A Bloody Feud in Kemper
County, Miss.

A BIG FIRE AT CHADRON.

The Chadron Academy Burned to the Ground—Loss $11,000—
Burglar Summer's Fourth escape from Jail.

MISSISSIPPI'S BLOODY FEUD.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 6.—A Meridian Miss. dispatch says: Kemper county is in the throes of a bloody feud. Several years ago Tom Tolbert a white man, not possessing extra good sense, committed an assault upon a young girl of respectable parentage. Public sentiment was aroused, but fear of the Tolbert clan, which was large and fearless, prevented mob violence.

Tom Tolbert was arrested and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. In a short time he escaped and was recaptured at Hickory and sent back. Again he escaped and has since been at large in his native haunts in Kemper county. Of late he has become bolder and has often been seen in public places. The sheriff took steps to arrest Tolbert. He deputized Will Spinks and Tom Donald to assist him.

Yesterday evening Spinks and Donald were at an Indian blacksmithshop when Tom Tolbert and his brother, John Tolbert, came up. Knowing they were deputies the Tolberts at once opened fire. Spinks and Donald returned the fire, killing John Tolbert instantly. Tom took refuge behind the shop and fired upon the deputies until his ammunition was exhausted and was forced to retire. A posse was organized and with hounds Tom Tolbert was chased all last night.

The house of Tolbert's father was surrounded by a posse and just after daylight Tom Tolbert and a crowd of his friends, armed with Winchesters, opened fire on the posse, killing Thomas Cole. The posse being armed only with shot-guns could do no execution and retreated. All the country is aroused and as both sides are known to have grit more bloody work is certain. A posse accompanied by bloody hounds left this city late last night for the scene of the battle, twenty-five miles distant.

CHADRON ACADEMY BURNED.

CHADRON, Neb., Nov. 6.—The Chadron academy was totally destroyed by fire this morning. It is located about a mile from town and has no water supply but wells. About $400 worth of the students' effects were saved but the building and fixtures are a total loss. This school was under the auspices of the Congregational church and had about 100 students, one half of whom roomed in the building. The loss is $15,000; insurance $4,000, in the Liverpool, London, Globe, and North British.

BURGLAR SUMMER'S FOURTH ESCAPE.

AUBURN, Neb., Nov. 6.—Jack Summer again broke jail here this morning. Since his capture with his two brothers about ten days ago the boys have been confined in steel cages to make them doubly secure, but last night Jack tore his bunk to pieces and with one of the rods for a lever succeeded in breaking the lock of his cage and gaining entrance to the corridor, where he secreted himself, and when the jailer opened the jail this morning to do his morning work slipped out unseen and made good his escape. This is the third time he has escaped from this jail in the last four months. He is wanted for burglary.

PARBOILED HIS PATIENT.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 3.—A case of the most horrible torture imaginable came to light to-day. For months Mary A. Kohacke, seventeen years old, living with her parents at 94 Flint street, has been an invalid, suffering from dropsical consumption. Her father works in a furniture factory. Dr. Oelschlager, the family physician, pronounced the case hopeless, but Tuesday last Gustav Hoyer, a horse doctor and liniment peddler, put in an appearance and declared he could cure the girl. The parents consented to the treatment. He bought a peck of timothy seed, which he put into a tub and stepped in boiling water. He set a small chair in the water, and stripping the girl's legs naked, lay them over the water and covered them with heavy blankets. The hot steam burned her and she began screaming. The mother and younger sister tried to get her away, but the horse doctor stood guard and forced the girl to endure it for half an hour. Her screams alarmed the neighbors, and an excited crowd gathered, but the "doctor" would brook no interference. Taking her from her torture of hot steam, the "doctor" laid her on a bed. The skin hung from her legs in twisted strings. He bound the legs in linen bandages, drawing the rolls as tight as he could. He then took a pint bottle of horse liniment and saturated the bandages. At this the girl's screams became terrific, but the "doctor" said that was good for her. He ordered that she lay in bed with bandages on for three hours, at the end of which time she would be well. The girl moaned till the mother could endure it no longer, and removed the bandages after they had been on but an hour. The strong liniment had completed what the hot steam so well begun, and the legs resembled great chunks of half-boiled meat. For twenty-five hours the girl laid and moaned, never once closing her eyes, and becoming at no time unconscious. It is doubtful if anybody ever suffered such acute agonies before. At 1 o'clock this morning she died. The coroner was summoned, and after viewing the body, which was literally cooked, and learning the facts pronounced it the most fearful and agonizing case of many that have come to his notice. The condition of the chair used in the operation goes to show how terrific was the smothered heat. It was nicely painted when put in the water, but the heat blistered the paint and bleached the wood a dull white. The father is almost frantic and declares he will kill Hoyer, for whom warrants will be issued charging him with manslaughter and practicing without a diploma.

