A FIGHT FOR LIFE. Sheridan Still Holds Out Against the Grim Archer's Assaults. He is Made General of the Army and Signs His Acceptance

Sends His Thanks to the President and Issues His First Orders

WASHINGTON, June 1 .- The bulletin is sued at 8:45 this morning says General Sheridan has held his own through the night. There has been no recurring of imminent danger, but his general condition still justifies the gravest anxiety. So severe was the patient's relapse yesterday afternoon that Father Chapelle was summoned to administer extreme unction. Only by rapid work was the Jenkins. The new trial is granted on accrisis tided over. The sick man might count of the remarkable statement now have died at any moment.

Colonel Sheridan said the general had had a comfortable night, and looked very much improved this morning. "The general has had a bad time of it," he replied, "but I think he will come out all right, yet."

At 12 o'clock it was announced that General Sheridan's condition was practically unchanged.

The bulletin issued at 2:30 says Sheridan's condition shows no material change since the issue of the last bulletin. He has been sleeping quietly, at intervals, for three hours.

9:30 p. m.-The following bulletin has just been issued: The situation remains about the same. Throughout the day General Sheridan's mind has been lucid. There has been no renewal of yesterday's attack, though there is but incomplete recovery from its effects. No new unfavorable symptoms have developed. The unavoidable excitement connected with this promotion has had no deleterious effect whatever. He has slept through the great part of the day. Colonel Sheridan called on President Cleveland this afternoon, at the General's request, to thank him for his nomination and commission of general of the army, and to hand him a formal note of thanks

time when the trader so dominated the Indian, when the Indian was brought so much in debt by the exactions of the trader, and when so much liquor was sold; and that the commissioner had no experience, was advanced in years, and was unequal to the position, while Mr. | erable expense and disadvantage for the Bate defended the characted, ability, honesty and efficiency of the commissioner, and challenged the senator from Kansas to prove his assertions, which Plumb promised to do. The bill was finally yassed. Adjourned.

Remarkable Reasons for a New

Trial. BERRYVILLE, VA., June 1.- A sensation has been created here by the act of the judge of the circuit court here in granting a new trial to Josiah Locke, who was convicted of the murder of Wm. R. made by Geo. W. Lee, one of the jurors who convicted Locke. Lee declares that during the recent trial of Locke he fixed his eyes upon the younger Locke and Gertie Zumbro, the latter a child-witness for the commonwealth and daughter of Mrs. Jenkins by her first marriage, and while watching them he came to the conclusion that younge Locke was in love with Gertie and that Jenkins was jealous of him; that he was not willing to render a verdict on the evening the case was given to the jury, but that during the night he had made up his mind that Locke was guilty, and in the morning when he awoke a spirit seemed to say to him, "justified, justified." He also stated that during the trial a spirit was whispering to him, "mercy, mercy."

Supposed Fate of a Little Girl.

CHARLOTTEVILLE, Va., June 1 .- Within a week ten sheep belonging to Edgar Ballard were killed in an unaccountable way and eaten, evidently by some wild animal. Wednesday he decided to investigate, and Thursday at sundown he saw a tremendous black bear starting toward his flock. He fired at it with small shot. The bear made off down the road through the woods. About the same hour Ben Shiplett had sent his little girl down to Air of a Smoking Car. "Here is a curious thing," said a doctor. as he walked through an Erie railroad train the other day. "This smoking car seats fifty persons, and yet there is seldom a chance for a seat after the train starts out of New York. The men in this car have gone into the country at considsake of their healths. The only time they spend at home is at night, and most of it in their bedrooms in heated houses where the air is very little different from that in a city bedroom. They spend from two to four hours of the only leisure they have in this car, where the air is so vitiated with tobacco that though I am an old smoker it makes me as sick in fifteen minutes as did my first cigar. It is safe to say that the health of these men would have been better guarded had they stayed in town."-New York Sun.

The Young Art Critic.

A bright youngster who visited the Corcoran art gallery the other day was apparently very deeply impressed with that famous little example of Italian sculpture, "The Forced Prayer." It will be remembered that the statue new a small boy in a very abbreviated gar-ment who holds his chubby hands together in front of him in an attitude of prayer, while his small face represents every possible shade of disgust and rebellion. But our youngster had a different explanation of the motive of the statue. which he tersely stated to his father on his return home somewhat in this wise: "An', papa, I sawed a little image of a boy what had been chasin' a little chicken in his night gown. An' he des catch de little chicken up in his hands an' he squoshed it."-Washington Hatchet.

New Artesian Well at Paris.

The artesian well of Place Hebert, at Paris, has just been finished, after twentytwo years' work on it. It was necessary to bore to a depth of 2,860 feet to reach water, and such depth was attained only with the greatest difficulty. The work had to be stopped several times, either on account of the hardness of the strata traversed or of the crushing of the metallic tubing caused by the pressure of the The new well is the third of the earth. public wells of Paris, the others being those of Grenelle and Passy. Its diameter is 51 feet and the weight of the tubing about 880,000 pounds. The temperature of the water that it furnishes is 341 degs. The cost of this important undertaking was $500,000 .- Scientific American.

