

A PATRIOTIC TURNOUT

Of Several Hundred Shop Boys Who Raise Three Flags Saturday.

AS TRULY A GRAND PARADE.

Bands Play and the Shop Men Cheer as the Star Spangled Banner is Carried to the Streets.

From Saturday's Daily.

At 1:40 today, according to previous announcement, the B & M shop men in three of the chief departments formed in procession and marched down Main street to the shops. The parade was one of the best and most interesting ever seen in the city. Harry Barthold, of the plating mill, came first bearing a small flag and wearing his shop apron, then followed the city band, then Wash and Dan Smith, foremen of the coach and paint shops, then six men bearing the big flag, one at either corner and one on each side. Then followed the expert workmen wearing their shop aprons and each holding a small flag. The splendid M. W. A. band came next followed by the sturdy blacksmiths wearing the leather aprons and with sleeves rolled up they formed a picture of industry well worth seeing. Their flag was the largest in the city and was borne aloft by four poles which showed the immense proportions of the flag most beautifully. Then came the machine shop boys with their flag which required 6 men to carry it so that all could see the red stripes and pure blue of the handsome emblem. The bands both played patriotic airs and the procession which extended the full length of Main street soon reached the shops when the program as announced was carried out to the letter.

The flags on the coach, blacksmith and machine shops were quickly drawn up to the top of the poles which were in waiting for them. The shop men then sang the National song with a zest and arrah that was inspiring. Judge G. M. Spurlock then made a very appropriate address that was well received. Then came some splendid music by the band and a salute to old glory that was loud enough to be heard for a mile. The storehouse force raised their flag in the forenoon, so that four beautiful new emblems, pointed heavenward, this afternoon a mild soft south wind caressed their folds for the first time. It was a gala day, and one which thoughtful people who witnessed the industrial parade will not soon forget.

Want to See His Son.

From Saturday's Daily.

Hans Rothmann went to Omaha today to see his son who was injured by robbers. He received his first notice of the unfortunate affair from the Evening News of yesterday, which gave a full report of it. He says his son has been working for John Philpot byer near Weeping Water, and that he and another hired man named Campbell went to Omaha to take in an exposition. At last accounts the boy was delirious from the wounds about the head, inflicted with the toughs who assaulted him. Omaha is the most mis-governed city in the west and a man is in danger of losing his life whenever he takes a stroll under a viaduct or on a dark street after 8 o'clock in the evening.

Elmwood and Wabash Roster.

The following is a list of the members of company B from Elmwood and Wabash: J. L. Mapes, Fred James, George W. Dunkle, Fred Hadley, Ed. Decker, Dan McMillen, Benj. Root, Emory Brant, Ray A. Barrett, Earnest Sarver, R. E. Current, Walter Hobson, Prof. H. E. Covell, Ruby Irons, Dr. F. E. Kraft, Rev. W. H. Turroll. The Wabash boys are: O. H. Allen, H. A. Austin, Albert Obernolte, Wm. Kruger, Fred Kruger, Simon Obernolte, Ed. Vanderburg and Al. Root.

Heroic American Sailors.

Washington, D. C., June 4.—Ensign J. R. Y. Blakely was in command of the volunteer crew of the Merrimac, deliberately sunk yesterday by Sampson as a cork to Santiago harbor. His father is editor of the Philadelphia Star. It is understood that the volunteer crew only numbered 8 men, all are prisoners.

Card of Thanks.

To the order of Robekns, friends and neighbors who were so kind and assisted us during the illness and at the funeral of Mrs. Barker, we desire to publicly express our heartfelt thanks.

J. P. BARKER AND FAMILY.

The shop boys are the most patriotic class of men in the city. A pro of their splendid parade Saturday, we are assured that they have raised ten American flags and one Cuban flag, all large, on the various shops and portions of the shop yards, and one which they raised Saturday is the largest flag in the city, 24x18. The boys are very proud of their colors and when they see them waving over the place where they toil for their bread it lightens their burdens, and makes them feel they have something to toil for—home and native land.

To Consumptives.

As an honest remedy, Foley's Honey and Tar does not hold out false hopes in advance stages, but truthfully claims to give comfort and relief in the very worst cases, and in the early stages to effect a cure. Smith & Parmele and F. G. Fricke & Co.

