Evangelist Miller's Last Night. The singing evangelist, E. F. Miller, who has had such a successful series of meetings in the Methodist church for two weeks, held his last meeting last night; though the meetings may be continued next week by the pastor, Rev. W. B. Alexander. The afternoon meeting yesterday was well attended, and Mr.

Miller gaye a little reading to Christians at the invitation to seekers a good number came forward to the altar and accepted their Savior.

Though the weather last night was such as would keep people at home, the church was again crowded. The order of the meeting was different from others; the congregation spent some time singing and then Mr. Miller gave the meeting into their hands for a testimonial service, and about 180 took part in testimony.

The evangelist sang a farewell solo to the congregation, entitled, "I hope to meet you all in Glory." The words of this piece were appropriate and it was sang with the usual expression and earnestness of Mr. Miller. There were a number of conversions. After the services were over a large number staid and sang and had a farewell rejoicing and handshaking with the evangelist. Many converts and a host of friends will remember Mr. Miller with kindest regards -All young men are invited to attend as he goes about over the country in his tomorrow, but on account of the serious illness of his father-in-law at Denver, he took the flyer for that city this morning. Mr. Miller many times during the meetings, and elsewhere, expressed extreme pleasure and confidence in the young men of the Young Men's Christian Association of Plattsmouth, and -A dog supposed to be afflicted with termed it "the star association of the rabies was shot in the yard of Joseph west." which the association must be worthy to experience and observation. "But," he -The greater part of the programme said, "nowhere have I found a body of

OBITUARY.

DIED: -- Mamie McCoy, aged 15 years, of consumption, at the home of her father, Joseph McCoy, corner Main and Fifth streets, March 15that 9 o'clock p. m. Last night the life of Mamie McCoy went out, after a long and painful atteck of consumption. The girl was well known in this city. During her contined illness since last fall, many friendly hands ministered to her wants and desires with flowers and other symbles of their love for her. But to no avail. except a source of comfort to the suffering one. Her life was despaired of long ago, and for several weeks she was continually at the point of death, and at times unconcious from suffering. She knew the end of her illness would soon come, and the little soul that 'fluttered and almost longed for liberation has finally been set free by that destroyer of vital fibre-consumption. The funeral s ryices will be held at the father's residence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Many are the friends, young and old, that join their heartfelt sympathies with the parents and family.

-When a boy, of eight or nine years of age, the editor of this paper had an opportunity to show his "patriotism," by walking, in company with an elder brother, a distance of eight miles to hear a speech by "Pretty Billy Windom," as he was then facetiously called by envious opponents, now secretary of the treasury under President Harrison. This was during the early days of Mr. Windom's political career, and he was exceedingly popular among the people of his own state, Minnesota, as the feat above related will attest, even the small boys deeming it absolutely necessary that they should lend their presence on all occasions where Mr. Windom was to be present .- Saunders County Leader.

- A poetical editor thus remarks: "There was a man in our town and he was wonderous wise, for when he marked his prices down, he then did advertise. And when he saw his trade increase, with all his might and main, he lower still marked every price and advertised again. And when he advertised again his rivals loudly swore, to see folks rush with might and main, to patronize his store. And while they sat in solitude, and saw his custom win, that man behind the counter stood and raked the shekels in. And when he raked the shekels in, he saw his fortune rising; he took a goodly lot of tin and kept on advertising. Each day a generous sum he'd sink, and demPERSONALS.

A Tough Little Town.

The Otoe county farmers are evidently getting down on Cass county's booming city. This is the way the Nebraska City News speaks about it: "Ben Hargus, the well known farmer of Wyoming precinct, does not like to go Union as the crowd there are entirely too tough for him. He says there is a gang who make a practice of stealing the rings off a farmer's harness and will appropriate whips, robes, etc. He reports several cases where everything has been stolen and the horses tied with the lines and in some cases the teams have been turned loose.

THE JOKER.

The weather always affects THE JOKER to a great degree, and he was almost discouraged at the prospect to get "in pint" this week, because of a severe attack of opring fever. Yesterday's change, howeyer, straightened him out in good shape.

THE JOKER does not desire to see a family circus in any home, and so feels it his solemn duty to warn all married men to keep off the jury. Yes, its a fact, your cunning wife took advantage of the "night you were out," and had a grand musical entertainment at the house, to which all the neighbors were present.

It is a happy thought that comes, when THE JOKER observes that the question nal. agitated sometime ago whether Plattsmouth would be able to withstand the competition of Mercerville and Oreapolis, has ceased to be agitated; and in face of the great building enterprises on foot, believes that the city can brace up and support a city hall.

The ingenuity exhibited by the county editor when he is brought to straights' is sometimes equal to the managing ability of some of the millionaires.

A last week's publication of one of the county papers containes this example of surmounting ingenuity after the case was short of "sorts," which THE JOKER heartily admires:

"c. r. Bargon's teaM Got TiRed of standing in front of sheldon's sAloon wagging jaws, we should judge that they tuesday Night aNd staRted of on a Rip of theiR own. charley had to wAlk to the paRty."

After having a "severe spell" THE JOKER always remains in a medical frame of mind for a days, and that is his condition now. He woke up this morning teeling like he had hung in a stretching machine all night; his neck was stiff, his throat was irritated, and his heart was agitating the subject of animal heat almost to the boiling point. If he surviyes he will "come again."

-At the meeting of the Presbyterian board of trustees last night, a committee was appointed to look over the city and secure a suitable lot on which to erect a necessary to continue the pleasure, and hopes a choice location will be sold them, if not donated, by some one able to consider the cause.

ONLY A POSTACE STAMP.

The New Musical Farge-Comedy Coming.

"A Postage Stamp" with its bright fun, catchy music and clever comedians, is a purely farcical comedy, ingeniously constructed as to afford abundant opportunity for character and the instruction of numerous specialties in which the entire company appear to good advan-tage. The idea of a heavy plot has not been taken into consideration. It does not pretend to tell much of a story; but is a melange of songs and dances well chosen connected by funny dialogue, and admirably serves the purpose for which it was intended-a good laugh. The people engaged to give life to the play are generally competent to be funny and know how to entertain. The Black Hussar Band and Star Orchestra are supplementary features .- Kansas City Jour-
