CITY COUNCILS.

Wait for the Cass County fair.

The firm of Troop & Hemple are closing out.

J. H. Haldeman, of Weeping Water, was in town today.

There will be a shooting match at the fair grounds tomorrow for a beautiful medal.

Those who have a Catalpa tree about their place now, have a most beautiful ornament, as they are in full bloom.

A meeting of the Plattsmouth gun club will be held tonight at 8 o'clock, at W. S. Wise's office, for the purpose of electing new members.

There has been some enquiry as to what the total valuation of the city of Plattsmouth is. Including the B. & M. right of way the total valuation is $845,040.

This morning the wedding of M. Morrissey and Miss Sue Sampson occurred at the Catholic church. Rev. Father Carney performed the ceremony. These parties are well known throughout the city.

At a meeting of the school board last night, arrangements were made to have the examinations of teachers commence next Monday. D. K. Barr was re-elected junior. One application was in for high school principalship but no action was taken.

The boilers for the Oppermann Electric Lamp Manufacturing Company arrived this morning, and a smile of gladness now illuminates the countenances of Messrs. Ballou and Oppermann. The machinery thus far on hand for the company is of powerful and modern make.

The M. E. Sunday school excursion to Cushman Park, near Lincoln, was declared off last night at a meeting held in the church. The requirement of the B. & M. Company for the extremely low rate was that one hundred tickets be sold. In this there was a shortage, and hence the only move to make was to drop the enterprise.

A quiet wedding was held last night at 8 o'clock, at the residence of M. V. Gibson, on Granite street, east of Sixth. The parties married were Miss Maggie McCormick and Mr. A. O. Decker. Mr. Decker was from Belle Plaine, Iowa. County Judge Russell performed the ceremony. At 10:30 this morning the couple took the east-bound train for Belle Plaine, which place will be their future home.

Last night the fishing party of Messrs. Chas. Patmade, Bert Pollock, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Patterson and Misses Lillie Pollock and Lydia Patterson returned on the K. C. train from Langdon, Mo., where they have been on an excursion for a week, enjoying the opportunities for fishing and hunting afforded by the Nish-nabotna river there. They report a heartily enjoyed time with plenty of luck.

An incident happened at the depot last night as No. 3 pulled out for Omaha, that was amusing and yet frightened some who did not understand the circumstances. Mrs. Geo. S. Smith, of Omaha, was coming down to the depot, and, being a little late, reached the train just as it was ready to start, and the conductor being on the depot side, did not see her. The gentleman to help her on, took the plump baby boy in his arms, while she was assisted upon the platform. The train started and Master Smith who was in long dresses, was not on the cars, yet, but he knew what the start meant and set up a cry that was clear and loud and came from healthy lungs. The conductor, on seeing the situation, pulled the cord and stopped the train, which made some think the child was in danger or under the cars, but the boy knew what he was about and doubtless already realizes that if he don't blow his own horn no one will blow it for him.

PERSONALS.

J. P. Kuhney was an Omaha visitor today.

W. B. Shryock was in from Louisville today.

Mrs. Dr. Thompson and children, who have been visiting at the home of Rev. W. B. Alexander, left this morning for Millard.

Judge S. M. Chapman left last night for St. Paul, expecting to be gone a few days and will fish and recuperate a while. The "twins" will remain at home. They are fine boys and will doubtless soon run the place.

A BIG ROUND-UP.

City Council Does a Lot of Business and Holds a Late Meeting.

That Ordinance on the Question of Labor Finally Passed.

A petition from citizens of the Third ward praying the council that no license be granted any one to run a saloon in that ward was referred to license committee.

The opinion of the city attorney on the claim for damages to property between Third and Richey streets, by Hannah Blake recommended that the claim be refused. There had never been any grade established there and the house was built without reference to grade and the city had also increased the value of the lots by work done.

The legality of burials in the Catholic cemetery without permit was discussed, but no action taken.

Judiciary committee reported several ordinances, one was to regulate the employing of laborers in the city, prohibiting the employing of what is known as "imported contract laborers" on any public or internal work, under penalty of fine. Murphy moved the ordinance be put on second and third readings for final passage. Motion passed; ordinance read and passed under suspension of rules. City attorney explained it did not prevent a man from coming here to labor, but effected only contracted labor from abroad.

An ordinance amending the occupation tax ordinance was read by sections and revised and after considerable discussion passed.

An ordinance amending the fire ordinance, limits extending from Second to Seventh streets and from Vine to Pearl streets, including all blocks from 27 to 36 forbidding the removal of frame buildings, was introduced, read three times and passed.

Opinion of the city attorney on the water works claim was read in answer to their attorney, H. E. Bolles. Attorney advised the rejection of the claim. Accepted and ordered on file.

Salisbury stated that the company was ready to put in the extended water mains ordered last summer.

The bill of Mr. Rosewater was referred to finance committee.

An alley was ordered opened east and west through block 28 in Duke's add.

A petition asking for an alley through block 1 in Stadelman's add, and a sidewalk on Eighth street was read and ordered granted.

Street committee recommended that the commissioner put in a crossing across Third on Pearl street. Work ordered.

Street commissioner instructed to put in a crossing on Seventh and Day streets below the standpipe.

Street commissioner instructed to repair the bridge on Elm street, which was in bad condition.

