CITY CORDIALS.

The Mayer Bros. base ball nine, of Lincoln, will be here Decoration day, May 30, to play the Plattsmouth boys.

Marshal Dunn was called to the livery barn of C. W. Holmes this morning to shoot a large dog, which it was thought had rabies.

The town was worked today by a woman with a little baby in her arms and a petition. She sought subscriptions from the charitably disposed.

The Sunday school of the Christian church will give a picnic at the old fair grounds next Saturday, May 11th. All friends of the Sunday school are invited.

Gage county commissioners decided yesterday to submit to the voters of that county a proposition to vote $100,000 bonds for a court house. Cass county to the front!

Adams county, this state has just voted $75,000 for a court house and Gage county and Cass are just decided to vote bonds. Gage of $100,000 and Cass of $80,000.

Sufficient rain fell last night to drench everything and all vegetation seems to rejoice today in a refreshed existence. In the country it was a grand blessing to all crops and stock.

Tickets for the grand ball to be given by the A. O. U. W. on May 15th in Rockwood hall, are for sale at J. P. Young's and W. H. Baker's. The committee are sparing no pains in their preparations to make it one of the leading attractions of the season.

The colored folks of the Baptist church have made extensive preparations for their festival to be given this evening in the west room of the Waterman opera house block. The doors open open at 4:30 o'clock, supper will be served for 25 cents, and ice cream and strawberries will also be served. An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged.

It has been understood by a good many that the old Stadlemann house would stand on Pearl and Sixth streets as a frame building, but that is not the case. It is to have a good brick wall built up around it, making it a brick block, while the rest of the lots around it are to have a fine brick block which will be arranged for a fine livery stable and will be occupied by O. M. Straight. This will fill another set of vacant lots and give the city a worthy establishment. The confidence which Mr. Riley shows in the city ought to incite local property owners to make use of their means.

The Rt. Rev., the Bishop of the Diocese of Nebraska made a special visitation to St. Luke's parish yesterday and administered the apostolic rite of confirmation to a class of eleven persons presented by the Rector, Rev. H. B. Burgess. This is the second visitation of the Rt. Rev. gentleman this spring and shows the growth which the Episcopal church is enjoying in Plattsmouth. The names of the persons admitted to the church were Mr. Geo. Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Crehan, Mrs. J. L. Minor, Mrs. Geo. B. Kempster, Miss Emily Miller, Miss Rena Loomis, Miss Frank McCoy, Mr. Wm. Reinbackle.

The mule under the Sherwood block (known as the Journal) wants another bale of hay, it worked for the election of J. M. Patterson to be a member of the school board and as soon as he takes his seat, and before he does a single act, abuses him and accuses him of being a cat's paw for a couple of republicans. Although Mr. Patterson is of different political faith to us, we think he is a good citizen, and will not allow himself to be used as a cat's paw by the Journal, but do his duty by the schools. As he was elected by 200 majority, we are willing to trust him and believe he will satisfy the majority of the citizens.

At the annual meeting of St. Luke's Episcopal church held on evening of Easter Monday the following persons were elected for the ensuing year: W. J. White, senior warden; Wm. Ballence, junior warden; Dr. T. P. Livingston, Jos. W. Barwick, Henry Herold, L. A. Moore, Henry Helps, C. M. Wead, Treas., C. Barber, clerk, vestrymen. The annual reports read by the officers showed the church to be in a very healthy condition—there having been a considerable increase of membership in spite of heavy losses by death and removal. Improvements have been made during the past year on the church property and financial engagements have been met. The church starts out on the new year free from debt and with bright prospects for the future.

WILL VOTE THE BONDS

The Court House Question to Come Before the Voters of Cass County.

SATURDAY, JUNE 8, IS CHOSEN

The Time Anxiously Awaited When Cass County can Have Secure Vaults and Acceptable Offices.

Election Called for $80,000 Bonds. The county commissioners met in the regular May session Tuesday, May 7. Some miscellaneous business transacted was as follows:

On petition of twenty persons, Silas M. Cox was allowed $225.00 damages for loss of property in falling through the bridge over the Weeping Water, near Union with his team.

Bond of C. D. Dundas, for bridge building in Cass Co. for 1889 approved. Resignation of N. Newman J. P. of Salt Creek accepted and A. Cristenden appointed.

Bond of E. J. Norton, road overseer of district 39 was approved.

Dr. B. F. Brendel was appointed county physician for Rock Bluffs, Liberty and Mt. Pleasant precincts.

Druggists permit was granted to S. Hulish, of Wabash.

Bids were opened for making a fill of 650 yards of dirt near Eight Mile Grove and contract awarded to Fred Kroehler.

COURT HOUSE BONDS.

This morning the commissioners assembled and the first question taken up was the court house bond subject. A resolution was introduced by Louis Foltz instructing the clerk to call a special election Saturday, June 8, for the purpose of submitting to the voters of Cass county the proposition of issuing bonds to the amount of $80,000 to erect a court house in Plattsmouth. The resolution was adopted and clerk instructed to publish notices of election with the proposition. The bonds are to be issued in the denomination of $1,000 each, and dated January 1, 1890, to be paid at the fiscal agency of Nebraska, in the city of New York.

The bonds will be due in twenty years, redeemable, however, any time after ten years, will bear interest at 5%. Work is to be commenced on the building not later than April 1, 1890.

Tickets to be printed shall read (favoring) "For the issue of the bonds of the county of Cass for the purpose of building a county court house and the levy of a tax to pay the principal and interest of said bonds."

Tickets against the proposition are to read "Against the issue of the bonds of the county of Cass for the purpose of building a county court house and the levy of a tax to pay the principal and interest of said bonds."

This is the question which all enterprising citizens of Cass county have long desired to have settled, for the general feeling from one end of the county to the other favors the building of a court house, for the present structure is such an acknowledged shameful substitute.

A BAD RUNAWAY.

Farmer Frank Kendall of Union Has an Unfortunate Circumstance.

Mr. Frank Kendall, a farmer from near Union, was in town yesterday on business and on returning to his home last night was intercepted suddenly and unfortunally. He was in a light buggy drawn by a nice and lively span of horses which were rather frisky after having been standing all day and going home late in the evening. It was about 6:30 o'clock when Mr. Kendall started home down Chicago avenue. The horses went at a lively gate which they increased to a run and proved to be a runaway. As he passed Rock street, the horses going at a run hardly under his control he met Perry's express wagon which stood crosswise of the street. The front wheel of the buggy struck the back wheel of the wagon and was smashed completely. Kendall was thrown out, what his head struck, it is not known, but the back of his head received a serious scalp wound and several other severe bruises. The county sheriff just then happened to be coming in from the country and got out and took Kendall in the buggy to Dr. Livingston's, where his wounds were dressed and he was then taken to the Cottage house to be cared for. Mr. Kendall is a well respected farmer, about 45 years of age, is a G. A. R. man and that organization took him in care last night furnishing him a nurse. He rested fairly well last night and is in the way to recovery in due time.
