoln News. Mr. Hudson left home ten days ago to visit this city, bringing with him a large sum of money which a local merchant wished him to deposit. Mr. Hudson never deposited the money, and the last seen of him was at Harlem, a few miles from the city. It is believed that he must have been murdered for the money and his body hidden, because his circumstances at home were such as to forbid the idea of his absconding.

Lynched for Stock Stealing.

GAINESVILLE, Tex., April 12.—During the past two or three months extensive cattle and horse stealing has been going on in the neighborhood of Haldilton, I. T., about thirty miles from here in a northwestern direction. Suspicion has pointed for some time past to certain parties as being guilty, but no positive evidence has been obtainable to fasten the crime upon them definitely. The people around Haldilton have become more and more exasperated on account of the continuation of their losses of stock, and on Monday night a mob was formed, which, taking law into its own hands, went to the homes of three of the suspected parties, took them out and swung them up to the nearest trees. Abe Morgan and Tom Sanford are said to have been the names of two of the hanged parties, but who the third was is not known. It is also reported that the Indian police have arrested several for being concerned in the lynching.

Republicans in Convention.

LINCOLN, Neb., April 12.—The republican central committee of the first congressional district met at the Capital hotel at 4 P. M. today. There were present Sid G. Courtney, chairman; W. F. Gurley, of Douglas; H. T. Clarke, of Sarpy; Orlando Teft, of Cass; H. H. Shedd, of Saunders; Phillip Paine, of Lancaster; L. W. Colby, of Gage; H. H. Bartling, of Otoe; Jarvis S. Church, of Nemaha; J. R. Willhite, of Richardson, and O. A. Corbin, of Johnson, Pawnee county alone not being represented.

The Young American Man.

"When I despair of the American republic," said an eminent statesman, "I look at the young men of this country and I am revived." There are no young men in the world with better manners than the best type of American men. Manly, simple, unaffected, respectable and remarkably graceful, so bright that if they turn themselves on, you can see to read by them." The young American man is conceded to be the best in the world over, such as a graduate of one of our best colleges, a cadet from West Point.

Concerning Waiters in London.

"What do you do when you want a waiter?" I said to the proprietor of a big hotel in the West End a few days ago. "Send to one of their clubs." "Suppose I want a courier to personally conduct me through the continent?" "Send to the couriers' club; but couriers are going out of fashion, killed by competition." "Which race makes the best waiter?" "The Englishman; but he drinks and is given to priggishness; therefore, the German takes his place." "Can you prevent tipping?" "Not if we paid twice the wages."—Pall Mall Gazette.

Concerning Waiters in London.

The scent of bloodhounds is dull compared with that of certain male moths. Mr. C. H. Piesse, in a late work, states that if a newly emerged female Saturia carpius is placed in a closed box, the males will come from nearly a mile away, through hills and buildings intervene, and have even found their way down a chimney to the object of their search.—Arkansas Traveler.

Plattsmouth Big Shade Trees.

American ingenuity is equal to the moving of a Brighton Bench seat, weighing 5,000 tons, a distance of 300 feet, yet 5, apparently, inadequate to the transporting of a growing tree weighing half a ton, cheaply and safely, a distance of a mile or less. An American will plant a tree no thicker than his wife's wrist, then with a patience born of faith and hope, wait from fifteen to twenty-five years before the shade will refresh him and prevent the sun from making a Sahara of his little suburban half acre. The presence of a good sized maple or other desirable shade tree so greatly enhances the value of every square yard of the real estate in its vicinity that it is strange no device has been forthcoming whereby large trees can be taken from their native low land or forest, lifted carefully, handled bodily with plenty of their native soil about their roots and deposited in any desired place, there to be a joy to the possessor.

IMMORTALITY.

