

All gone
—woman's suffering and woman's weakness. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription puts a stop to it. It's a remedy for all the delicate derangements and disorders that make her suffer, and a cure for all the diseases and disturbances that make her weak. It's a legitimate medicine, that corrects and cures; a tonic that invigorates and builds up; a nerve that soothes and strengthens. For bearing-down pains, displacements, all the functional irregularities peculiar to the sex, it's a safe and certain remedy. Other medicines claim to cure? That's true. But they don't claim to do this: if the Favorite Prescription fails to give satisfaction, in any case for which it's recommended, the money paid for it is refunded. Judge for yourself which is likely to be the better medicine. And think whether something else offered by the dealer is likely to be "just as good." You pay only for the good you get. On these terms it's the cheapest.

FRIDAY, JULY 8, 1892.
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL TICKET.
For President BENJAMIN HARRISON of Indiana.
For Vice-President WHITE LAW RIEDE of New York.

SENATOR HILL is mad because Grover Cleveland has not apologized for "doing up" his snap convention in Chicago.

The independents have put up the same old Weaver, which reminds us of old "Barkis," whom we would just as soon doubt as to doubt that General Weaver "is willin'."

GROVER CLEVELAND has requested the committee not to notify him of his nomination till the 20th of this month, so as to give his private secretary time to look through the encyclopedia and copy out a speech for him to read.

At last Adlai Stevenson has heard from Grover Cleveland at Buzzard's Bay, and Adlai has notified the committee that he and Grover will be in one of the halls of Tammany in the city of New York on July 20, ready to be surprised at the mortification of their nomination at Chicago.

A NEW YORK Tammany paper offers "$500 for a democratic campaign song." "It must be ideal and rhythmic in style." That is, it must handle in good measure the names of Adlai Cleveland and Grover Stevenson, and make them sound musical and sweet. It wants also the song "to have catchy expressions." Possibly the most "catchy expressions" of Tammany have been, "Cleveland can't carry New York," "With Cleveland defeat is sure," "The Pussy Prophet," "The Perpetual Candidate." Western poets who compete for the prize will do well to note these points. Poets are requested to communicate with the New York World for further particulars.—Ex.

THIRD PARTIES IN PRESIDENTIAL YEARS.
Minor parties never carry the presidency themselves, but they sometimes give it to one or other of the great organizations which could not have obtained it without their aid. They do this, too, when they do not gain a single vote in the electoral college. Indeed, the only decisive influence which they have had in politics was in the years in which they did not carry a single state. The earliest of the so-called third parties which was formed was the Anti-Masonic party, which figured in the presidential canvass of 1822, and whose standard-bearer, William Wirt, secured the seven electoral votes of Vermont, but it did not have a feather's weight in the canvass so far as regards its effect on either of the great organizations. Jackson beat Clay that year, as he would have done if Wirt and his party had not been in the field. The know-nothings of 1856, led by ex-President Fillmore, carried Maryland, but they neither materially hurt nor helped Fremont or Buchanan, the republican and democratic standard-bearer respectively. Nor did the constitutional union party of Bell and Everett, which carried Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee in 1860, change the result in that year. The liberty party in 1844, however, the free soil party in 1848 and the prohibition party in 1854, although neither secured an electoral vote, turned the scale, and all did this in New York. The libertarians drew enough whig votes away from Clay in that state to give that state and the nation to Polk and the democracy; Van Buren, as head of the free soilers, attracted enough democrats in the state away from Cass, the regular democratic nominee, to put the whig candidate, Taylor, in power, and St. John, in the same state, carried a sufficient number of prohibition republicans away from Blaine eight years ago to send Cleveland to the white house.

This is the record of third parties in presidential canvasses, and it lends some popular interest to the organization which has just put a ticket in the field at Omaha. The question as to which of the two great parties will be injured the more by this tickets depends chiefly on the section in which it displays its greatest strength. If it polls more votes in the ex-slave states than in the others, then the democrats will be the principal losers, and vice versa. The third party leaders boast that they will carry two or three states in the south and about the same number in the north. In such a case there would hardly be any election by the people, in which event the house of representatives would be called on to make the choice, and the democratic candidate would be victorious. But no level-headed person in either of the great parties looks for any result of this sort. There is no good reason to assume that the people's party vote anywhere in the south will be great enough even to throw any state of that region into the republican column, nor that it will be heavy enough in the west to take any state away from the republicans.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Half Rates to New York.
To accommodate Christian Endeavorers and their friends along its line who desire to attend the national convention of the Y. P. S. C. E. at New York, July 7-10, the Burlington route will on July 4 run a special train from Omaha through to New York, via Chicago and Niagara Falls, leaving at 11:40 p. m., after arrival of all trains from the west. A rate of one fare for the round trip has been authorized and will be open to the general public. Tickets, good to return any time within thirty days from date of purchase, will be on sale at dates to be announced later. The low rates in force, the through car facilities at the disposal of travelers by the Burlington route, and the delightful season of the year, combine to make this an unequalled opportunity of visiting the east. Remember that you can purchase tickets from your station agent through to New York. Full information may be had upon application to the local agent of the B. & M., or by addressing J. Francis, General Passenger Agent, Omaha.

