IN MEMORY OF ETHEL NEWCOMER.

WHEREAS, It has pleased God to take away from our midst by the arm of death our dear little friend and schoolmate, ETHEL NEWCOMER, therefore

Resolved, That we feel we have lost a dear, loving friend, and one in whom our anticipations seemed to present to us a happy and useful future.

Resolved, That her loss to us shall be as a token of the future that awaits each one of us and that it is a consolation to her many friends to know that "She is not lost, but only gone before."

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved parents together with the following truthful lines:

"All that's bright must fade,
The brightest still the fleetest;
All that's sweet was made
But to be lost when sweetest."

Advice of a Prominent Land Broker

Rheumatic Syrup Co., Jackson, Mich.

GENES: In February, 1889, I commenced using Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup and Strengthening Plasters for inflammatory rheumatism, having been troubled three years with this terrible disease. My joints were swollen so that I could hardly walk and I attended to my business with difficulty. I used three bottles and applied the plasters to my limbs and back, and I can say that I am now cured. I have not been troubled with rheumatism since discontinuing its use. My father-in-law, Mr. J. D. Skinner, of Manson, has also been benefited by this medicine. We earnestly recommend it to our friends. Take my advice, give it a trial.
