HE PLAYED.

How a Disgraced Actor Got Even with the Great Hamlet.

Edwin Booth, despite his reputation for being cold and unapproachable, has a humorous side and can tell a funny story, even when it's on himself, with a solemnity that is refreshing.

A member of the tragedian's company relates the following: "He once told me about a western experience of his in the fifties. Booth was then the star of a certain stock company playing the California towns. It was rough out there then, and the same company did everything from 'Hamlet' to a song and dance—all at the same theater and often within the same week.

"In this company there was a young man of much histrionic talent, who, previous to the advent of Booth, played the leading roles, but who was thrown into the shade by the new star. Jealousy and hot words followed. The manager and the disappointed tragedian were continually at war over the distribution of parts.

"When the time for producing 'Hamlet' arrived it was found that the cast would necessarily muster into act every one from the ticket seller to the lamp man. The long suffering manager had resolved to punish the recalcitrant actor, and he was given the part of Guildenstern.

"There was some muttering, but all went well enough until the opening night. The house was filled. The scenery was crude, and for that matter so was the audience, but the applause was generous. Things reached a climax in the second scene of the third act, where Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are sent by the king to spy on the alleged madness of Hamlet.

"The usual futile endeavors to get any information out of the melancholy Dane were gone through with and then, of course, came Booth's powerful scene in which the musical instrument is introduced (the pipe on this occasion being a clumsy tin affair, painted to suit the aesthetic soul of the property man).

"The audience listened in breathless expectation, and the dialogue proceeded as follows:

"Hamlet—Will you play upon this pipe?

"Guildenstern—My lord, I cannot.

"H.—I pray you.

"G.—Believe me, I cannot.

"And here the proud Dane lifted himself erect, preparatory to hurling at Guildenstern that crescendo of mingled rage and scorn which begins with 'Tis as easy as lying, etc.' But the crescendo never came.

"Hamlet—I do beseech you.

"Guildenstern—Then I don't mind if I do.

"And seizing the obstreperous horn, he broke forth into a weird, unearthly strain of Yankee Doodle and what-not.

"I stood there dazed," said Booth, "for it seemed to me hours, trying to connect the lines or collect my thoughts so as to go on, but it was of no use, for the fiend with the horn kept right on with his refined torture, until at last, in sheer mercy, the curtain went down to rise no more that night.

"Mr. — was promptly dismissed, but he had had his revenge."—New York Recorder.

The Maternal Instinct and Dogs.

Dog worship is, as has been said, a fashion. It is, for the most part, an imitation, a pretense, in the beginning at least, though it may become, often does become, sincere, serious to a degree, injurious after a long indulgence. Unnatural attachments, affections misdirected are likely to bring their own re-venues. They stray so far from fitness that they cannot return to the normal when they would, whatever the effort made. That dog worship is a fashion is shown by the fashionable women who regularly appear in the parks and public drives with tiny dogs on their laps or nestling against their bosoms.

Often these women are unmarried. They give to dogs the care, the tenderness, the devotion they would give to babies had they borne them. It is plainly the derangement and frustration of the maternal instinct, as is proved when they become mothers. Then they usually discard their four footed pets immediately and forget all about them.—Junius Henri Browne in St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A Unique Tea Service.

County Commissioner Tolman has an unique tea service. It includes not only the usual articles of a set—the tray, platter, butter dish, sugar bowl, cream pitcher, cup and saucer, but also a caster, supplied with the usual cruets—the whole made of wood. Two kinds of wood, black walnut and white wood, were employed in their manufacture, and the contrasted colors, which appear in even the covers of dishes and tops of cruets, have a beautiful effect. The whole service is as useful as any made of crockery, and was made by a skilled woodworker while confined in the county jail. He agreed to make them for Mr. Tolman if the latter would furnish the material.—Portland (Me.) Argus.

Two Extreme Cases.

In refreshing contrast to the man who lost a day's work because he bumped his head while getting up in the morning and thought he might have a headache if he didn't keep quiet, was a man up in Sprague's Mills, who fell as he was carrying a piece of timber about noon, but kept at work until time to go home at night, when he made the discovery that a bone in his leg was broken.—Lewiston Journal.

A Queer Place for a Horn.

In the lot of sheep shipped by Davis Minor was a curiosity. About one-third of the way back from the shoulders of a ewe a horn grew out of its back. The horn was just the same as any other sheep horn—and was about three inches in length.—Doniphan (Mo.) Prospect-News.

