

Evening Herald. DIAL PAPER OF THE CITY. Salisbury, Dentist, Rockwood Building, phone No. 25. Dr. Higgins, Office in Gerling's Drug Store, Residence Cor. Sixth and Granite, Telephone No. 42. Drs. Cave & Smith, the Painless Dentists, Union Block, over Fricke's Drug Store, Plattsmouth.

CITY CORDIALS.

The wife of Mr. Will White presented him with a son this morning. Mr. Chas. Harris presented the prints of this office with a fine large watermelon this morning. The Wells, Fargo express company have a neat wagon at work on the streets this afternoon. Miss Kate Oliver, of this city, was elected last Tuesday night as teacher for the First ward. The track every morning is crowded with horses, and at present is open to all drivers of horses. It is expected that a large crowd from this city will attend the democratic rally which will be held at Glenwood tonight. The appearance of a daughter at the home of Rev. W. B. Alexander this morning, calls a pleasant expression to his face today. Mr. B. F. Lambert, of Rock Bluffs, has received a pension of $1,650, and for each month following this he will receive thirty dollars. The Omaha Herald and Republican have each published half-column articles in regard to our coming fair, and have the thanks of all interested in the success of the same. The celebrated B. & M. band will furnish music during the fair and will occupy the observatory above the new building and will discourse music that can be heard in the city. ATTENTION, Y. P. S. C. E.! All members of the Y. P. S. C. E. who are willing to sell tickets for the concert Monday evening can secure tickets at the county clerk's office of E. J. Streight. The Francis Cleveland club, of this city, will accompany the members of the young men's democratic club to Glenwood tonight. A special car has been secured for the accommodation of the young ladies. Already over thirty have become members. The democratic rally which is to be held here on September 20th, is being extensively advertised, and large streamers have already been conspicuously posted up. Judging by the preparations now being made, their "blow out" will be a successful one. A grand ball will be given under the auspices of the Weeping Water fire department in the new Gibson block at Weeping Water, Wednesday evening, Sept. 19th. Excellent music will be furnished by the famous Lincoln German band. It is expected that a large number from the fire department here will attend. The following members of the Turners' society here leave the city to-night for St. Joe, where they go to participate in the exercises of a Turner picnic, which will be held there next Saturday and Sunday: John Kopp, John Baumann, H. Zuckweiler, Geo. Lushinsky, John Lutz, C. Haum, P. Wurl, Max Lemm, Val Egenberger, P. Kraus. The stretcher which is used in carrying wounded men about the city, and which has been left in front of a vacant store on Main street since it was used to remove Mr. Simmons to the Riddle house after the accident a week last night, could be stored away in a more suitable location until its services are required again. The majority of people do not care about being compelled to gaze upon it more than is necessary. The sanctimonious and notorious Hearn who held a position in this office at one time as foreman, and who cut his throat and floated down the Missouri (as many people thought) leaving a coat, hat and razor to the bereaved friends who mourned his loss, is said to have abandoned the pulpit. He is now humbly existing as a clerk in a small town in Illinois. The people of this city who dragged the river for days in search of him, and shed tears of regret when they believed the cruel waters of the Missouri had swallowed—what never could be replaced—and what they could find good use for here for about five minutes. No such a Hearn as he could drown. Nearly ever small town has what may be termed a wedding prognostication Association. This peculiar institution makes a specialty of pairing off the marriageable people of the place, selecting their wedding outfits, groomsman and bridesmaids, providing their future quarters, and attending to the general details of the ceremony without consulting the parties interested. The fact that they miss their guess nine times out of ten does not seem to impair their usefulness in the slightest, they keep on guessing for the pure love of the thing, and cackle and shake their wise heads when they do happen to hit the mark in a way that is calculated to make sensible people weary of life.

Hobbs, of Lusk, Wyoming territory, who was county treasurer here about twelve years ago, and was for some time a resident of this city, arrived here this morning. He is the guest of his son-in-law, Mr. John Minor. A team which has been working on the lower sewer in the vicinity of the B. & B. depot was driven too close to the bank of the old sewer, which is about twenty-five feet deep. The horses were precipitated into the water at the foot of the bank, and one was drowned before assistance could reach it. The other horse was pulled out by ropes. The accident happened as we go to press or a more satisfactory report would be given. An examination of the school teachers who sent in applications for the vacancies in the schools here, was commenced this morning by Professor Drummond. The following young ladies are being examined: Misses Kate Oliver, Plattsmouth; Millie Bell, Ashland; Laura Graves, Iowa City; Ella R. Hanna, Geneseo, Ill.; May Berrie, Maggie Berrie, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. Two men were arrested yesterday afternoon for breaking into the house of Mr. Fred Howland and robbing it of jewelry and clothing. No substantial evidence could be secured against them and they were sent over the river this morning. The articles have not yet been recovered. Mr. O. P. Smith has quietly been receiving instructions in fine art painting for some time, and has proved himself to be an efficient artist since. Specimens of his work are on exhibition at the store of O. P. Smith & Co.