Training for a Newspaper Writer. The best general training for a newspaper writer is to be had on a live daily paper in a small city where the staff is small and he is called upon to do all sorts of newspaper work. Newspaper work in large cities makes specialists. At the same time, a bright reporter on a big city daily, if he keeps his eyes open, and does all he can to master the routine of the office outside of his own regular work, can get all the training that any young man could possibly desire. If he misses learning how to do any kind of newspaper work, and how to do it, too, in the most effective way, it is his own fault .- "W. H. H." in The Writer. The cemetery itself lies on the battlefield of Fredericksbarrg and in the midst of most solemn associations, yet only two Decoration Day services have ever been held there. These were in 1866 and 1888. While the people of Fredericksburg flock to the services in the Confederate cometery, the field of the Union dead is given up to a sort of colored picnic. - New York Tri bune. signed by the general's own hand. 12:30 a.m.-There has been no appre ciable change in Sheridan's condition since the last evening bulletin was issued. He has coughed but little, has slept most of the time, and when awake has been clear in his mind and cheerful.

MADE GENERAL OF THE ARMY. WASHINGTON, June 1.- The senate bill to receive the grade of general of the army has been signed by the speaker of president signed the bill and sent the nomination of Philip Sheridan to the senate for that position. On receipt of the nomination the senate went into executive session and confirmed him. At 3 this afternoon Senators Hawley 2.596,314 4,415,576 and Manderson drove up to General Sheri-3,117,106 dan's residence with the commission 7.855,519 8,174.362 which the president had just signed mak-6,639,781 3,378,754 Hawley handed it to Mrs. Sheridan. She 1,245,466 was much moved and exclaimed: "I 3,044,915 know he will get well now."

At 3:45 p. m. General Sheridan signed the following formal acceptance of his commission as general of the army:

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE UNITED STATES, WASHINGTON, June 1, 1888 .-Hon. Secretary of War: Sir-I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of my commission as general of the army, to which position the president has today appointed me. I hereby accept the same. P. H SHERIDAN, General.

The signature was written with pencil in a large and perfectly legible hand. Soon after the receipt of the commission Sheridan took the oath of office and directed the issuance of the following order, being his first official act m his capacity as general:

General Order 37.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY, ADJU-TANT GENERAL'S OFFICE. WASHINGTON. June 1.-1. The following named officers are appointed aides-de-camp on the staff of general of the army, with the rank of colonel, to date from this day: Major Michael V. Sheridan, assistant adjutant-general; Captian Stanhope E. Blunt, ordinance department. 2. In addition to the duties of aidesde-camp, Colonel Blunt will continue to perform the duty of inspector of rifle practice at headquarters of the army. By command of General Sheridan. R. C. DRUM, J. C. RELTON, Adjutant General. Assistant Adjutant-General.

The senate then proceeded to consideration of the Indian appropriation bill. A colloquy took place between Senators Plumb and Bate in regard to the administration of the office of commissioner of Indian affairs, the former asserting that his neighbor's just a mile and a half distant, to get some milk. The child did not reach her destination, and the evidence leads to the belief that she was met by the bear and eaten. Men have been searching all day the whole surrounding country, but without success.

A Small Riot.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., June 2. - A special from Bromwell, Mercer county, to the Daily Gazette says all miners in the the house and sent to the president. The Blue Stone district went out on a strike vesterday for two weeks pay, and to add to the excitement a negro was arrested for disorderly conduct. After the arrest it was rumored the whites would take him from the guards and lynch him. At 10 o'clock last night 100 negro miners marched to the Blue Stone inn, where the prisoner was under guard, and demanded his release. The guards did not surrender ing him general of the army. Senator him, when the mob began firing on the building with pistols, and a general riot edsued. Several men among the rioters were shot by members of the mob. The whites had organized. At a late hour the mob had dispersed after several had been arrested. More trouble is expected.

Legal Protection for Working Women. The Working Women's Protective union, which has its office in Clinton place, was organized twenty-five years ago. It. was named before the word "union" meant what it does now, and is, therefore, in some degree misleading. It is not a union in the sense of being a labor organization officered and directed by working people, but it is a society of those who recognize that working women need something they do not get, a society of helpful men and women, who by their influence, aid and capital protect their more frail and hard working sisters against over-bearing and brutal employers. By mak-ing a complaint at the offices of the organization, working women, with the excep-tion of those in household service, have their wrongs inquired into and their rights procured even if the law has to claim them. Statistics show that over 11,000 applications for help have been made during the last year, and claims upon unprincipled employers, even to the small sum of $1, have been wrung out of them by means of the law. These things are accomplished without cost to the applicant. Lawyers and directors give their services to the cause, but there are many expenses connected with the organization which reach the sum of $5,000 a year. This is subscribed for in small amounts. Ten dollars makes the donor a member for one dollars makes the donor a member for one year. The payment of $50 during any one year makes the subscriber a member for life. It hardly seems credible that ladies in society, who live luxuriously, drive out daily in their own carriages, and have attendants at their beck and call to gratify every whim, can be oppressors to their own sex, but this has been proven over and over again by the books of the society and the actions of the lawyers.