TRADE WITH CUBA.
Reciprocity has increased our exportation of flour to Cuba the last six months in an unprecedented degree. In 1891, from January to April inclusive, we exported 30,377 barrels. In 1892, during the same period, the amount exported reached 26,049 barrels.

NEVER STRIKES INDIANS.
In the course of his New Haven (Conn.) lecture Rev. Thomas Dana, an educated Indian, made this singular statement: "The Indians never cook anything in the house. They always cook outside, giving as their only reason that if they cook inside the steam will collect in their clothing and draw the lightning. Whether this is true or not I do not know, but I know this—no Indian wigwam has been struck by lightning since the dawn of history, and no Indian has been killed with lightning for more than 100 years."—Hartford Courant.

A Mute Recovers Speech.
Alphonse Hemphing, of Summit township, Butler Co., Penn., made an affidavit that his twelve year old son, who had St. Vitus dance for twelve years, lost his speech, was completely cured after using three bottles of Dr. Miles Restorative Nervine, and also recovered his speech. Thousands testify to wonderful cures from using it for nervous diseases, dyspepsia, nervous debility, dullness, confusion of mind, headache, etc. Four doses of this Nervine cured Mrs. W. E. Burns, South bend, Ind., who had been suffering with constant headache for three months. Trial bottle and elegant book free at F. G. Fricke & Co.

Street Railway Figures.
The extent of the street railroad interest in the United States may be estimated from a report which states that there are 5,783 miles of such roads in operation, having 32,505 cars and employing 70,764 men. The total number of passengers carried in one year was 2,023,010,202, being 349,820 per mile of road work and 62,237 per car.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

A Legal Question.
Little Willie—Papa, when a man takes up the law it means he starts in being a lawyer, doesn't it?
His Father—Yes.
"And when he's a judge and lays down the law is that where he quits?"
But his father told him it was time he was in bed long ago.—Kate Field's Washington.

He Had Been There.
"Mr. Jones," said Mrs. Jones, looking up from the paper she was reading, "there is an excellent article on 'How to Hang Pictures.' You ought to read it."
"Oh, I know how—hang 'em!" retorted Mr. Jones savagely, and then silence came like a poultice to heal the blows of sound.—Detroit Free Press.

Seaweed Made Useful.
The hollow stem of the species of seaweed indigenous to the neighborhood of the Cape of Good Hope was formerly used by the natives as a trumpet when dried. Still another kind furnishes the savings of some parts of Australia with vessels, many implements and even food.—Washington Star.

What Ailed Her.
At the excursion given the "Little Mothers" the other day a four-year-old baby towed by the big sister was made ill by the ride on the cars. Vomiting was the result.
"You were sick at your stomach, were you not, dear?" said one of the custodians kindly.
"No, I wasn't," explained the wee mite; "my eat was too near my tongue."
—New York Recorder.

model of sanity beside him. There was more or less testimony to show that Stephani had fallen off a pony very many years ago and hurt his head, and that he had always been high tempered, like any spoiled child. No one had bothered about his alleged insanity, though, until after he had killed his father's old friend.
"Insane," was the jury's judgment after listening to the testimony and watching the gloomy makeup of the prisoner. They found him guilty of murder in the second degree, and he was sent to prison for life. Today he is a neat, well behaved and short haired convict.—New York Herald.

Sleep on Left Side.
Many persons are unable to sleep on their left side. The cause has long been a puzzle to physicians. Metropolitan papers speak with great interest of Dr. Franklin Miles, the eminent Indiana specialist in nervous and heart diseases, who has proven that this habit arises from a diseased heart. He has examined and kept on record thousands of cases. His New Heart Cure, a wonderful remedy, is sold at F. G. Fricke & Co. Thousands testify to its value as a cure for heart diseases. Mrs. Chas. Benoy, Loveland, Colo., says its effects on her were marvelous. Elegant book on heart disease free.