Fair Notes.

The roadster race will occur next Wednesday, the first day of the fair. The prospects now are that while the time will not be very fast, the race will be one of the most interesting during the fair. The entries, as we understand, will be made by C. M. Holmes, W. D. Jones, Dr. E. W. Cook, Sam Shoemaker, with others to hear from, and as there is no choice in the horses, it will be close and exciting, especially as the owners will drive their horses. The following will be the races that will occur on the first day—Wednesday, Sept. 19th, the management having placed the roadster race on that day instead of Thursday the 20th: WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 19. Lot 1. Pony race, free for all; purse $50. Running race for ponies under 14 1/2 hands high, one-half mile heats, best two in three: First horse, $25, second, $15; third, $10. Lot 2. Three minute trot; purse $100. Trotting race for horses that have never beaten three minutes, mile heats, best three in five. First horse, $50; second, $30; third, $20. Lot 7. Bicycle race; purse $30. Half mile heats, best two in three. First, $15; second, $10; third, $5. Lot 4. Gentlemen's roadsters; purse, $50. Horses to have never trotted for money outside of Cass county, mile heats, best three in five. First horse, $25; second, $15; third, $10. Louisville. A large number of our town people are attending the state fair at Lincoln this week. Mr. John Bringman and Capt. Hoover are at Columbus, Ohio, attending the G. A. R. reunion. Burglars entered the residence of F. S. Rockwell Sunday night and relieved Seth of his watch. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sutton visited Weeping Water, Ashland, Mead and other places last week. Messrs. Sackman & Stevens have their circular sawing at the state fair. It is reported that they are doing a good business. School began here last Monday with an enrollment of 105 scholars. This is a larger attendance than we had at the opening of school a year ago. A Swede by the name of Johnson met with quite a serious accident last Sunday. While taking his cow to pasture his feet got entangled in the rope, throwing him and breaking his leg. SMKE. A Democratic Side Show. The following few lines are a facsimile of a dodger issued by a joint company of democrats and prohibitionists of Durand, Ill., the sight of which causes the democrats of this city a look of pain, and the majority of them have a presentment of evil when they gaze upon its cooperative face: Durand democrats-prohibitionists will hold a joint meeting at the town hall Saturday, September 8th. Music will be furnished by the Democratic and Prohibition Glee Clubs, of Rockford, and the Durand brass band. The Cleveland-Thurman escort corps, of Rockford, the prize club of Winnebago Co., will be present. Speaking by Maj. N. C. Warner, J. W. Hart, of Rockford, and others. Everybody come and listen to the discussion of the issues of the day. Special train, fare for the round trip, 70 cents. List of Letters. My brother was also very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. An satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life." Mr. D. I. Wilcoxian, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: "He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters." This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malarial Diseases, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach Disorders stands unequalled. Price 50c, and $1. at F. G. Frickie & Co.'s drug store, 6

A CARD.

Having this day sold my stock of Hardware, Stoves, Tinware, etc., to Messrs. Brekenfeld & Weidman, I would respectfully and earnestly ask that all those in my debt come forward promptly and settle their accounts; as it will be necessary for me to close up my business as speedily as possible before engaging in other pursuits. I also take this occasion to thank the public, both in the city and county, for the very liberal patronage given me during the time I have been engaged in business here, and hope the same will be extended to my successors. The finest bedroom sets can be found at H. Boeck's. Unhappy Facility of Expression. Some people have such an unhappy facility of expression, combined with clipped methods of thought, that they are likely to indulge in speech which it would "puzzle a Dutchman" to translate. The "History of Weare, New Hampshire," refers to a loquacious townsman who reversed the old maxim, and "went ahead" without being sure she was right. One of her stories was to the effect that her husband sowed some flax, which came up and grew, until the frost struck it and blighted every spear. Then the worms took it and ate it all up; then the drought took it and killed it all, and when they came to pull it they didn't have half a crop. After that they rotted it, and her husband done out some of it, and it wasn't good for nothing. Then they let it lay a year, and it was the best flax she ever see. She used some of it to make cloth for her husband's shirts. "It was cotton linen cloth. It was warp, and the warp was fling, and the blue was yaller, and it was dyed in huckleberry, and it was thick as the table. It wore splendidly, and my husband liked the shirts so well that he wore them all out in a fortnight!"—Youth's Companion. State of Nebraska, Cass county, ss. In County Court.