RUSHVILLE, Neb., Nov. 7.—The dead body of a young man by the name of Josiah A. Hughes was found Sunday morning about eighteen miles northwest of here. About ten days ago he went to town after a load of lumber. The team went home with the load but Hughes was not with it and search failed to reveal his whereabouts until yesterday morning. It was found that he was shot through the abdomen, supposed to be accidental as he took a shotgun with him when he went to town.

LOBASCO'S OWNER HURT.

BEATRICE, Neb., Nov. 7.—James G. Ladd, the owner of the famous stallion, Lobasco, 2103 $\frac{1}{2}$ , was severely hurt this afternoon by a runaway. His injuries fortunately are not serious and are confined to his head and back. He was driving a team of young horses, when they started to run away and Mr. Ladd was thrown out on the brick pavement.

FOR A COVINGTON ROBBERY.

DAKOTA CITY, Neb., Nov. 7.—Jim Cooper and Jessie Williams had their preliminary examination before County Judge Warner today, on the charge of robbing W. M. Adams of a watch and chain in Covington on the 2d inst. Cooper was discharged and the woman bound over to the district court in $300, which was furnished.

ELKHORN TOWNSHIP LITIGATION.

FREMONT, Neb., Nov. 7.—William H. Hawley and other citizens of Elkhorn township have filed an injunction restraining J. M. Morris &amp; Co. of Grand Island from doing any more grading in their township, and also the county treasurer from turning over to them, as contractors, the township road bonds of $5,000.

HIGH WIND AT FAIRBURY.

FAIRBURY, Neb., Nov. 7.—The high wind last night blew down the north gable and roof trusses of the Baptist church, new building, breaking the timbers and cut stone work. The contractor's loss will be about $500.

SHOT WHILE HUNTING.

VERDIGREE, Neb., Nov. 7.—M. H. Kane was accidentally shot in the left foot yesterday by F. D. Buchanan, while hunting quail. Buchanan was a few feet off, with his gun pointed downwards, when it went off accidentally, the charge grazing Kane's right leg, and entering his left foot near the heel, tearing the flesh away in a terrible manner, but leaving the bone uninjured.

THE LATEST FIGURES.

RICHMOND, Va.—Official and semi-official returns from thirty-two counties and cities show democratic gains of about 12,000. Cleveland carried the state in 1888 by 1,553.

ATLANTA, Ga.—Seventy-eight precincts outside of Atlanta give Cleveland 11,633, Harrison, 3,821, Weaver, 1,781.

DES MOINES, Ia.—Twenty-seven precincts give Harrison 3,333, Cleveland 3,230, Bidwell 60, Weaver 294. Democratic gain of 117.

CHICAGO, Ill.—Ninety-three towns outside of Cook county give Fifer 33,138, Altgeld, 12,471.

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Forty-two towns and precincts give Harrison 3,371, a net democratic gain of 203 over 1888, when Harrison carried the state by over 21,000. These figures indicate that the republican national and state tickets will be elected by 20,000 plurality.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—Ten precincts in the city give Harrison 809, Cleveland 908.

CHEYENNE, Wyo.—Returns will be late.

BOTH PARTIES CLAIM THE STATE.

YOUNGSTOWN, O.—Ten precincts in the city show net democratic gains of 316.

DETROIT, Mich.—Ninety precincts out of a total of 1,820 in Michigan give Rich (rep) 11,538; Morse, (dem) 10,320. The same in 1888 gave Lucas, (rep), 14,341; Burt, (dem) 11,350.

SCRANTON, Pa.—Joseph A. Scranton, republican, defeats Lemuel Ammerman, democrat, by 500 majority.

PHILADELPHIA—Returns from 12 out of 67 counties show a gain for Cleveland of 4,300.

NEW YORK—The total vote for president in this city, with three election districts, is estimated as follows: Cleveland, 174,899; Harrison 99,753. Plurality for Cleveland, 75,146.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Vt.—Returns from fifty Vermont towns give the following: Harrison 12,765; Cleveland 5,606; Bidwell 443. Same in 1888: Harrison 14,739; Cleveland 5,610.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 8.—Ten precincts of the city give Harrison 1,155; Cleveland 1,458, democratic gain 187.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 8.—Seventeen voting precincts in the interior of the state show a total vote for Harrison of 2,245, Cleveland 2,437, democratic gain 253 over 1888.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—One hundred and sixty districts outside of New York and Brooklyn give Cleveland 17,543; Harrison 22,641.

