NEBRASKA can't complain of a dry season. The prophets were mistaken this year, and if the weather continues as good as it has been the past few weeks the crops of Nebraska will be simply wonderful.

MR. WANAMAKER explains that a good many Postmasters are being removed on account of drunkenness rather than becanse they are Democrats. However, the distinction is more theoretical than practical, the country will readily observe.

According to a new law in Illinois, persons who can not read and write the English language are ineligible to the position of School Director. Thus do the chances of Democrats to obtain offices continue to diminish as civilization advances.

Nobody has ever taken Foraker for a democrat. This is one of the reasons why he is so popular with the republicans and he will be elected governor of Ohio for the third time this fall. He was elected the first time in 1885 by 17,000 plurality, and in 1887 it reached 23,000 and this fall it will undoubtedly reach

An international monetary congress will be held in Paris a few months hence at which another attempt will be made to secure an agreement between the leading commercial nations to open their mints to silver comage at a ratio of valuation with respect to gold to be agreed upon between all the countries. There does not appear to be the slightest probability however, that any agreement will be arrived at. The United States and the countries composing the Latin Union, of course, will favor this scheme, as they did in the convention of 1878 and 1881, and Great Britain and Germany will undoubtedly hold aloof, as they did ther. Germany would probably enter into the arrangement if England would come in but there is no reason to believe that England will be any less obdurate on this point than it has hitherto been.

WILL the scorer please mark down another base hit opposite the name of Secretary Blaine? President Hatrison has just removed the democratic postmaster at Augusta, Me., for "offensive partisanship" and replaced him with Blaine's henchman, Joseph R. Manley .-

The Journal, like all other democratic papers, is howling because President Harrison and Secretary Blaine is turning the raseals out. They are always hunting up some one away off that no one knows or ever heard of in the neighborhood where their paper circulates. The democratic papers down east will now be howling about how the United States Revenue collector at Omaha was removed for partisan purposes. This great and good democrat is S. H. Calhoun was similarly discharged and John Peters, a republican put in his place the other day. Yes, this administration will just keep on turning out the rascals and you can call it partisanship if you want to but every time one is turned out the people breathe easier.

SPEAKING of the old soldier who lost both of his legs in the late war of the rebellion, and who now so admirably fills the place of pension commissioner, the Detroit Tribune well says: "The southern ex-rebel and the northern ex copperhead go to the same ammunition box for their powder, and blaze away at the pension commissioner from the same fence corner. And every shot they fire at him takes effect, too. Not the effect they like to see, but the effect they will sooner or later be forced to see-that of solidi- which shows that manners have improved fying the entire army of Union veterans | since 1624. - Chicago Tribune.

on the side of their wickedly maligned R.B. WINDHAM, comrade." And the Tribune might have added, loyal, patriotic citizens everywhere will join the ranks of Union yeterans to such a contest. It is simply a maligant warfare upon a brave, courageous, honest man, who knows personally the sacrifices made by the Union soldier. These slanderers have not a fact upon which to base the maligant onslaught up on Corporal Tanner. The attack upon the several members of the administration seems to be directed from some boss "headquarters." It opened up all along the line with the newspaper upon the same day. They started in first to breed trouble between the president and Secretary Blaine. Failing in that they turned pants $4, $5, $6, $6.50 and upwards. upon the members of the president's family. They have followed this with sneers and insults aimed at the postmaster-general-with some of the meanest assaults directed at Mr. Clarkson and his department. The misrepresentations and utter falsehoods have all fallen harmeless, but are now revamped and aimed at Mr. Tanner, and it is safe to say they will react upon the fellows engaged in the work.

IMPORTANT TO THE CITIZENS.

A Traveling Man Creates Creat Ex citement in the Empire House INDEPENDENCE, IOWA, Oct. 14, 1888.

Rheumatic Syrup Co., Jackson, Mich: GENTS: - Your Mr. Brooks came here tonight and registered as agent for Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup, and as he did so it awakened in me an interest never before realized in a guest at my house. You will not wonder at it when I tell you the story. For years I have been greatly afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism, the pain and soreness of the joints at times being almost unbearable; could move about only with the aid of crutches. In addition to this my stomach became badly diseased, and neuralgia set in, which threatened to end my day. A traveling man stopping with me gave quite a history of your Syrup, and the peculiarities of its combination, which induced me to try it. I have taken six bottles and no act in my life affords me greater satisfaction than in writing you I am a well man.

It will be a pleasure for me to answer any communications, for I believe it to be the best remedy ever formulated.

A. S. Bowley, Proprietor, Empire House, Independence, Iowa. Sold by F G. FRICKE & Co.

Trying to Hoodoo Patti. The alleged rows in the Metropolitan Opera company are mere child's play to the ex-Mapleson, has gone through with during his career as an operatic manager. He had Patti and Gerster in the same company at onca. To the initiated that means a great deal, as they well know what the successful management of that team means. Gerster always had an idea that Patti was giving her a great deal the worst of it, and Patti firmly believed when she was announced to sing that Gerster pronounced some mystic spell upon her which injured her voice. One night Gerster sang. Patti was to sing the following night. She and Nicolini retired to their apartments at an early hour, and just before turning off the gas Nicolini opened the door to throw his shoes into the hall for the boot-

He opened the door suddenly and there stood Gerster and her husband, Dr. Gardini, Both were making hoodoo passes with their hands toward the Patti apartments, presum ably with the idea of queering the nightingale's voice for the following evening. Of course Nicolini raised an awful row. half an hour the hall was blue with Italian profanity, and the redoubtable Mapleson finally had to be called from his couch to pour oil upon the troubled waters. The guests of the house were disturbed, and had the people not been celebrated opera singers they would have been bundled out upon the sidewalk, bag and baggage. No, the Germans are lambs alongside of the flery Italians. -Chicago Herald.

United States Mining Laws.

There are certain general principles of mine law which may be mentioned: All lands of the United States containing gold, silver, lead, tin, copper or cinnabar in workable quantities are mineral lands, and not open to homestead or pre-emption entry. Nor does a land grant to a railroad convey title to mineral; nor is there any distinction between surveyed and unsurveyed public land. If there is mineral in workable quantities in the land it belongs to the locator and miner and to them only. Second, and most important, in all cases of doubt, the law is to be construed in favor of the prospector and locator. The burden of proof is upon all who claim title in opposition. Third, if the land is within a known mineral region, it is presumed to be mineral land, and the burden of proof is on those who dispute it. Even if the land has been thrown open to settlement, it will be withdrawn from market at any time before vested rights accrue, upon proof that it is mineral land. In short, the United States government designs to extend the greatest possible encouragement to prospecting and the development of mines, and therefore directs that all doubtful legal points be construed in furtherance of that design,-J. H. Beadle.

There Has Been an Improvement. The rules of etiquette laid down now regarding court functions are comical, but don't compare with the following regulations, which were prescribed by the lord chamberlain 200 years ago for the benefit of officers, many of them belonging to noble families. When invited to dine with royal persons they were to be neatly dressed, with clean coats and boots, and not to enter the room in a half drunken condition. They were warned not to drink after each mouthful, as that would make them drunk too soon, nor to empty more than one goblet for every two dishes. They were not to put their hands in the plates, their bones under the table, lick their fingers, wips their noses on the table cloth, or drink so much as to make them fall off the chairs or unable to walk straight. These are extracts from a guide carefully drawn up for the guidance of officers and gentlemen of noble families,
