CITY CORDIALS.

—No meeting at the M. E. church this evening.
—The icemen are procuring the best ice at Orepolis.
—Elmir Trayer was badly bitten through the hand this morning while trying to break up a dog fight.
—The men's gospel meeting at the Y. M. C. A. rooms tomorrow opens at 3:45 with song service. Strangers especially invited.
—Senator Polk, accompanied by his guest, Judge Styles, returned from Lincoln this morning to remain in the city over Sunday.
—It is rumored that the opera "Falke" will be produced in this city by home talent at an early date. It will be under the direction of a well known professor of Chicago.
—A girl named Herrman brought suit against a young man named Kuntzmann on a charge of bastardy. The preliminary trial is before Judge Pottenger this afternoon. Kuntzmann is said to be wrongfully accused.
—Ex-Warden Hyers informs us that he has not definitely decided yet whether he will return to Cass county permanently or not, but that quite likely he would. Mr. Hyers' many friends would gladly welcome him back.—Wabash News.
—Win. Allen, whose condition was reported in the last two issues of the HERALD, died this morning at 10:30. He suffered intense agony during his short sickness from inflammation. The remains will be removed to Indiana, his home, in the morning.
—As the report comes that Germany has "backed down," and that war will not interrupt the peaceful nations, the Sons of Veterans of this city who were getting "a little on their ear" and preparing for battle, will have no occasion to retain their wrath longer, so they can contentedly cool themselves off.
—Regular services will be held at the Christian church tomorrow (Sunday) morning and evening. Morning theme: "Are we Orthodox?" Evening theme: "Personal Responsibility." David Everett of Omaha, state Sunday school evangelist who has been holding meetings in the above church all week, will conduct the services tomorrow.
—Among the changes of officers on the B. & M., we notice the promotion of Mr. F. S. Granger to the office of assistant superintendent of the southern division, with jurisdiction over all lines between DeWitt and Holdrege, Chester and Fairmont, Edgar Superior, with headquarters at Edgar. Mr. Granger is well known in this city, having run from here as conductor for some time. His friends will be glad to learn of his promotion.
—Yesterday afternoon the Omaha Republican changed hands and was sold to Mr. Nye, formerly editor of the Omaha Herald. Under the new management it is believed the paper will be greatly improved. It will be printed in a "new dress" and on four pages instead of eight. It will be sold at two cents and will be the cheapest morning paper between Chicago and San Francisco. We welcome the new paper and wish the management success in its undertaking.
—A good assemblage of Presbyterians responded and met at the Presbyterian church last night to negotiate with a committee appointed at the board of trade meeting, in view of making an exchange. The Presbyterians made the following proposition to the board: 1st. They would sell their property for $4,000, and 2nd. They would accept $3,000 and a lot on the southeast corner of the high school grounds, in exchange for their property. A committee was appointed at the meeting and a time appointed for them to meet this morning at the office of the county treasurer, but a quorum was not present and the meeting was adjourned until this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Death of Grandma Hobbs.

Grandma Hobbs is dead. Her maiden name was Axby Alley, she was born in West Virginia Feb. 20, 1806, and died at Elmwood Jan. 26, 1889. She was one of the stock of hardy pioneers who have been so successful in pushing the line of the frontier so far to the west. Although a woman of more than ordinary intellectual ability, a great reader, a wonderful bible student, well abreast of the times in all political and religious information, born a year before the first steamboat sailed up the Hudson twenty years before the first railroad was built, yet she never rode on a railroad but once in her life and that was last summer. She was among the first adherents to and a life long and fearless defender of the doctrine taught by A. Campbell and his coadjutors. She lived to see the plea she so much loved encircle the globe and its adherents number almost a million. Grandma and Grandpa Hobbs were old settlers in Cass county having settled near Rock Bluffs in fifty-six where they lived until about two years ago when they were brought to Elmwood to be cared for by Dr. R. N. Hobbs of that place. The funeral services were conducted by Eld. Alton assisted by Eld. Hardman and Rev. Gilmore.—Wabash News.

PERSONALS.

Miss Matie Rounds of Schuyler will spend Sunday in the city.
M. W. Hepfinger, Deputy U. S. Marshal, is in the city today on business.
Mrs. A. N. Alexander, of Omaha, is the guest of her son, Rev. W. B. Alexander.
Mr. Chas. Young, of St. Joe, nephew of Mr. J. P. Young, is in the city visiting relatives.
Messrs. J. A. Connor, J. P. Minor, F. Gorder and Timothy Clark were in Omaha today.
Miss Clara Palmer, daughter of Capt. Palmer, who is attending school at Omaha, came to the city to spend Sunday at her home.
Mr. W. R. Ellington, of Rock Bluffs, is in the city today. Mr. Ellington has the honor of being acknowledged as the first sheriff of Cass county.

Every Word True.