Miss Otis Reynolds came over from Plattsmouth Saturday and visited at home until Monday. She was accompanied by little Fern McBride.—Nehawka Register.

John Craig, one of the early settlers of Cass county, and a resident of Polk county for several years, was in town yesterday in attendance at the funeral of his niece, Mrs. James Barker.

The Campbell boy who was held up in Omaha lives near Nehawka, and is a grandson of Tom Campbell. His cousin, Alex Campbell and Link Denison, went to Omaha this afternoon to look after him.

Washington authorities say that American troops will first be landed at Santiago on a ship San Juan will be invested with 20,000 troops. Poso Rico will soon be under the Stars and Stripes.

Uncle Babbin's son who is 77 years of age was down town today feeling first rate and being hoisted up with rheumatism. He has copies of the first issue of the New York Sun dated way back in 1834.

R. Cecil Jack writes from Frisco that he is regiments clerk and is getting along first rate. He thinks the discipline very strict and says the boys are all well. They hope to be off for Manila on the expedition which sails in a few days.

George Fairfield was on the street today greeting many friends of the early days when the town had only 200 or 300 inhabitants. He is rapidly recovering from his recent illness, and expects to remain in town for three or four weeks.

The exposition is a great place for your Uncle Reuben to get his eye teeth cut. Frauds, deablers, peck-pockets, foot pads and burglars are doing a flourishing business in the metropolis, and the police force seem powerless to control the dangerous element.

MONDAY.

James Ingram of Louisy R. was in town today on business.

Wm. Delesdennier of Elmwood is attending district court today.

Thomas Irwin of Louisville is attending to business here today.

"Dick" Straight ships a car load of hogs to South Omaha this evening.

George W. Clark, the Greenwood attorney is in the city on legal business.

John Ramsey of Glendale was in town today visiting his brother, Judge Ramsey.

M. E. Coleman, who is farming, his year, cut near Alva, was in town on Sunday visiting his parents.

Dr. Davis, Wm. Wolfe and A. H. Austin of Union are in the city today on business at the court house.

Company B. will get its first taste of war life by making an overland trip to Weeping Water tomorrow.

Louis Thomas returned from Kansas City this morning accompanied by his cousin, Miss Verna Thomas.

W. C. Tabor came in from Manly yesterday, and expects to return to Alliance with his wife the middle of the week.

Roos Craig has only been farming a few weeks and he already has a pair of twin colts that are just yearlings. He ought to be a winner on the farm.

D. K. Barr says he knows the fellow who has only left the school grounds and in his haste to get his hat. He will give him his hat when he calls for it.

Frank She-man had a letter from W. J. Bryan today offering him a place in the regimental band if he would get his mother's consent. Frank is using all his persuasive tones on his mother just now with a fair show of success.

The Livington Building & Loan association has declared a dividend on its first stock which has now fully matured and proves to have been one of the best investments that the stockholders could possibly have made.

District court for the June term opened today. Judge Ramsey called the docket, setting cases for trial, and adjourned over at 4 o'clock until tomorrow as he goes to Nebraska City this evening to finish up the term down there.

J. S. Mathews received word yesterday to the effect that W. S. Pardy's increased pension claim had been disallowed for want of sufficient proof that his injuries were sustained while in active service. He is very low and cannot live much longer.

Arthur Toliff left Sunday afternoon at 4:59 for his new home at Norfolk. A number of his young gentlemen friends were at the depot to bid au revoir, and as are him that their best wishes accompany him wherever he may go. Arthur is a genial fellow and will surely form a large circle of friends in his new home.

O. B. Polk of Lincoln, attorney for the plaintiff, is trying a case in county court today before a jury. The title of the case is Albert Gullion vs. George and Margaret Traver. Clark and Barr appear for the Travers. The case is here from Greenwood.

Wm. H. Cook, age 31 of Prairie Home Neb., to Belle L. Cross age 20 of Elmwood, also Charles Edgerton, 38, of Council Bluffs and Henrietta Meischer 27 of Erie, Pa., took out permits to wed today and the latter couple were united by Judge Spurlock.

Plattsmouth people should attend the exposition this week and hear the world famous machine band, as its stay will be for only a few days more. The band gives a concert every morning at ten and every evening at eight. Theodore Thomas' orchestra gives a concert every day to hear which no extra charge is made.