Welcome the tribute sometimes Fortune strals From youth's exchequer to enrich old age! What ample pension freely forth she deals To gild with glory his gray equipage. While over Time's track slow roll his chariot wheels. Then heaven's gate enter. He, his heritage Of life receiving, breaks the sacred seal— High privilege sole given to saint and sage! Life weaves but ashes, and one holocaust, If in their future welcomed from its goal, No gate swung open to admit us—lost. Were all companionship, and blank the soul— Ah, deal to all life holds and knows its own, If Youth survive not and uphold its throne. —A. Brown Abbott.

The Man Who Don't Understand.

It is too much to ask of a narrow headed, no stomach, thin limbed man that he should get inside men and women who struggle day in and day out, 365 days in every year, and awake early on New Year's morning with the same necessity before them and the same impulsive prodding then behind to gain that for which the Avesta prayed—that "daily bread." "Give us," said that great master of affairs, "give us this day our daily bread." Imagine a man whose sisters and brothers, whose cousins and aunts, and uncles, make a quintupled automobile, striving to understand this heart born petition, this nervous prayer from weeping eyes, from a hungry stomach and from a loving heart, "Give us this day," not next week, not next year, not some time when we are hungry, but give us O God, "this day our daily bread." —Joe Howard in New York Graphic.

Discriminating Charity.

"My dear," said Mr. Sparks to his wife, "if we get a new parlor carpet what will we do with the old one?" "Put it in the library," said Mrs. Sparks promptly. "Why, there is a carpet in the library," said Mr. Sparks. What will we do with that?" "Put it in the spare room," said Mrs. Sparks decisively, "and give the spare room carpet to the poor. It is a hideous thing, anyway." "Yes," said Mr. Sparks reflectively, "it is. We might give it to an asylum for the blind." "A very good idea," said his wife approvingly, "and we will give the one in our room to an asylum for the deaf. It is so fearfully loud." —New York Evening Sun.

A Warning to Ghouls.

One can feel not only respect but esteem for dynamite, under certain circumstances. When this potent compound is used as a warning to ghouls, it appears less as a destructive demon than as an angel guarding a tomb. As such, dynamite was used by an Indiana man, who placed a few cartridges in the grave where his daughter lay. He did not try to keep this procedure a secret, and it is safe to say that this tomb will be unmolested by grave diggers. The Indiana idea, if generally adopted, will result in a species of "corpse rust," for it must bring about so great a scarcity of cadavers as to seriously affect the grim business of the dissecting room.—Pittsburg Bulletin.

The Number of Flour Mills.

It is a fact not generally known that the number of flour mills throughout the country is decreasing year by year. It very rarely happens that a mill that is destroyed by fire or otherwise is rebuilt, and in that way it has come that within the last decade the total number of mills throughout the country has fallen off considerably. The reason for this is the smallness of the profits now realized from milling. Only the larger and better equipped mills make any money, and that only by reason of their large output.—Globe-Democrat.

Startling the Bishop.

A story is told of a Catholic priest in Australia whose bishop gave him a horse. To commemorate the event the priest named the horse "The Bishop." Soon after the bishop died with the priest, and during the course of the dinner the priest's man of all work came in and said in an audible whisper: "It's a hot day, your reverence, and I was thinkin' it would be a good thing to throw a bucket of water on The Bishop." The bishop was somewhat startled until matters were explained to him.—New York Tribune.

Electricity and Sewage.

The treatment of sewage by electricity is not a new thing. It is a practical test at the Metropolitan (London) board of works' outfall at Crossness. The electric current is said to have a wonderful disinfecting and purifying influence. The evolution of gas stirs up the liquid, the nascent oxygen is brought into rapid contact with the impurities and reduces them, precipitation is expedited, and the whole cleansed. It is to be hoped that the cost will not swamp this new and useful field for electricity.—Nature.

Each season affords tears or laughter, as we may choose.

The Man Who Don't Understand.

