OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

A. Salisbury, Dentist, Rockwood Building, Telephone No. 22.
Dr. Withers, Dentist, Union Block.

CITY CORDIALS.

—Jake Jones, residence corner Pearl and 7th streets, and Katie Goos, corner Main and 3rd streets, are registered as having diphtheria.

—All members of the Y. L. R. R. A. are requested to meet at the home of Miss Dora Herold, tomorrow, Friday evening, at 7:30 o'clock promptly.

—Secretary Bothwell has recovered from the recent attack of intermittent fever so far as to be able to resume duties in connection with the Y. M. C. A.

—By June first all lots along the old creek beds must be raised to the established grade. It is true it will take a great deal of dirt to do this, but to open up one or more streets, a spacious depositing ground will be needed.

—A telegram was received this morning from J. C. Riley, of Omaha, stating that he would arrive in Plattsmouth on No. 5 and that he desired to meet all parties interested in the erection of the $25,000 hotel, and close the deal, yes or no.

—Mayor Broatch and wife, of Omaha, will be present at the Washington Inaugural Anniversary, to be celebrated in this city by the ladies of the Presbyterian church, on the night of April 30th. Mr. Broatch will be on the program to reply to a toast.

—H. F. Dean, formerly of Ashland, and other parties have formed an organization to be known as the "Guilt Edge Manufacturing Company," for the manufacture of windmills. Last month C. A. Woosley, of Greenwood, acting as their agent, secured building ground and a guarantee of $3,000 from the citizens of Columbus to have the company locate there.

—The steam elevator located in the north part of the B. & M. yards is being torn down. It was erected about 1880 but during the last two years has been idle and the owners, J. T. & M. Morrissey, are moving it to Lincoln to erect it again near the fair grounds. The B. & M. company wants the ground where the elevator stands for yard room, we understand.

—The county commissioners are out on an investigating tour of all Cass county bridges, crossings and culverts, and are accompanied by C. D. Douglas, of Pawnee City, who has been awarded the contract for all bridge building in Cass county this year. There have been some sixty bridges reported in need of repair by the various road overseers in the county.

—As was announced, yesterday's afternoon service at the Methodist church was for the "old people." There were about thirty old men and women there who had made profession of Christianity for thirty years or more, and these were invited to the platform and the meeting given into their hands. The attendance was large and a splendid time it was for the old folks.

—Mr. Guy Moore, of Reynolds, Neb., and Miss Jennie Dabb, of Main and Thirteenth-sts., this city, were married last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Baird, officiating. They started by the early morning train today for Cheyenne, Wyo., where they will reside. The HERALD joins with their many friends in wishing them abundant success.

—The two young men from Omaha, Harry and Lou Dale, who were in the city one or two nights last week and took active part in the singing at the revival meetings, were to have been here last night; but yesterday afternoon they were out riding on their bicycle and one or both of them took a "header" and were hurt so badly as to require the attendance of a physician.

—Sad news was brought to the city this morning from Murray. Last night the wife of Rev. Geo. R. Murray, who lives near Murray, died of quick consumption. The funeral will occur tomorrow, and the remains will be laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery. Mr. Murray is a man well known and highly esteemed in Cass county, and many hearts join in sympathy with him in his sad bereavement.

—The forgery cases which have been in the courts in this city ought to be an effective warning, of themselves, to all reckless young men. One of them, a boy, passed one note for $45, probably hardly realized the penalty of the law, and at least not thinking he would be caught, and yet he is on his way to the state penitentiary for eighteen months. The other, a young man, probably yet in his twenties, passed a note for $600 only last week, left town and doubtless thought he was beyond reach, yet today he pleaded guilty in two courts and is waiting for his sentence. The law for forgery imposes a heavy penalty; neither of these young men committed any bloody crime, yet they have violated the law and will know its power before the penalty is paid.

"GUILTY."
The Plea of two Prisoners Before Judge Russell this Morning.

Deputy Sheriff Miller returned this morning from Kansas City with the man wanted here for forgery, arriving at 9:50. He, with the prisoner, Frank McCan, proceeded to County Judge Russell's office. Geo. Johnson, the young man who broke into the house of Peter Nord out by Orepolis was also brought into court with McCan.