U. S. Word of Rock Bluffs was in the city today with several cases of the finest strawberries we have seen this season. He received as high price for them at wholesale as the merchants get for shipped berries at retail. A greater portion of Cass county can raise fruit to compete with the word.

Dr. T. P. Livingston while in his rooms at F. E. Whites we to answer a telephone call about two o'clock Sunday afternoon, and while at the phone he suddenly fell to the floor. He was carried to a couch and physician sent for was present for him, but he remained in a semi-conscious condition until this morning. A physician was called from Omaha last evening, but we did not learn what he thought caused the sudden illness. Today Dr. Livingston is much better, and at noon he thought he might get down town this evening.

ON FOR MANILA.

A special train consisting of nine sleeping coaches and two baggage coaches passed through the city last evening on the B. & M. bound for San Francisco. The coaches were filled with Iowa soldiers from Red Oak, Sheehandah, Genawood and Council Bluffs, being part of the 3rd regiment of volunteers who have been in camp at Des Moines since April 21st. They expect to sail for Manila this week.

There were several hundred people at the depot to greet the country's defenders and as the train pulled in shouts of civilians and soldiers told of the fervent sentiment all the nation feels for the good of the nation and for the protection of our glory. The boys were loaded with flowers and fruits they had received along the route from admiring citizens and they scattered a portion of their gifts among the people on the platform and as the train pulled out the people on the platform fairly fell over one another to shake hands with the boys as they moved out on their way westward.

Liquor for Union.

Union will very likely have a loan for the next year. John Kennedy, an old citizen of that town, will make application to the town board for a license to run a place of this kind. Since he has secured the requisite number of signers to his petition and a majority of the board is in favor of granting license, no doubt Mr. Kennedy will be open for business in a very short time. Whatever may be said for or against the open saloon, it is certainly better for the community than bootlegging or holes in the wall where anybody, minors and habitual drunkards, can get all the liquor they want and no questions asked. This condition of affairs deepens the community of any license revenue and since selling liquor without a license is always a money making business, it is an incentive to law breaking. Mr. Kennedy is a reputable man and if anyone can maintain an orderly house of this kind in that community, he certainly can.

A man stands no chance of being elected to the mayorship of a city unless he enjoys the confidence and esteem of his neighbors. Geo. W. Humphrey is the popular mayor of Sankston, Ohio, and under date of Jan. 17, 1896, he writes as follows: "This is to certify to our appreciation of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy My family and neighbors have tested it, and we know it is an excellent remedy for coughs and colds.—GEORGE W. HUMPHREY." Sold by all druggists.

A Warm Friend.

Brody's Cough Cure is very good, but when diluted it is a warm friend indeed to those suffering from bowel complaints. It never fails. 25c and 50c. Smith & Parmele and F. G. Fricke & Co.

Neb. asks never gave such a promising outlook for small grain as at the present time in the entire history of the state. Some farmers fear such a growth of straw may cause the small grain to lodge badly, which sometimes is a serious fault.

Unfortunate People.

are they who are suffering from Kidney Diseases are prejudiced against all advertised remedies. They should know that Foley's Kidney Cure is not a quack remedy, but an honest guaranteed medicine for Kidney and bladder troubles. Smith & Parmele and F. G. Fricke & Co's.

May's Farewell.
A sunny shaft did I behold,
From sky to earth it shined,
And pointed heaven a bright sun beam,
Sweet bird that sang so loud,
He sang, he sang, he sang,
Within that shaft of sunny beam,
His eyes of fire, his look of gold,
All else of amethyst.
And thus he sang: "Adieu! Adieu!
Love's dream is gone, adieu!
The blossoms they make change,
The sparkling dew that glistens,
Sweet month of May,
We must say
Fare, fare away!
Today! Today!

I desire to attest to the merits of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as one of the most valuable and efficient preparations on the market. It is an exceedingly dangerous cough for me in 24 hours, and in grateful thanks for its recovery I desire to inform you that I will never be without it and you should be proud of the high esteem in which your Remedies are held by people in general. It is the one remedy among a thousand. Success to it.—O. L. DOWNEY, Editor Democrat, Atlantic, Ind. For sale by all druggists.