It is too much to ask of a narrow headed, no stomach, thin limbed man that he should get inside men and women who struggle day in and day out, 365 days in every year, and awake early on New Year's morning with the same necessity before them and the same impulsive prodding then behind to gain that for which the Avesta prayed—that "daily bread." "Give us," said that great master of affairs, "give us this day our daily bread." Imagine a man whose sisters and brothers, whose cousins and aunts, and uncles, make a quintupled automobile, striving to understand this heart born petition, this nervous prayer from weeping eyes, from a hungry stomach and from a loving heart, "Give us this day," not next week, not next year, not some time when we are hungry, but give us O God, "this day our daily bread." —Joe Howard in New York Graphic.

IMMORTALITY.

Welcome the tribute sometimes Fortune strals From youth's exchequer to enrich old age! What ample pension freely forth she deals To gild with glory his gray equipage. While over Time's track slow roll his chariot wheels. Then heaven's gate enter. He, his heritage Of life receiving, breaks the sacred seal— High privilege sole given to saint and sage! Life weaves but ashes, and one holocaust, If in their future welcomed from its goal, No gate swung open to admit us—lost. Were all companionship, and blank the soul— Ah, deal to all life holds and knows its own, If Youth survive not and uphold its throne. —A. Brown Abbott.

The Man Who Don't Understand.

It is too much to ask of a narrow headed, no stomach, thin limbed man that he should get inside men and women who struggle day in and day out, 365 days in every year, and awake early on New Year's morning with the same necessity before them and the same impulsive prodding then behind to gain that for which the Avesta prayed—that "daily bread." "Give us," said that great master of affairs, "give us this day our daily bread." Imagine a man whose sisters and brothers, whose cousins and aunts, and uncles, make a quintupled automobile, striving to understand this heart born petition, this nervous prayer from weeping eyes, from a hungry stomach and from a loving heart, "Give us this day," not next week, not next year, not some time when we are hungry, but give us O God, "this day our daily bread." —Joe Howard in New York Graphic.

Discriminating Charity.

"My dear," said Mr. Sparks to his wife, "if we get a new parlor carpet what will we do with the old one?" "Put it in the library," said Mrs. Sparks promptly. "Why, there is a carpet in the library," said Mr. Sparks. What will we do with that?" "Put it in the spare room," said Mrs. Sparks decisively, "and give the spare room carpet to the poor. It is a hideous thing, anyway." "Yes," said Mr. Sparks reflectively, "it is. We might give it to an asylum for the blind." "A very good idea," said his wife approvingly, "and we will give the one in our room to an asylum for the deaf. It is so fearfully loud." —New York Evening Sun.

A Warning to Ghouls.

One can feel not only respect but esteem for dynamite, under certain circumstances. When this potent compound is used as a warning to ghouls, it appears less as a destructive demon than as an angel guarding a tomb. As such, dynamite was used by an Indiana man, who placed a few cartridges in the grave where his daughter lay. He did not try to keep this procedure a secret, and it is safe to say that this tomb will be unmolested by grave diggers. The Indiana idea, if generally adopted, will result in a species of "corpse rust," for it must bring about so great a scarcity of cadavers as to seriously affect the grim business of the dissecting room.—Pittsburg Bulletin.

The Number of Flour Mills.

It is a fact not generally known that the number of flour mills throughout the country is decreasing year by year. It very rarely happens that a mill that is destroyed by fire or otherwise is rebuilt, and in that way it has come that within the last decade the total number of mills throughout the country has fallen off considerably. The reason for this is the smallness of the profits now realized from milling. Only the larger and better equipped mills make any money, and that only by reason of their large output.—Globe-Democrat.

Startling the Bishop.

A story is told of a Catholic priest in Australia whose bishop gave him a horse. To commemorate the event the priest named the horse "The Bishop." Soon after the bishop died with the priest, and during the course of the dinner the priest's man of all work came in and said in an audible whisper: "It's a hot day, your reverence, and I was thinkin' it would be a good thing to throw a bucket of water on The Bishop." The bishop was somewhat startled until matters were explained to him.—New York Tribune.

Electricity and Sewage.