Geo. Johnson is a stout young man, not particularly bad looking, nineteen years of age, and said he was a machinist. His charge of breaking into a house and committing petty larceny was read and he immediately plead "guilty" and was fined $10 and cost, being unable to secure bail or pay the fine he was remitted to jail to board it out.

Frank McCan heard the charge of forgery, committed March 8, read and immediately plead "guilty". Judge Russell assessed $500 bonds for his appearance at the district court to answer the charge of forgery. McCan stated he could secure no bonds and did not want them, and will await his trial in jail. Both prisoners apparently realized their guilt and that defence was useless, and seemed resigned to take what they should get.

A Right View of Plattsmouth.
Last evening a HERALD representative sat in the Union Pacific depot at Omaha and overheard this conversation between two parties, one a resident of Plattsmouth, the other not:

Non-resident: "Plattsmouth is improving considerable, I have noticed it especially in the last year or two; not a growth of the boom nature, but a steady and substantial improvement."

Resident: "Yes, that is so. During my three year's residence there, there has been a wonderful improvement; I have paid particular attention to the city and notice a public spiritedness of considerable extent has been awakened."

"I do not think that Plattsmouth has had full credit for the advance that has been made, but if one will just consider, she is equal to any other city in that line and I believe good progress will be made soon in more noticeable ways."

"Plattsmouth has a splendid foundation for her future, and I am delighted with the general aspect of things this spring. I have noticed that visitors from larger and booming cities did not observe readily where Plattsmouth was equal to them, but since public improvement has been carried so far, her importance can be seen. When the next census is taken, I believe it will be found that the population has nearly doubled since the one before."

The Methodist Meetings.

There was a large crowd turned out to hear Evangelist Miller last night, at the M. E. church, the house being crowded and standing room at a premium.

After a half hour of song service by the choir, Mr. Miller sang a solo, "In the Bright Land over yonder," which awakened considerable enthusiasm. After another song by the evangelist, "Step Out on the Promise," which was sung in a very impressive manner, the pastor read the parable found in Luke 15: 1-10, which was followed by Miller singing the beautiful song "Ninety and Nine."

The evangelist talked from the narrative found in II Kings 5th chapter. After the exhortation, the invitation was given to those who were out of Christ, and many knelt at the altar of prayer, and before the meeting adjourned confessed their Savior.

The meetings will continue the remainder of the week. There is much interest manifested by all Christian people in the services, and many are being brought into the church of Christ.

District Court Notes.

There was not a great deal of reportable business transpired in the district court today. The jury in the case of Boster vs. the M. P. failed to agree after being out twenty-four hours, and last night the court dismissed them.

Grant B. Dunn, the young man who forged and passed a note for $45.00 with Geo. Wiles' signature some months ago, was brought before the court this morning, where he pleaded guilty to forgery, and was sentenced to eighteen months in the penitentiary. He is nineteen years of age.

This afternoon Frank McCan was summoned before the district court and the charge of forgery made to him to which he pleaded guilty. He will be arraigned tomorrow morning to receive his sentence.

The jury was summoned this afternoon and the case of Plattsmouth Street Railway Co. vs. F. R. Guthman was heard. Wm. L. Browne for plaintiff, B. S. Ramsey for defendant.

W. R. C. Meeting.
All members of the W. R. C. are requested to meet with the G. A. R. at the hall, Saturday evening, March 16. Each member is requested to bring a cake.

By order of president.

KATE E. McMAKEN.

—As yet we have heard nothing concerning our city election which occurs on Tuesday, April 2nd. We are not aware of any fight to be made this year by anyone, but the citizens should post themselves on the different questions of city government, and be able to vote intelligently and for the best interest of the city when the time comes around. Plattsmouth is now on the highroad to prosperity and it behooves every citizen to look to its interest, and vote only for such men as will use their influence and position for the best interest and greatest progress of our city. We will not be personal in this matter and as you know not of a man whose name is likely to be used in connection with any city office, or have we any criticism to offer against any man who now holds such office, but merely speak of this matter to remind our people that the time is at hand when they are to vote for men who are to govern our city for the ensuing year, and entreat them to allow no prejudices or malice to control their vote; but vote only for the good of the city.
Notice is hereby given that cows and stock of any kind will not be allowed to run at large on and after Thursday, March 14, 1889.
I. H. DOWS,
City Marshal.
