THE army scandals so blatantly mentioned by the democratic newspapers are being punctured, and that too, by democratic officers in the army. The entire talk about mismanagement will be found absolutely untrue.

THE outlook for republican success, or rather for the defeat of the fusion scramble for office this fall, is certainly bright. The republican organization is the best ever had, and the fuses are jangling among themselves.

WHEN the Omaha congressional campaign gets fairly opened, the files of the World-Herald will furnish Dave Mercer all the campaign ammunition he will want. Hitchcock used to be a gold bug and a red-hot fighter against the pops.

THE State Agricultural society has enough self respect to not attempt to hold a fair this year, and were it not for the insidious rascals in the pockets of the tax payers, very few counties in the state would attempt to do any fair this fall in honor of the exposition.

OUR namesake at Nebraska City calls it partisanship to object to the columns of falsehood which are being daily printed about the army and its so-called mismanagement by the democratic papers. We are ready in favor of a thorough investigation and the punishment of those who have been guilty of neglect.

POLITICAL POINTERS. The democratic machine is in the up-the-down which will be given to the people at Weeping Water next Tuesday. Slippery Sam's is a good name for Rouse, after a machine that has turned down and W. H. Sawyer is to be nominated for the house. It should continue to try for the floor. J. M. Patton, the banker, might be distasteful to the rank and file of the pops, as his class are supposed to stand closer to the plow than to the street than to the farmer, but the flat has gone forth and the pops must take the medicine which is mixed for them down here in Plattsmouth, whether they like it or not. Patton's name must be named for the senate in the edict from the bosses and what they say goes, so far as the convention is concerned. Fred Gorder, of Weeping Water, is to be the democratic member of the house and D. O. Dwyer to be the fusion candidate for county attorney, although Mat Goring's pushers want him to take the job of getting licked next November. The present plan as given us by parties on the inside show one pop on the fusion ticket to three democrats and no white metal republicans. The three ringed fake with a reform banner meets at Weeping Water next Tuesday.

INFORMATION AND OPINIONS. Rose Hessel was sentenced from York county yesterday to twelve months in the penitentiary for horse stealing.

One of the sons of Col. Tom Majors, who is a member of the Second Nebraska volunteers, was taken sick a short time since at Chickamauga, and when found by Mrs. Colby, wife of General Colby, she at once took him in company with the son of a captain of one of the other companies of the Nebraska boys to the top of Lookout mountain, where she is nursing them herself back to health. The boys both have typhoid fever but are getting along nicely as the daily wire report received by Colonel Majors shows. Nebraska City News.

The fond father who wants his sons to refrain from evil habits should take

Wonderful Figures. One of the most marvelous workmen in the world is the human hand. It is the hand that has carved a figure in wood so like life that it is said to be almost indistinguishable from the real thing. The last two descendants of Christopher Columbus are said to be inmates of a poor house at Cadix, Spain. Since the war closed, the feeling against Columbus for having discovered America is such that his descendants are not likely to receive any courtesies.

How Galvin Caught Ward Napping. "There never was a pitcher in this country who could excel old Jimmy Galvin in catching base runners napping," said Jack Crooks. "I remember seeing the old fellow catch the foxiest base runners in the country asleep off the bags with the quickest kind of a motion. There was one occasion when 'Casey' played a star trick of this kind on Johnny Ward. The Pittsburghs were playing the New Yorks, and the score was very close, in favor of the former. The New Yorks had two men on bases, and Ward at the bat with two out. Galvin climbed to get Miller to step to one side of the plate and liberally gave him a little 'Ward'.