The treatment of sewage by electricity is not a new thing. It is a practical test at the Metropolitan (London) board of works' outfall at Crossness. The electric current is said to have a wonderful disinfecting and purifying influence. The evolution of gas stirs up the liquid, the nascent oxygen is brought into rapid contact with the impurities and reduces them, precipitation is expedited, and the whole cleansed. It is to be hoped that the cost will not swamp this new and useful field for electricity.—Nature.

Each season affords tears or laughter, as we may choose.

The Man Who Don't Understand.

It is too much to ask of a narrow headed, no stomach, thin limbed man that he should get inside men and women who struggle day in and day out, 365 days in every year, and awake early on New Year's morning with the same necessity before them and the same impulsive prodding then behind to gain that for which the Avesta prayed—that "daily bread." "Give us," said that great master of affairs, "give us this day our daily bread." Imagine a man whose sisters and brothers, whose cousins and aunts, and uncles, make a quintupled automobile, striving to understand this heart born petition, this nervous prayer from weeping eyes, from a hungry stomach and from a loving heart, "Give us this day," not next week, not next year, not some time when we are hungry, but give us O God, "this day our daily bread." —Joe Howard in New York Graphic.

IMMORTALITY.

Welcome the tribute sometimes Fortune strals From youth's exchequer to enrich old age! What ample pension freely forth she deals To gild with glory his gray equipage. While over Time's track slow roll his chariot wheels. Then heaven's gate enter. He, his heritage Of life receiving, breaks the sacred seal— High privilege sole given to saint and sage! Life weaves but ashes, and one holocaust, If in their future welcomed from its goal, No gate swung open to admit us—lost. Were all companionship, and blank the soul— Ah, deal to all life holds and knows its own, If Youth survive not and uphold its throne. —A. Brown Abbott.

The Man Who Don't Understand.

It is too much to ask of a narrow headed, no stomach, thin limbed man that he should get inside men and women who struggle day in and day out, 365 days in every year, and awake early on New Year's morning with the same necessity before them and the same impulsive prodding then behind to gain that for which the Avesta prayed—that "daily bread." "Give us," said that great master of affairs, "give us this day our daily bread." Imagine a man whose sisters and brothers, whose cousins and aunts, and uncles, make a quintupled automobile, striving to understand this heart born petition, this nervous prayer from weeping eyes, from a hungry stomach and from a loving heart, "Give us this day," not next week, not next year, not some time when we are hungry, but give us O God, "this day our daily bread." —Joe Howard in New York Graphic.

Discriminating Charity.

"My dear," said Mr. Sparks to his wife, "if we get a new parlor carpet what will we do with the old one?" "Put it in the library," said Mrs. Sparks promptly. "Why, there is a carpet in the library," said Mr. Sparks. What will we do with that?" "Put it in the spare room," said Mrs. Sparks decisively, "and give the spare room carpet to the poor. It is a hideous thing, anyway." "Yes," said Mr. Sparks reflectively, "it is. We might give it to an asylum for the blind." "A very good idea," said his wife approvingly, "and we will give the one in our room to an asylum for the deaf. It is so fearfully loud." —New York Evening Sun.

A Warning to Ghouls.

One can feel not only respect but esteem for dynamite, under certain circumstances. When this potent compound is used as a warning to ghouls, it appears less as a destructive demon than as an angel guarding a tomb. As such, dynamite was used by an Indiana man, who placed a few cartridges in the grave where his daughter lay. He did not try to keep this procedure a secret, and it is safe to say that this tomb will be unmolested by grave diggers. The Indiana idea, if generally adopted, will result in a species of "corpse rust," for it must bring about so great a scarcity of cadavers as to seriously affect the grim business of the dissecting room.—Pittsburg Bulletin.

The Number of Flour Mills.

It is a fact not generally known that the number of flour mills throughout the country is decreasing year by year. It very rarely happens that a mill that is destroyed by fire or otherwise is rebuilt, and in that way it has come that within the last decade the total number of mills throughout the country has fallen off considerably. The reason for this is the smallness of the profits now realized from milling. Only the larger and better equipped mills make any money, and that only by reason of their large output.—Globe-Democrat.