The same districts in 1888 gave Cleveland 18,548; Harrison 24,008.

BROOKLYN, Nov. 8.—In 630 districts of this city Cleveland receives 80,808; Harrison 64,670. Cleveland's plurality is 21,138.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The Tribune bulletin says: Harrison carries Pennsylvania by 85,000.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—1,020 districts out of 1,137 in this city give Cleveland 154,734; Harrison 80,611.

TROY, N. Y., Nov. 8.—The city of Troy gives Cleveland 8,000; Harrison 5,576. In 1888 it gave Cleveland 8,635; Harrison 6,659.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Orleans county gives Cleveland 3,004; Harrison 4,621. In 1888 it gave Cleveland 3,214; Harrison 4,277.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Livingston county will give Harrison 1,250 plurality, a democratic gain of 167 over 1888.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The vote for mayor in New York City is: Gilroy 186,089; Einstein, 95,478; Hicks, 2,451; Jones, 5,653; Bogardus, 2,335. Twenty election districts missing.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—New York city complete gives Cleveland 174,895; Harrison, 98,760. Cleveland's majority, 76,135.

ST. PAUL, MINN., Nov. 8.—Seventeen precincts outside the Twin cities give Harrison 982; Cleveland 600; the same in 1888 gave Harrison 1,095; Cleveland 623; a net republican loss of 178.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 8.—Twenty-four precincts in Milwaukee city and county give Harrison 4,909;

Cleveland 4,161; Spooner 5,469; Peck 4,830, with two precincts missing. Seventy towns and precincts give a net republican plurality of 780 and a net democratic gain of 581 over the vote of 1888.

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—One hundred and twenty towns give Cleveland 22,744; Harrison 31,445. Net democratic gain 1,141.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—In 1,076 districts outside of New York and Brooklyn Cleveland has 135,248; Harrison, 151,148. The same in 1888 gave Cleveland 134,496; Harrison, 161,202.

BOTH PARTIES CLAIM DELAWARE.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 8.—The Australian ballot law was a great success. All indications are that an unusually full vote will be polled. The polls closed in this city at 6 p. m. Only the city districts have been heard from and they are too meager to draw any deduction from. The comparison is impossible, because this is the first election under the new system of districts. Both parties are claiming the state, but the democrats are more confident.

ILLINOIS FOR THE DEMOCRATS.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 8.—The probability is that Cleveland has carried Illinois and that Altgeld, the democratic candidate for governor, is elected by 12,000 or 15,000 majority. Chicago will give the democratic ticket 30,000 majority and the balance of Cook county will reduce that to 25,000. At republican headquarters they do not claim over 10,000 or 15,000 for Fifer outside of Cook county.

NEBRASKA CITY'S INTERESTS.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Nov. 7.—E. X. Haensler, manager of the Chicago Packing &amp; Provision Co., has resigned. His successor is Frank L. Burdick. Both houses will start up soon.

FIRE AT BEATRICE.

BEATRICE, Neb., Nov. 7.—The restaurant of C. R. Bennet, on Cou street near Fifth, was somewhat damaged about 3 o'clock this morning by an incendiary fire.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

LOUISA, Neb., Nov. 7.—A party consisting of Colonel W. H. Cowgill of Governor Boyd's staff, his two brothers, Ed and Frank, and Messrs. Moulton and Copeland of Beatrice, met with a serious accident while hunting here today. A quail was started in a hedge fence, some of the hunters on either side, Frank Cowgill and Mr. Copeland both shot at the bird through the brush, Frank's striking Copeland in the face and Copeland's striking W. H. Cowgill, Copeland's face is badly disfigured and fears are entertained that he will lose the sight of one eye, while the Colonel carries sixty three No. 8 shot in different portions of his anatomy.

Beecham's pills will save doctor's bills.

I have been bothered with catarrh for about twenty years. I had lost sense of smell entirely, and I had almost lost my hearing. My eyes were getting so dim I had to get some one to thread my needle. Now I have my hearing as well as I ever had, I can see to thread as fine a needle as ever I could, my sense of smell is partly restored, and it seems to be improving all the time. I think there is nothing like Ely's Cream Balm for catarrh. —Mrs. E. E. Grimes, Rendill, Perry county, Ohio.
