When they wanted to get the business men out to a board of trade meeting at Plattsmouth, they made the committee the proprietors of the daily newspapers. The papers announced that the man who failed would find his name printed in black type as a drone, and there was nothing the matter with the attendance.—Lincoln Journal.

Police Court.

John Zetka, the Bohemian arrested Saturday afternoon on the charge of being drunk and disorderly, was before Judge Archer this morning and plead guilty. He was fined $5 and trimmings.

Harry Sparr, charged with vagrancy, was discharged, with the understanding that he would leave town instanter.

A Quiet Wedding.

Last evening at the Christian church occurred a quiet wedding, the principals in the event being Harry Jaquette and Miss Bertha May Rounds, at the close of the services at the church last evening. As is the usual custom Rev. Galloway asked the choir to sing an invitation hymn and at the close of the hymn, Mrs. W. A. Swearigen played a wedding march and the couple marched up to the front of the church, and were united in the holy bonds of matrimony and left the church before the congregation could regain their wits, the ending of the service being a complete surprise to all but Rev. Galloway and a few of the congregation.

Mr. Jaquette has charge of Mr. O. H. Snyder's jewelry store and is a young man of exemplary habits. THE HERALD extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jaquette and wishes them many happy years of wedded life.

Farewell Party.

A farewell party was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. Adams Saturday evening, in honor of Richard N. Green, who will leave for Chicago in a short time. Mr. Green has been employed in the B. & M. shops for a long time past as a machinist.

As a token of esteem in which Mr. Green was held he was presented with a gold pen and an autograph album. The presentation speech was made by Miss Eleanor Dray. SEVERAL LETTERS OF REGRET.

The Dedication of the Court House Drew a Large Crowd From Over the State—This Evening's Program Will Begin at 8 O'clock.

The dedication of Cass county's new court house occurred to-day and proved to be as THE HERALD predicted a red letter day in the history of the county. The day was all that could be desired and if the day had been ordered could not have been better. The trains this morning brought in visitors from all over the state, and also letters of regret from those who could not attend. The court house was profusely decorated and flowers were in abundance. The back of the judge's rostrum was tastefully draped with the stars and stripes.

The district court room was in charge of D. S. Draper, who was appointed sergeant-at-arms, and he filled his office in a first-class manner. The back of the court room was elaborately decorated with flags.

At about 11:30 Judge Chapman, with Judge Field sitting at his left, rapped for order and United States Marshal Brad D. Slaughter opened the court in ancient style as follows: Oh, Yeess! Oh, Yeess! Oh, Yeess! All manner of persons having business before the honorable district court, sitting in and for Cass county, within the state of Nebraska, let them come forward, and they shall this day be heard. God save the commonwealth and this honorable court.

Judge Chapman made a few preliminary remarks and then read letters of regret from the following gentlemen, who expressed a wish to be present but owing to the pressure of business could not.

Hon. J. Sterling Morton will present a life sized likeness of Lewis Cass, of Michigan, to the new court house, Lewis Cass being the man whom Cass county was named after. Judge Field was then introduced and made a short address in which he paid a glowing tribute to the county commissioners, Judge Chapman and the Cass county bar.

Mr. D. H. Wheeler, a former citizen of this city was the next to respond, he said that when he received an invitation to attend the ceremonies he had no idea that he would be called upon for a speech, but made a short and to the point address.

After a witty address by the squatter governor, Major Pearman, an adjournment was taken until 2:40 in the afternoon.

The afternoon ceremonies were commenced promptly at 2:30 p. m. by the choir composed of Mrs. S. H. Atwood, Mrs. E. B. Burris, Mrs. G. W. Noble, Mrs. C. S. Johnson, Miss. Nannie Moore and Messers. Petee, McElwain, Pollock and Dickson singing the anthem, "America."

J. A. McMurphy was then introduced and made a short talk on the early days of Plattsmouth and was followed by Hon. T. M. Maronette of Lincoln, who was speaking as the HERALD goes to press.

The following is the program for this evening:

PERSONAL.

Joe Bush of Omaha, is in the city to-day.

Robt. Doom of Ashland was in the city to-day.

Hon. W. B. Shryock and wife came in from Louisville to-day.

Theo. Ivory, one of Glenwood's pioneer citizens, is in the city to-day.

Attorneys Haldeman, Timblin and Douglas, of Weeping Water, were in the city to-day.

M. A. Hartigan of Hastings came in to attend the court house ceremonies to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Leyda are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Leyda, of this city, to-day.

A. E. Cook, an attorney of Malvern, Iowa, is in the city visiting his brother, E. W. Cook.

Phil Green and N. H. Meeker of Greenwood, came in this morning to attend the dedication ceremonies.

Attorney S. F. Rockwell and C. A. Manker came in from Louisville today to attend the court house ceremonies.

Hon. D. H. Wheeler and wife, formerly of this city, came down from Omaha to-day to attend the court house celebration.

J. B. Strode, E. H. Wooley, T. M. Marquette, D. A. Campbell and Judge Field are Plattsmouth guests to-day from Lincoln.

Geo. S. Smith, Geo. W. Covell, J. A. McMurphy, Andy McLaughlin, Major Pearman and Brad Slaughter, all of Omaha, are in the city attending the dedication ceremonies to-day.

Grand Island 9, Plattsmouth 6.

Grand Island yesterday played a close and interesting up-hill game against Plattsmouth, the emancipators winning in the ninth by five rattling hits, one of which was a double. Both teams put up a good game, but opportune hitting by Grand Island won the game. The features were Sumner's pitching and Hofer's fielding. The score:

The constant demand of the traveling public to the far west for a comfortable and at the same time an economical mode of traveling has led to the establishment as what is known as Pullman Colonist sleepers.

These cars are built on the same general plan as the regular first-class Pullman Sleeper, the only difference being that they are not upholstered.

They are furnished complete with good comfortable hair mattresses, warm blankets, snow white linen curtains plenty of towels, combs, brushes etc., which secure to the occupant of a berth as much privacy as is to be had in first class sleepers. There are also separate toilet rooms for ladies and gentlemen, and smoking is absolutely prohibited. For full information send for Pullman Colonist Sleeper leaflet. E. L.