Sutton has a Double Company "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and Specialty. Thirty-seven people. Dogs, Donkeys, Jubilee Shouters, Beautiful Shetland Ponies. Surely the largest company ever organized to play that popular drama "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Watch for our street parade; this will convince you of the magnitude of this company. Remember two great bands in our parade. We do not advertise more than we have. This Big Double Company will be at the Waterman opera house next Saturday afternoon and night, Feb. 9th. Reserved seat tickets will go on sale Monday morning.

B. & M. Notes.

Orders have been given for the equipment of a large number of passenger cars with the Janny coupler. This would seem to indicate that the days of the much vaunted Miller coupler were numbered.
The first installment of 1000 34 foot 20 ton air-brake equipped box cars, has just arrived and they look very gay with their yellow signs. We understand that a large number of engines are also on order.
—Hon. F. M. Richey, of Plattsmouth, Neb., was a caller on last Thursday. He has been visiting with his nephew, F. M. Richey, of Norfolk, this county. Mr. Richey was a member of the Iowa legislature from Union county, during the winter of 1880, after which he moved to Plattsmouth, and was last spring elected mayor of that city. He is a thorough republican and the city of which he is mayor is democratic, which proves him to be a popular gentleman.—Indianola, Iowa, Herald.

—The boys and girls who have found a new skating stretch on the Missouri, are running two many chances in skating over some portions where the ice is considered unsafe. Where the current is as swift as in the center of the Missouri, there would be no possible chance for escape should any of the skaters break through and be drawn under the ice.

—Mr. J. P. Young received word from Lincoln Thursday that the supreme court had confirmed the ruling of the lower courts in his case against the Missouri Pacific. The company will pay all damages with costs. The suit was brought against the company for a Mason & Hamlin piano which had been damaged in October, 1886.

—A stranger in the city who gave his name as Smith, picked up a handsome bangle in the form of an artist's palette, this morning. The piece is solid gold and bears the inscription: "Mons. 1883." If the owner applies to officer Fitzpatrick the piece can be secured.

Go and see J. P. Young's Picture Gallery of over 200 subjects. It must be seen to be appreciated.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The change of readers is over and everybody appears satisfied and happy over the result, especially the pupils.
Miss Wiles and Miss Gass concluded to exchange rooms. Miss Wiles now occupies number 12 and Miss Gass number 15. Parties calling on the respective ladies will take due notice and avoid confusion.
This has been a busy week for the superintendent looking after his routine work, grading the schools and exchange of books.
While the board has their hand in, would it not be a good time to regulate the price of the balance of the books used in the school. By so doing they would secure the lasting gratitude of school patrons.
It is amusing to observe the look of satisfaction displayed in the countenance of the pupils as they take their bundle of books and climb a pair of stairs to a higher grade.

WHAT IS FLIRTATION?

What is flirtation? Really how can I tell you that? But when she smiles I see its wiles, and when he lifts his hat.
'Tis walking in the moonlight, 'Tis buttoning on a glove; 'Tis lips that speak of plays next week, While eyes are talking love.
'Tis meeting in the ballroom, 'Tis whirling in the dance, 'Tis something hid beneath the lid, More than a simple glance.
'Tis lingering in the hallway, 'Tis sitting on the stair, 'Tis bearded lips on finger tips, If mamma isn't there.
'Tis tucking in the carriage, 'Tis asking for a call, 'Tis long good nights in tender lights, And that is—no, not all!
'Tis parting when it's over, And one goes home to sleep; Best joys must end, tra la, my friend, But one goes home to weep! —London Figaro.

A Notable Tree.

A remarkable and notable tree in Chicopee has lately fallen beneath the blows of the woodman's ax. It stood on the upper end of the street, the present owner of the place being Mrs. Taft, of this city. The tradition has always been that either Mr. or Mrs. McKinstry set out this tree when they built their house, which was about the time of Mr. McKinstry's settlement there as the first pastor of Springfield, in 1732. But since the tree was cut down it is believed that it must have been very much older than the house, and it is thought that it was fully 200 years old. It was a remarkably beautiful tree of the buttonwood variety, and the residents of Chicopee keepsakes pieces of the wood of this famous tree. It had changed very little for the last seventy-five years, having been "hollow" as long as present octogenarians played under it, and hid themselves in its protecting hollow. The circumference of the tree where it was cut down was thirty feet, and sons and daughters of Chicopee will miss the familiar landmark.—Boston Herald.

Women in the Dentist's Chair.
Said an Albany dentist recently: "Women are my best customers. I think that two-thirds of the persons I operate on are ladies, and they stand the work fully as well as, if not better than, men. I presume it is because they feel that they must have it done, because nothing makes a woman look homelier than decayed or unclean teeth. You know a gentleman's mustache will cover his teeth so that nobody will notice their appearance, but a lady has not this advantage, so she feels in duty bound to take care of her teeth in order to preserve her beauty. When she gets into the chair she has determination and will power that no pain can overcome."—Albany Journal.

A Wise Father.

"Who is your family doctor, Bobby?" "Dr. Green."
"Why, I thought you had Dr. Brown."
"No, we did until Dr. Green began sending sister Sally. Pop gets even with Green for coal and gas by having him keep the rest of us healthy for nuthin'." —Harper's Bazar.