Happy Hooovers.

Wm. Timmons, Postmaster of Idaville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: "Find Electric Bitters to be the best Kidney and Liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who feels all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50c, a bottle at F. G. Fricke & Co's Drug Store."

Sleepless night made miserable by that terrible cough Shiloh's remedy is the cure for you, by F. G. Frick.

A Mystery Explained.

The papers contain frequent notices of rich, pretty and educated girls eloping with negroes, tramps and coachmen. The well-known specialist, Dr. Franklin Miles, says all such girls are more or less hysterical, nervous, very impulsive, unbalanced; usually subject to headache, neuralgia, sleeplessness, immoderate crying or laughing. These show a weak, nervous system for which there is no remedy equal to Restorative Nervine. Trial bottles and a fine book, containing many marvelous cures, free at F. G. Fricke & Co's., who also sell and guarantee Dr. Miles' celebrated New Heart Cure, the finest of heart tonics. Cures fluttering short breath, etc.

I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with catarrh for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It is strange that so simple a remedy will cure such a stubborn disease.—Henry Billings, U. S. Pension Attorney, Washington, D. C.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is just from catarrh, which affected my eyes and hearing; I have employed many physicians without relief. I am now on my second bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, and feel confident of a complete cure.—Mary C. Thompson, Cerro Gordo, Ill.

Height of Cruelty

Nervous women seldom receive the sympathy they deserve. While often the pictures of health, they are constantly ailing. To withhold sympathy from these unfortunates is the height of cruelty. They have a weak heart, causing shortness of breath, fluttering, pain in side, weak and hungry spells, and finally swelling of ankles, oppression, choking, smothering and dropsy. Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is just the thing for them. For their nervousness, headache, weakness, etc., his Restorative Nervine is unequalled. Fine treatise on "Heart and Nervous Diseases" and marvelous testimonials free. Sold and guaranteed by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Wonderful Success.

We're After You.

That greatest western paper, The Weekly State Journal, is determined to double its circulation this fall. To do this the paper has been enlarged to twelve pages every week; new departments added, and every column freshened and brightened by crisp and original ideas. The Journal is the true and able exponent of western enterprise and thought. It has grown apace with the progress of our commonwealth and stands to-day at the head of western newspapers, equalled by few and excelled by none.

This will be an exceptional fall and winter for newspaper reading. Every man who thinks for himself and wants his boys and girls to do the same; should have the weekly Journal in his family. Write for sample. You need only to see the paper to appreciate it. Send twenty-five cents for a three months' trial subscription. You will then become a regular reader. Eighty-five per cent of trial subscribers stick. That's a good record. Published at the state capitol the Journal is more in touch with the great masses of the people, and the question that agitate the hour, than any of its competitors. Don't forget to send for a sample paper. We want you to see one. The paper itself will do the rest. One dollar per year. Address, Weekly State Journal, Lincoln, Neb.

WANTED. A bright, active agent in every town in the state. Easy work and good pay. Address, weekly State Journal, Lincoln, Neb.

When The Hair Shows signs of falling, begin at once the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. This preparation strengthens the scalp, promotes the growth of new hair, restores the natural color to gray and faded hair, and renders it soft, pliant, and glossy.

Ayer's Hair Vigor unequalled for dressing the hair, and we do this after long experience in its use. This preparation preserves the hair, cures dandruff and all diseases of the scalp, makes rough and brittle hair soft and pliant, and prevents baldness. While it is not a dye, those who have used the Vigor say it will stimulate the roots and color glands of faded, gray, light, and red hair, changing the color to or even black. It will not soil the pillowcase, no, a pocket-handkerchief, and is always agreeable. All the dirty, gummy hair preparations should be displaced at once by Ayer's Hair Vigor, and thousands who go around with heads looking like 'the frosty porcupine' should hurry to the nearest drug store and purchase a bottle of the Vigor.—The Sunny South, Atlanta, Ga.

Ayer's Hair Vigor is excellent for the hair. It stimulates the growth, cures baldness, restores the natural color, cleanses the scalp, prevents dandruff, and is a good dressing. We know that Ayer's Hair Vigor differs from most hair tonics and similar preparations, in being perfectly harmless.—From Economical Housekeeping, by Eliza R. Parker.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrup, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
 Dr. G. C. Osmond,
 Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
 Dr. J. F. KINGSBLOM,
 Conway, Ark.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
 H. A. ANONIMA, M. D.,
 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