J. D. Simpson made complaint of old county road in South Park.

On account of the offer of the county to furnish lumber to put in a culvert east of Oak Hill cemetery if the city would do the work, the commissioner was instructed to build the culvert.

O'Neil made complaint of the condition on the pest house. Salisbury moved that the marshal be instructed to nail up the house. Motion passed as amended.

by Murphy to nail barbed wire over the windows.

A resolution as follows was introduced by Salisbury and read:

WHEREAS during the last session of congress there was appropriated by the general government the sum of $50,000 for river improvement at this city and WHEREAS other appropriations have been made prior to this time for the same purpose and

WHEREAS no such improvements have been made and it has been reported that none will be made at this point this year therefore be it

Resolved, That there be appointed by the Hon. Mayor of the city of Plattsmouth a committee of three from the city council thereof for the purpose of conferring with our senators and representatives and the Missouri river commissioners of improvement, to ascertain the exact conditions of said appropriations and to advise and devise ways and means to have the improvement contemplated by such appropriation made during the present year.

Resolution was adopted and council adjourned to meet Friday night.

"One of the Bravest".

People's Theater.—Mr. E. E. Price's sensational drama, entitled "One of the Bravest," was presented at the People's Theater yesterday, and made a great popular success. It is essentially a firemen's play. Its hero is a member of the fire department, and its principal scene—a very well arranged one, by the way—is that of a great conflagration, introducing the members of the company as firemen, and utilizing in the business the life line, jumping blanket, life belt, scaling ladders, etc. The realistic manner in which the fire scene was worked aroused the audience to the wildest enthusiasm, and the theater rung with the cheers and shouts of the spectators when the curtain fell. Mr. Charles McCarthy, the representative of the hero, is a robust actor, and he early won the audience and held their sympathy and attention throughout the entire play. He was well supported, and the piece in all respects was satisfactorily staged. It will be repeated every evening this week.—New York Herald.

This company will appear here next Thursday night. They make three stops, Plattsmouth, Lincoln, Denver and then to San Francisco.

Barton, vice pres.; Dave McEntee, treasurer; Tom Walling, secretary. A membership fee to the club of $2 was voted, and about fifty parties are expected to join. Messrs. Oppermann, Waugh, Burton and Walling were appointed as a committee on grounds. An adjournment was taken till Thursday night.

"Oil Correct." Moses Folsom, of Port Townsend, sends the following sketch of the origin of the use of the letters "O. K.," which, he states, was furnished him personally by James Parton: "While at Nashville in search of material for his history, Mr. Parton found among the records of the court of which James Jackson had been judge a great many legal documents indorsed "O. R.," which meant "Order recorded," but often so scrawlingly written that one could easily read it as "O. K." If "Major Downing" noticed a bundle of legal papers thus marked upon President Jackson's table, documents, perhaps, from his former court, in which he still had interest, it is very easy to see how a punster could imagine it to be "O. K.," or "oll korrek."

No doubt Seba Smith, who wrote under the nom de plume of "Major Jack Downing," had much to do with creating the impression that President Jackson was unlettered and illiterate, whereas many existing personal letters, military reports, court opinions and state papers show to the contrary. He lived before the day of stenographers and typewriters, and yet carried on a voluminous correspondence. Hundreds of his personal letters to old soldier friends are still preserved as heirlooms in the south, and his handwriting is numerous in Washington. He was evidently a rapid penman, and made greater use of capital letters than is the present custom, but misspelled words and stumbling sentences were few and far between.—Portland Oregonian.

A Famous Betrothal Over Forty Years Ago. "I wonder how many people know that Victoria the Good, as it has been suggested the queen of England shall be called, when she fell in love had to do the proposing for herself?" said an Americanized Englishman the other morning. "I was much interested in reading recently the account of her betrothal. It had always been expected that she and her cousin Albert would eventually make a match of it. When they were both about 13 years old he visited England, but did not make much impression on the newly crowned queen. However, three years later he made up his mind to a 'now or never' game, and with his brother visited her at Windsor castle. Like more humble lovers, he was placed in a rather embarrassing predicament by the non-arrival of his luggage, and was thus prevented from dining with her majesty on his first evening as her guest. For five days did Victoria study him, and then after first telling her adviser, Lord Melbourne, what she had decided to do, she sent for Albert, saying that she desired to see him particularly. One account of the affair, certainly valuable for its brevity, reads as follows: 'What the queen told him was that she loved him with her whole heart, and that she desired to be his wife.' She was accepted without hesitation, as any good looking sovereign of 20 might have hoped to have been, and so they were married."—Philadelphia Press.

The Weight of Individuals. The average weight of a boy at birth is seven and that of a girl a little more than six pounds. When they have attained the full development of man or womanhood they should weigh twenty times as much as they did at birth. This would make a man's average weight 140 and a woman's about 125. The height of a male at birth is 1 foot 8 inches and that of a female 1 foot 6 inches. Fully grown, a man's height should be about three and a half times greater than at birth, or 5 feet 9 inches, while a woman should be 5 feet 3 inches. The weight of individuals who are fully developed and well formed, however, varies with extremes, which are nearly as 1 to 2, while their height varies within limits which at most are as 1 to 1.3. Taking 200 pounds as the maximum of man's weight and 85 as the minimum we would have the average of 142 pounds. Finding the maximum weight of woman at 150 pounds and the minimum at 50 pounds, and we get an average of 127 pounds.—Philadelphia Record.
