OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

CITY CORDIALS.

The city council will meet tonight. School's out.

Mr. Joe Kelly is rejoicing over the arrival of a boy at his home.

No cases of diphtheria have been reported on the city register today, which information we are glad to impart.

The following named couples were licensed to wed yesterday: Frank Sween and Nellie Walker, and John W. Colbert and Lucy Frerbo.

The nine year old son of Mr. Frank, a German, died last night about 5 o'clock of diphtheritic croup. The funeral will occur tomorrow.

Sheriff Eikenbary was allowed an hour by the Judge of the district court today. When he quitted the court-room a man handed him $2.00. He is now scheming for a lay-off.

The HERALD announced a meeting of the council for last night, and at the time we supposed the district school had been let out, but have since been informed to the contrary.

There will be no meeting of the St. Luke's Guild this week, but the ladies of that society are requested to meet tomorrow (Wednesday) afternoon at the rectory for the purpose of tying greens.

Pat Muldoon's band marched through the streets today noon and attracted much attention by their rendition of sweet music. The company will appear at the Waterman opera house to night.

The four year old daughter of Mr. Burk, living at South Park, died last night of membranous croup. The family is in destitute circumstances and the county will be at the expense of the burial.

Mr. Ed Morley has removed his barber shop from its recent location in the basement of the Carruth block, to more favorable quarters on the second floor of the Dovey block. He requests all his old patrons to follow him to his new rooms, which he has furnished with every accommodation suitable for a barber shop.

Pat Muldoon and his comedy company will appear at the Waterman opera house tonight. The company is strictly first-class and they carry their own band and orchestra. As comedies are, as a rule, well patronized by Plattsmouth people, this company is entitled to a good house. Seats on sale at the usual place.

Arrangements have recently been made by parties who, a short time ago indulged in a horse race on the new race track, for another race, to occur on the new course, one week from next Saturday, and will be between the Shreve horse—O'Neil, and "Sap Billy," owned by Ketchum. Forfeit money amounting to $60 has already been deposited, and the race will be for $50 a side. Shreve's horse came out victorious in the previous race. The race will be one half mile dash.

The proprietor of the Riddle house, who is recognized in this city as a cracked shot and a first-class game-chaser, nearly ended his career a few days ago while on one of his usual hunts. In company with a guest he drove west of the city a few miles and entered a wood in which the owner had forbidden anyone to trespass in search of game. The leader marksman trusted to his elocutionary powers should they run against the man who had nailed up the forbidding slab. No experience has ever been revealed to us by this expert hunter, and we are obliged to accept the statement of the man who was imposed upon. He informed us that he followed the intruder with a gun and that he would have stopped short of nothing had he come within good range of them. He is laying for him now, and says he will Riddle him if he ever goes there again.

Mr. D. H. Wheeler, of Omaha, an old resident of Plattsmouth, founded the Plattsmouth Lodge, No. 6, A. F. and A. M., about thirty-five years ago, and labored under many difficulties then in behalf of the order to establish a lodge here, attended a meeting of the lodge at their hall last evening. Since he has taken up his abode in Omaha, he withdrew from the lodge here, and for some time has filled the office of master-mason in Lodge No. 1 at that city, the oldest lodge in the state. He was cheerfully received by his brother masons here last night, and made the recipient of a very handsome Pastmaster's Jewel, which is valued at about $100. The pin bears the emblem of the order, and is very handsome. A beautiful diamond is set in the centre and illuminates his handsome bed. Hon. F. E. White made the presentation speech which was responded to by Mr. Wheeler by a few well chosen remarks. Hon. Geo. Smith, of Omaha, a former citizen of Plattsmouth, and Mr. M. B. Murphy, also called upon for speeches, and played in the new stable remarks.

He Had to Walk Home.

An interesting story was related to the reporter this morning concerning a young man of this city and a little love drama in which he is the star. As severe a trial, because he only loved a girl a little, he should not have been obliged to endure, but as such is the case with many under similar circumstances, he must practice patience and tolerate the joke and the many jests now brought to bear on account of it. We can only sympathize with him and offer a helping hand to bring the conspirators to task for their unbecoming conduct. The young man's name is withheld for fear that if it were given away his patience would be tested still more. This fellow loves a lassie about eight miles south of the city and his regular trips in that direction are numerous, so much so, that he is not the only person who knows the whereabouts of the attraction, and several of his friends in the city, through curiosity, have enquired and learned that a young lady lives about eight miles distant and that she is the attraction. As the boys found this city too quiet for their entertainment last Sunday, they decided on a course which they did not miscalculate on affording them much amusement. At the regular hour Sunday evening he started out for the young lady's home, and was followed a short time later by some of his friends. When they arrived at his destination they found his horse tied and it appeared to be under the impression that it was in for an all night stand, and it would not have been mistaken, no doubt, had not the boy interrupted the faithful animal and moved it on. They found more favorable quarters in a neighbor's barn, and tied it there, without notifying any one or asking any questions, to await the arrival of its thoughtless master. The desired work was then complete and the boys returned to the city to await the results. When the clock announced the wee sma' hours, the young fellow then attired himself preparatory to taking his departure. He reached the spot where he left his faithful horse many hours before, and the first disagreeable thought of the night passed through his head. "Some sinner has stolen my rig, and what am I to do now?" After a thorough search of the premises, the only thing left for him to do was to walk home, and the distance seemed much too "long" to suit him, but he made the best of his misfortune and started out. Yesterday he secured another rig and started out in search of the other. He scoured the country in that vicinity, and much to his delight, found the animal. As the farmer could not explain how the rig came in his barn, the young man is yet puzzled to know how it got there.

The following reasons for purchasing lots in South Park still hold good: As a whole they are the finest lying in the city.

They are shaded with beautiful forest trees. They are located between Chicago and Lincoln avenues, the two finest drives about the city.

They are only a ten minutes' walk from the business portion of the town, and five minutes' walk south from the shops.

Only one-half mile from the New Fair grounds.

The only addition to the city reached by two established avenues.

The only new addition to the city reached by water mains and with a prospect of being supplied in the near future with complete water privileges.

Has a new brick school house and good school.

Will certainly have street car privileges at no distant date.

If you wish a fine view of the river, locate in South Park.

If you wish a slightly and picturesque view of Plattsmouth, it can be had from a South Park lot.

To persons in the railroad employ, the eastern portion of South Park is the most desirable residence locality in the city.

To persons desiring a residence on Chicago Avenue, the western portion of South Park is suitable for that purpose.

The B. & M. railroad track runs near the east line of the addition, furnishing good facilities for manufacturing industries.

Over $14,000 worth of this desirable property has been disposed of within a short period and no part has been sold to outside speculators which is solid proof of the growth of this part of the city.

More substantial houses were built in South Park in the fall of 1887 and summer of 1888 than in any one locality in the city.

The projected line of the Missouri Pacific railway is along the west side of South Park.

Terms, one-third cash, balance in one and two years, or lots may be purchased on monthly payments.

Any number of persons, not less than five, purchasing ten lots in one transaction will be given a lot free to dispose of as they may deem proper.

Any person or persons purchasing 20 or more lots and paying 1/2 cash, may have one and two years on balance without interest.

The title of this property is perfect and clear from incumbrance.
