Wm Wittencamp. ingness to assist in any way to the best was requested to keep his boodle for fear of their ability. We learned that it was their intention to form a society in connection with the Y. M. C. A., and aid in furnishing their rooms. We now bespeak for the association, success, and a full attendance of young men.

-We are in receipt of an invitation to be present at Nebraska City's celebration of the completion of the B. & M. steel railway bridge; the only pontoon wagon bridge on the Missouri, and other improvements, Thursday, August 30th. The firemen of this city will participate in the festivities of the day. As special rates have been secured for the occasion, it is expected that Plattsmouth will be well represented. Nebraska City is leaving Plattsmouth in the shade.

-Messrs, Joplin and Nash, two prominent workers of the Y. M. C. A., who have been attending the conference held here for the past few days, started out this morning with subscription papers to try and raise $800 for the purpose of paying a general secretary, rent, furnishing of rooms, etc. At noon we were surprised to hear of their great success. Over | Kearney. $535 have been raised with good prospects and the gentlemen have been so much encouraged so far that they consider the collection of the balance very little work.

-The funeral of Mrs. Emma Whitney, who die:l at her home, two miles south of the city, at 7:10 o'cock Saturday evening, took place yesterday afternoon. She was buried in the Eikenbary cemetery, three miles south of the city. She was a victim of typhoid fever, which is so prevalent here at present. Rev. F. K. Surface, of the U. B. church, preached the sermon, and the funeral was under the managemen of the I. O. O. F., of this city. She was the daughter of John and Catharine Foryer, was born in Elk Meart county, Indiana, and was aged 20 years, 6 months and 13 days at the time of her death. She leaves a husband and two children to mourn her loss.

-The following gentlemen were delegates to the Y. M. C. A. district convention which was held here Friday, Saturday and Sunday last: State secretary, August Nash, Omaha; Geo. C. Jenner, Omaha; O. M. Joplin, Omaha; J. B. Caldwell, Omaha; H. W. Pennock, Omaha; Mr. Flemming, Omaha; Lew Nelson, Omaha; Lew Anderson, Omaha; Mr. Pollock, Pawnee City; F. M. Evry, Pawnee City; G. M. Shoat, Nebraska City; Fred Davies, Nebraska City; Mr. Hyer, Nebraska City; Mr. Sidley, Nebraska City; Dr. Carrington, Weeping Water: Mr. Marcellous, Weeping Water; S. D. Pitchie, Weeping Water; S. F. The whole trouble seemed to arise on account of the nonappearance of the required number. One of their prominent backers, when he to send the train along and he would see that the required amount would be put urged by the managers to take hold and up on their return. The trustworthy help. ticket agent could not hear to this and informed them that the railroad company tickets could be disposed of in some way Upon learning this, the "silver-tongued orator " of the party, after bracing himgreat distance from the ground, which some supposed would not exceed $10, and frankly offered it by saying, "Gentlemen, here's a dollar, there's no excuse for of further demands when Mr. F. E. White came to their relief by "putting up" for thirty tickets himself. The money was handed over and the few previously discouraged democrats sent on their way rejoicing to the land of the Wahoos. The reason given by the gentleman for making so extensive a contribution was that he wished to have the town relieved of the crowd for one night. About seventy-five passengers were carried to Wahoo that night, where they helped out a slim rally at that place. So much for the democrats and we would advise them
