A Turkish Bath.
Theatre-goers can look forward to a night of fun on Monday evening next, when "A Turkish Bath" will be presented at the Waterman opera house. The play has been seen in all the larger cities and is a musical comedy that is pure from start to finish. Clever dancing, fine singing and novel specialties will be introduced by the very best artists, so that theatre-goers can rest assured of a really first-class performance. The Quincy (Ill.) Herald says:

"A large audience greeted Miss Mary Heath and the excellent company of comedians who accompany her at the opera house last evening, and we believe we express the unanimous verdict of those present when we say that "A Turkish Bath" was really an enjoyable entertainment. The applause and encores received by the different members of this company were exceedingly flattering. The lower part of the house applauded very enthusiastically, while the gallery went wild. The play gives ample opportunity to introduce many musical specialties, which consisted of operatic selections, medleys, popular and comic songs, and in fact vocal selections that are sure to please all. The members of the company are all fine vocalists, and each one was recalled until they could respond no more."

One of the greatest errors of the human race is looking at labor as a curse. It is one of the blessings for which men and women cannot be too thankful. Activity of some kind is the law of growth and of being, and if it is not exercised in the law of production it is very apt to be turned to destruction. No boy or girl brought up in idleness can be kept out of mischief. The surplus vitality must be worked off on something. Rightly directed, every child enjoys useful work and is the better for it, at the time and for the reason that work, well done in a small way, is a preparation for work well done in a large way, as the cares of mature life come on.—Ex.

J. N. Summers received the sad news this morning that his father, living at Peoria, Ill., died Tuesday evening, and would be buried this afternoon. J. N. had hoped to be able to go to the bedside of his father, when he received the notice of his serious illness, but was unable to do so, although a good deal better, he is still confined to his bed.

THE FAIR FOR BARGAINS.

THE NEBRASKA SOLDIERS.

Fourth Annual Reunion of the Organization at Nebraska City.

The second day of the reunion dawned bright and clear, and although the weather was very cold this fact did not lessen the ardor of the veterans in attendance. Yesterday morning a business session was held at the court house at which meeting a resolution was passed asking President Harrison to remember the 1800 honorably discharged Union soldiers of Nebraska in his appointment of inspectors of meat at the packing houses of Nebraska City.

The afternoon was spent in visiting places of interest about the city. At 5:30 o'clock the association held another business session. Auburn was chosen as the place for holding the next fall meeting. Nebraska City was designated as the location of the next annual reunion which will convene December 13 and continue three days.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Wilson Majors of Peru; vice president, C. N. Karstens of Nebraska City; secretary, David Campbell of Auburn; treasurer, T. J. Majors of Peru.

At 9 o'clock last evening the dining room of the Grand Pacific was thrown open and the old veterans sat down to an elegant banquet. Following the banquet eloquent and inspiring speeches were delivered by President Goss, Colonel S. P. Vanatta, J. S. Stull, Hon. Church Howe, Major Pearson, G. W. Burrows, James Shaw and Lieutenant Governor Majors. The meeting has been a very pleasant one for the veterans.

Lincoln Not in it.
The Shenandoah college has not yet been located. The following from the World-Herald's Lincoln correspondent explains itself:

"The history of the location of the consolidated Shenandoah and Lincoln normal institute has been all the way through a case of 'now you see it and now you don't.' Three times it has been announced definitely that the institution was located at Lincoln, and each time a hitch has appeared in the proceedings. Last Monday morning it was announced that all preliminary arrangements had been completed, the bond and contracts signed, and that the erection of the buildings would be commenced immediately but now it appears that the whole thing was a hoax. The inside history of the affair is as follows: Immediately after the burning of the Shenandoah institute Prof. Croan wrote to F. E. Roose of the Lincoln normal and made a proposition to consolidate the two institutions and locate at Lincoln. He appended the contract which has already been printed. Prof. Roose, after considering the matter carefully, and being assured that a corporation of Lincoln citizens would be formed to build and equip the structure, replied, accepting the proposition. Croan then demurred and wanted a bond to assure the carrying out of the contract. A bond signed by representative business men of Lincoln was immediately secured and forwarded. After some delay the matter seemed all fixed up and was so reported. Croan, it is said, then repudiated the whole thing, and said that he intended locating in Omaha, where he had been offered $150,000 in buildings the first year and the same amount the second.

A High Five Party.
An enjoyable high five party was held last evening at the residence of Mayor Richey on Rock street. The following were present: A. B. Todd, E. R. Todd, W. H. Newell, R. W. Hyers, J. M. Patterson, J. M. Craig, W. D. Jones, Dave Miller, Thos. Mitchell, S. H. Chapman, J. W. Johnson, S. H. Atwood, S. W. Dutton, J. G. Richey and Byron Clark. After a series of games refreshments were served.

Wonderful.
E. W. Sawyer, of Rochester, Wis., a prominent dealer in general merchandise, and who runs several peddling wagons, had one of his horses badly cut and burned with lariat. The wound refused to heal. The horse became lame and stiff notwithstanding careful attention and the application of remedies. A friend handed Sawyer some of Haller's Barb Wire Lintment, the most wonderful thing ever saw to heal such wounds. He applied it only three times and the sore was completely healed. Equally good for all sores, cuts, bruises, and wounds. For sale by all druggists.

The Nebraska State Alliance in session at Lincoln last night elected the following officers: President, J. H. Powers; vice president W. A. Poynter, F. F. Allen of Cass county was elected chairman of the executive committee.

An editor out west wrote a ball room puff for a young lady, saying: "Her dainty feet were incased in shoes that might have been taken for fairy boots." But the blundering compositor made it read: "Her dirty feet were incased in shoes that might have been taken for ferry boats." He will return home if that young lady moves to some other state.—Delmar (Ia.) Journal.

At the residence of A. B. Taylor last evening a number of young folks assembled and indulged in a dance. A pleasant and enjoyable evening was spent by all present. - EVERY Cash purchase to the amount of $30 entitles the purchaser to a set (6) of Rogers' Solid Nickel Table spoons or a set of Solid Nickel Forks, or a set of Triple plated Knives, sold by Jewellers at $4.00.

HERE is what the manufacturer says in regard to Solid Silver Metal goods and Solid Nickel Silverware: "There has been a growing demand for years for a grade of Spoons and Forks to take the place of Solid silver and plate ware. We have experimented for some time to attain this end, and are now able to offer the public our Rogers' Metal and Rogers' Solid Nickel Silver. We guarantee this metal superior to any Nickel Silver manufactured and have the greatest confidence in assuring our customers that this ware is inferior to service only to solid silver. It is a beautiful white color, is highly polished and can hardly be distinguished from pure silver. We recommend this ware especially for hotels, restaurants and boarding houses, as it will stand more hard usage than any other metal; is very tough and hard; will hold its color and will outwear any plating ever manufactured." All our customers know Rogers' ware by reputation. This firm have manufactured plated ware since 1865, and their name is never put on goods that are not of a high grade, so our customer can rest assured that they are getting some very desirable goods when they get goods under their brand. Come in early and secure a share of these goods before it is too late.

We Guarantee our Prices to be the Lowest and Invite Competition.
