FROM THE HEADS OF THE POOR.

History records the fact that in 1682. in England, long, flaxen hair was purchased from the head at 10 shillings an onnce, while other fine hair fetched from 5 to 7 shillings for the same quantity, and within the present century the heads of whole families in Devonshire were let out by the year at so much per poll, a periwig maker of Exeter going round at certain periods to cut the locks, afterward oiling the skull of each bereft person. That the use of false hair as an aid to feminine beauty was not unknown to the ancients is well proved.
