Harschman Won. About 200 people were at Blum's Hall, South Omaha, last night to see the wrestling match between Dan Leahy of Wisner, and Floyd is, however, still rustling for the Harschman of Aveca, Neb., for $250 a side. The match was an old fashioned side hold, best three falls out of five. Leahy was the heavier but Harschman proved to be his super-

Harschman suddenly caught the "grape vine twist" and Leahy went down with a force that jarred the windows. Then each man had a fall apiece, and time was called for the fifth and decisive strgugle.

It was hard fought throughout, but at the end of six minutes Harschman succeeded in sending the Wisner man to grass and was declared the winner. Billy Cush of Omaha was referee.
