CITY CORDIALS.

—City council meets in regular session tonight.

—The residence on the jail is about completed to the roof.

—A baby boy arrived at the home of Robert Sherwood Saturday night.

—Young People's society of Christian Endeavor meets at the M. E. church tonight.

—The Ashland high school gives their first annual commencement on Friday evening of this week.

—The lot owned by John Fitzgerald on Vine and Fifth streets, is being filled several feet. Operations began this morning.

—John Hadraba, who was injured in the falling of the east wall of the Presbyterian church building is able to be at work again.

—The Y's will meet in the M. E. church tomorrow (Tuesday) evening at 7:30, and all members of that society are requested to attend.

—Tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock the Plattsmouth gun club and others wishing to participate will practice on glass balls at the fair grounds.

—The Ladies aid society of the M. E. church will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. Eikenberry on Pearl street.

—Secure your tickets for J. B. Polk next Saturday night at the opera house. This will be the last performance this season and should be well patronized.

—All children who are going to take part in the entertainment of the W. R. C. Wednesday night, are requested to meet at the G. A. R. hall tomorrow at 4 p. m.

—According to contract, the boilers and engines of the Oppermann Electric Lamp Manufacturing company were shipped from Chambersburg, Pa., today. The construction of the factory building is progressing favorably and the walls are up to the second story.

—This morning the case of Mike Wurga (State of Nebraska) vs. Mrs. Rose Emlick was heard before Justice Pottenger. Defendant was charged with assault upon plaintiff, but the evidence showed there was no assault made. D. O. Dwyer, a young man reading law with A. N. Sullivan, made his first appearance in justice's court in behalf of defendant, thus winning his first case.

—The peaceable citizens of Pearl street and vicinity are talking of getting out an injunction against people driving up there on Sundays, and giving exhibitions of unmanageable hilarity in horses, which is unbecoming to the day of rest. Last Sunday Sheriff Eikenberry's bay team took a tare in that neighborhood, and yesterday F. M. McCourt and little daughter were driving on that beautiful roadway when the team ran away. The Shakespearean groceryman and daughter were both thrown out, but with no serious results to either, luckily.

—Rev. J. T. Baird, of the Presbyterian church yesterday delivered a memorial address in Rockwood hall, at which the attendance was very large. The G. A. R. and W. R. C. attended in a body, also many of the S. of V. were present. The scriptural text was taken from Joshua 10. The American soldier responding to his country's call, and enduring hardships, danger, prison life and many of them at the sacrifice of their lives for their country's sake endeavored the veterans to our hearts, made the memory of the dead almost sacred and living worthy all honor and respect. Before closing, a fitting reference was made to the lives of the loved and honored Chaplain Wright and Dr. R. R. Livingston, who have now gone to their rest in the grave.

WANTS A COURT HOUSE.

That's the way a Central County Voter Writes on the Subject.

LOUISVILLE, May 27, 1889.

EDITOR HERALD:—Permit me to say a word regarding this court house business. While much is being said about those awful bonds most of it is too thin to stand. There is one question which is this: Can the county seat ever be removed from its present location? We think it has been amply proven in the negative. Why then hazard our records and stand in the shadow of contempt from other counties? Every man who can conscientiously do so should vote for bonds, and those who can not, should look the question boldly in the face and lay self aside and then vote according to his convictions, but pray don't act the part of the dog in the manger. Memorial Day Programme.

The sacred duty of honoring the memory of our dead comrades is again upon us. Let it not be said that the Grand Army of the Republic is oblivious to the trust imposed upon it by the rules and regulations of our order which declares one of its objects to be to perpetuate the memory and history of the dead. It is the duty of surviving comrades to hold their memory sacred and with our solemnly impressive ceremonies at their graves on memorial day, the 30th of May, teach the youth of the land that he who dies for his country gives up his life in the most noble cause, and that his memory will be cherished and revered as long as this republic shall exist.

All citizens who appreciate and are grateful for the blessings that we are permitted to enjoy on account of the sacrifices of our fallen comrades are invited to join with us on this solemn occasion. The G. A. R., Woman's Relief Corps, Sons of Veterans and all honorably discharged union soldiers are requested to meet at the G. A. R. hall promptly at one o'clock May 30th, from which place we will march, at 1:30 to the cemetery in the following order: Post band in front, McConihie post G. A. R. and other old soldiers who choose to join us, the Sons of Veterans, flower wagon, Woman's Relief Corps in wagons, the orator of the day, Judge Chapman; Glee Club, citizens.

At the cemetery the Grand Army memorial services will be had with an address by Judge Chapman.

If the weather should be unfavorable the memorial services will be held at Rockwood hall and the march to the cemetery dispensed with.

J. W. JOHNSON,
Officer of day.

"Mixed Pickles."

It is the brightest and cleverest production of the kind since "Pink Demons," with the advantage that it is clean, while being uproariously funny.—N. Y. Evening News.

It is a brilliantly effervescent composition sparkling with merriment, and abounding in rippling caricatures of social perplexities and ludicrously humorous climaxes.—Providence Dispatch.

"Man wants but little here below." This is particularly true of medicine, and really needs a very small amount provided it be of the right kind. Dr. Pierce's Pellets fill the bill in respect of size, and are stupendous in point of effectiveness. If you desire immediate relief from headache, "dyser complaint," indigestion, and constipation, they will not fail you.

A Traveling Man Creates Great Excitement in the Empire House.
INDEPENDENCE, IOWA, Oct. 14, 1888.

Rheumatic Syrup Co., Jackson, Mich.
GENTS:—Your Mr. Brooks came here tonight and registered as agent for Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup, and as he did so it awakened in me an interest never before realized in a guest at my house. You will not wonder at it when I tell you the story. For years I have been greatly afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism, the pain and soreness of the joints at times being almost unbearable; could move about only with the aid of crutches. In addition to this my stomach became badly diseased, and neuralgia set in, which threatened to end my day. A traveling man stopping with me gave quite a history of your Syrup, and the peculiarities of its combination, which induced me to try it. I have taken six bottles and no act in my life affords me greater satisfaction than in writing you I am a well man.

It will be a pleasure for me to answer any communications, for I believe it to be the best remedy ever formulated.