Startling the Bishop.

A story is told of a Catholic priest in Australia whose bishop gave him a horse. To commemorate the event the priest named the horse "The Bishop." Soon after the bishop died with the priest, and during the course of the dinner the priest's man of all work came in and said in an audible whisper: "It's a hot day, your reverence, and I was thinkin' it would be a good thing to throw a bucket of water on The Bishop." The bishop was somewhat startled until matters were explained to him.—New York Tribune.

Electricity and Sewage.

The treatment of sewage by electricity is not a new thing. It is a practical test at the Metropolitan (London) board of works' outfall at Crossness. The electric current is said to have a wonderful disinfecting and purifying influence. The evolution of gas stirs up the liquid, the nascent oxygen is brought into rapid contact with the impurities and reduces them, precipitation is expedited, and the whole cleansed. It is to be hoped that the cost will not swamp this new and useful field for electricity.—Nature.

Each season affords tears or laughter, as we may choose.

The Man Who Don't Understand.

It is too much to ask of a narrow headed, no stomach, thin limbed man that he should get inside men and women who struggle day in and day out, 365 days in every year, and awake early on New Year's morning with the same necessity before them and the same impulsive prodding then behind to gain that for which the Avesta prayed—that "daily bread." "Give us," said that great master of affairs, "give us this day our daily bread." Imagine a man whose sisters and brothers, whose cousins and aunts, and uncles, make a quintupled automobile, striving to understand this heart born petition, this nervous prayer from weeping eyes, from a hungry stomach and from a loving heart, "Give us this day," not next week, not next year, not some time when we are hungry, but give us O God, "this day our daily bread." —Joe Howard in New York Graphic.

The Daylight Store.

Just after our inventory, we reduce prices to sell the goods rather than to carry over. We are willing to sell our entire Winter Goods at cost. Staples we have a large quantity and offer them very low. Calicos 3 to 5 cents per yard, making the best standard of them at 20 yards for $1.00. Gingham best dress styles 10 cents per yard. Dress goods all kinds at the very lowest prices, from 5 cents per yard upward. Woolen hose we offer at cost, extra fine. Ladies cashmere hose, worth $1.00, now 75 cents, fine heavy wool 40 cents, now 25 cents; children's fine ribbed worth 50, now 30. Under wear must go at low prices, as we will not keep them over.

Our Gents Silver Grey Merino Shirts

and drawers, extra quality 50 now 35. Our Gents Silver grey merino shirts and drawers, extra quality 75 now 50. Our Scarlet all wool shirts and drawers fine quality $1.00 now 75 cents. Our scarlet all wool shirts and drawers, fine quality $1.25 now 1.00. Our scarlet all-wool shirts and drawers, fine quality $1.75 now 1.25. Our scarlet all-wool shirts and drawers, fine quality $2.00 now 1.40.

Ladies' - Underwear,

EQUALLY AS CHEAP. Our 25 per cent. discount on cloaks, is still good. We are determined to close out our entire stock and never before has such an opportunity been offered to economical buyers to purchase the best qualities for so little money.

Joseph V. Weckbach.

Solomon & Nathan.

NOTICE.

As per previous announcement, we had fully determined to discontinue business in Plattsmouth and so advertised accordingly and now, as satisfactory arrangements have been perfected for the continuance of same under the management of Mr. J. Finley and E. F. Ruffner as book-keeper and cashier, we herewith notify our friends and patrons of our final decision and kindly solicit a continuance of your kind patronage, so freely extended during the past sixteen years, by the addition of competent clerical force.

On account of Mr. Solomon leaving the city and by the adoption of the STRICTLY

One-Price System,

Courteous treatment, and an elegant new

Spring - Stock

—AT—

Bed-Rock Prices,

We trust to merit your good will and patronage.

VERY RESPECTFULLY,

Solomon & Nathan.

The New Photograph Gallery

Will be open January 24th, at the OLD STAND OF F. H. CARRUTH

All work warranted first-class.

W. E. CUTLER.