Rheumatism Cured in a Day.

A few weeks ago the editor was taken with a very severe cold that caused him to be in a most miserable condition. It was undoubtedly a bad case of the grippe, and recognizing it as dangerous he took immediate steps to bring about a speedy cure. From the advertisement of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the many good recommendations included therein, we concluded to make a first trial of the medicine. To say that it was satisfactory in its results, is put it very mildly, indeed. It acted like magic and the result was a speedy and permanent cure. We have no hesitations in recommending this excellent Cough Remedy to anyone afflicted with a cough or cold in any form. The Banner of Liberty, Libertytown, Maryland. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by all druggists.

Scott's Emulsion makes cod-liver oil taking next thing to a pleasure. You hardly taste it. The stomach knows nothing about it—it does not trouble you there. You feel it first in the strength that it brings; it shows in the color of the cheek, the rounding of the angles, the smoothing of the wrinkles.

It is cod-liver oil digested for you, slipping as easily into the blood and losing itself there as rain-drops lose themselves in the ocean.

What a satisfactory thing this is—to hide the odious taste of cod-liver oil, evade the tax on the stomach, take health by surprise.

There is no secret of what it is made of—the fish-fat taste is lost, but nothing is lost but the taste.

Perhaps your druggist has a substitute for Scott's Emulsion, but the standard all others try to equal the best for you to buy.

K. & L. of S. Entertainment.

The program which the Knights and Ladies of Security will give to the public Tuesday evening, October 12, should induce an attendance that would fill Waterman's hall to its limit. It is the ambition of those having the entertainment in charge to show Plattsmouth people what they have to be proud of. It is not a money making scheme, the ruling motive being to furnish an entertainment of the highest order, composed of Plattsmouth talent, hence the nominal charge of 15 cents admission to simply cover expenses. THE NEWS bespeaks for the promoters of the program, an expression of the highest appreciation of the talent engaged, and which are rendering their services without recompense, by a large attendance. It is needless for THE NEWS to make personal mention of each person upon the program, as the public is already quite familiar with their talents, but have never before had the privilege of hearing so great a variety on one evening.

Miss Sadie Raymond.

Sadie Raymond and her excellent company tested the capacity of the Grand last night. The play was "Daisy, the Missouri Girl," and was presented in an excellent manner. Fred and Sadie Raymond are both stars of the first magnitude and would grace the stage of any theatre in the world. Their specialties were encored time after time. The company as a whole was far superior to any that has visited us this season and comparable to other shows would not do them justice.—Ottumwa (Ia.) Daily Republican.

P. E. O. SOCIETY.

Only Secret Society Composed Entirely of Women.

(Woman's Edition EVENING NEWS.)

The only secret society composed entirely of women, and organized and managed by them alone, is that known as the P. E. O. society. It had its birth in January, 1869, when seven young ladies, students in the Iowa Wesleyan university at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, conceived the idea of forming a secret society exclusively for women. At first it was just a college society, but its originators planned more wisely than perhaps they realized, for the order has become so extended that there is not a state in the union that does not claim a member, and many states have active, prosperous chapters, while Iowa, Nebraska and Missouri each have grand chapters, which hold their meetings annually, and the supreme grand chapters meet biennially.

Chapter "P" of the P. E. O. sisterhood, was organized in Plattsmouth, Neb., September 7, 1880, with a charter membership of eight, consisting of the following well known ladies: Mesdames R. B. Windham, J. M. Patterson, Geo. Dovey, J. P. Young, P. A. Campbell, G. F. Houseworth, Misses Dora Herold and Minnie Houseworth.

The membership has increased until fifty names now appear upon the roster. Since the organization of the chapter, death has deprived it of two most worthy sisters. Chapter "P" P. E. O. of Nebraska has an active membership of thirty.

The literary work in which the society engages, is shared by their friends. A thorough course in German, French and English history and literature has been made possible for the lady friends of the order, who have wished to avail themselves of that privilege. During this course of study, they have found that the public library has need of a reference department, and have presented to that institution the beginning of a good "Reference Library," small in its beginning, but the society hopes to soon be able to enlarge it.

The badge worn by the members of this sisterhood, is a five point star, with P. E. O. in black enamel upon it. There is no other star that sparkles with so many bright jewels, joined as it is with the five great links of Faith, Love, Purity, Justice and Truth, the sublime principles upon which P. E. O. society is founded.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

One of the Most Beautiful Church Edifices in the City.

(Woman's Edition EVENING NEWS.)

"Scarce think the wind that sweep his woodland tracks, The lark's perfume from the settler's axe, Ere, like a vision of the morning air, His slight framed steeple marks the house of prayer."

The pioneers of Plattsmouth seem, like their New England prototypes, to have brought their religion with them; for the infant city could number its birthdays by its church organizations, one being added each year, with a single omission, till six denominations were represented. Albeit, the "axe" played but a small part in the advance of this far west civilization, and the "steeple" existed only as "a vision."

This church was organized May 8, 1858, in a building located about where Hatt's meat market now stands, by Rev. D. L. Hughes, with six en-chapter members, of whom three are still with us; Messrs. Thomas Mitchell, J. N. Wise and Mrs. Lucy Martin.

The first elders were A. Carmichael and J. G. Hays. Services were afterwards held in a building on the lot where Gering's store now stands, then in the school building on the site of the Fitzgerald block until the removal to the first church building, which was erected in 1865. To J. N. Wise and T. K. Hanna, aided by a noble band of women, was largely due the success of this enterprise. Father Hamilton of Bellevue, missionary to Indians, preach here several months. Reverend Demorest, Coale and Roberts were stated supplies for brief periods. D. W. Cameron, the first settled pastor was installed in 1869. W. T. Bartie in 1872, and July 1875 he was succeeded by Dr. Baird, who is still with us, his being much the longest pastorate in the synod.

The present church was erected in 1890, at an expense of about $15,000. The pipe organ costing $1,000, was the gift of the Ladies Aid society. The beautiful east window, expressive of the affection of the people for Father Hays, the pioneer elder, whose active services, liberal benefactions, and earnest devotion to the church, ended only with his life, is now his memorial, he having been called to his reward April 27, 1892.

The Best Remedy For Rheumatism.

(From the Fairhaven, N. V., Register.)

Mr. James Rowland, of this village states that for twenty-five years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. Rowland for the doctor, but he had read of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and instead of going for the physician he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. His wife did not approve of Mr. Rowland's purchase at first, but nevertheless applied the Balm thoroughly and in an hour's time was able to go to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels an ache or a pain and finds that it always gives relief. He says that no medicine which she had used ever did her as much good.
