

CITY AND COUNTY.

WEDNESDAY.

Wm. Delesdorfer is down from Elmwood, attending court today.

Tom Johnson, Charley Bringham and Jim Fitzgerald of Louisville are in town today.

The sheriff of Clark county, Iowa, departed for home last evening, with DeGroot in custody.

Such old republican war horses as T. N. Cabbitt, Alvy Christenson and Frank C. Merce are in town serving as jurors.

The B & M. folks are getting out a new time card which goes into effect next Sunday. Several important changes are looked for.

J. M. Campbell, one of the wild farmers residing near Ains, made the News a pleasant visit this morning. He is here as a juror.

The bottom fell out of some cases in court today and as a result there was no work, and the jury was excused until tomorrow morning.

Judge Frost, of Lincoln, has appointed El M. McKee as his stenographer instead of Wheeler, who held the position under Judge Hall.

The jurors are indignant that the picture of General Cass has been removed from the main court room to the museum down stairs, and have petitioned Judge Ramsey to have it returned to its place over the judge's chair.

W. H. Adams fell seventy feet at Nebraska City from the top of an elevator to a roof below, and besides the breaking of ribs, arms and shoulder blade he was unharmed and the doctors say he will recover. To escape death from such a fall is certainly remarkable.

Geo. H. McGee, advance agent for Flannigan Flats, one of the best comedy companies on the road was in town today arranging for the appearance of the company at White's Opera House next Tuesday evening. They will have a crowded house, as that is the way other towns have greeted them.

Herman Streitwiser will not start his machine shop before February on account of not being able to get his new machinery in. He purchased a very fine lathe recently from the factory which will be shipped in three weeks. He intends fitting his shop up in first class shape. He purchased the gas engine which won the honors at the exposition.

THURSDAY.

Julius Helficker returned today from Newark.

The county commissioners have ordered the picture of General Cass taken from the museum and returned to its place in the court room over the judge's desk.

The large trees in front of the Gorque residence on third street are being cut down which changes the appearance of property in that vicinity very much.

Attorney A. L. Timblin was in town from Nebraska City today and caused much merriment among his brother lawyers over the warm start he had made at Nebraska City.

Some of the boys think Sils Green slate was the brave juror whose skill as a foot racer saved him from being bruised up, but we have promised not to disclose the juror's identity.

Mrs. Wm. Hennessey of Council Bluffs was visiting friends in this city today. Mrs. Hennessey was formerly Miss Hattie Kline and resided with her parents in this city for several years.

Court adjourned this afternoon until Monday at 1:30 p. m., when the case of Pearlman vs. The Peoples Loan association will be tried. The trial of the People vs. School District No 28 is set for Wednesday at 9 a. m.

Antone Tritley, who has been working for Kuhov Bros., in their barber shop, has purchased the furniture of a barber shop formerly operated by E. M. Clark, and took possession today. Antone is a good barber and we hope he will make money as fast as he has made friends.

The citizens of Omaha conceived the idea of giving a Christmas dinner to the boys of the Third regiment, and $20 was the amount found necessary to feed a company, and $24 for the whole regiment. Announcement was made in the World-Herald yesterday and donations asked for, and by night $181 had been handed in, and the probability is that twice the amount asked for will be donated. Omaha is patriotic if its anything.

What do the Children Drink? Don't give them tea or coffee. Have them try the new food drink called GRAIN-O. It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-o you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-o is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about one-fourth as much. All grocers sell it, 15c and 25c.

Card of Thanks. To those who so kindly extended their sympathy and assistance in our great bereavement we desire to publicly thank.

Mrs. DELIA FINE and FAMILY.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c. The genuine has L. B. Q. on each tablet.

The mortgage holders will soon take possession of the Woman's Temple in Chicago, which is one of the finest business blocks in the great city. It was built by the national W. C. T. U.

Highwaymen Headed South.

Positive information was received by Acting Chief of Police Donahue yesterday that Royal Gempner and George Van Haller, the two men who defeated Detectives Keyser, Sullivan, Dempsey and Captain Cox in a revolver duel yesterday and escaped when the officers tried to arrest them at their rendezvous at Forty-seventh and Cass streets, are headed for Kansas City, if they are not there at present.

Captain Cox and his posse of officers and deputy sheriffs picked up along the route of the fugitives found A. S. Chouinard's buggy, in which the men made their escape from the city, in a barn at Le Platte, Neb. The horse was in good condition. It showed signs of having been driven hard, but was not injured. The buggy was in fair condition. The lively stable proprietor said that two men wearing Gempner and Van Haller's descriptions drove into the barn about 7:30 and said they wanted to leave their horse, which was tired out by hard driving. They said they would call for it in the morning and then left after inquiring the distance to Plattsmouth. When told it was but a few miles, one of them said that as they had to go there on business, they would walk. They were last seen going south on the railway tracks in the direction of Plattsmouth.

A tramp met by Cox's posse informed the officers that shortly before 9 o'clock Monday night he met two men answering the fugitives' descriptions about a mile from Plattsmouth on the railroad tracks, walking in the direction of that city. He said they inquired what time the night freight passed Plattsmouth, going to Kansas City. After 9 o'clock the men entered the Missouri Pacific railway depot at Plattsmouth and asked for information concerning the operation of freight trains to Kansas City.

Two men were seen to enter a skiff at Plattsmouth and pull down the river late Monday night. The men stole the skiff at a boat landing in the upper end of the city. In a general way their descriptions answered those of the fugitives. It was too dark to clearly distinguish the men. Acting Chief Donahue has telegraphed every river town from Plattsmouth to Kansas City to be on the lookout for the men.—Omaha Bee.

A Hoisting Attorney.

Attorney Timblin of Weeping Water, who removed to Nebraska City recently, seems to have been tearing up the ground at a lively rate down there for a starter. A dispatch to the State Journal from Nebraska City this morning says:

Yesterday John W. Black of the firm of Black & Timblin, attorneys, went into J. E. Conley's jewelry store and attempted to take from it a quantity of goods which he claims Conley gave a chattel mortgage on to Miss Sina Foss. Conley objected and had a warrant sworn out for Black's arrest on the charge of daylight burglary. Black was arrested and at once released by Judge Joyce on $100 bonds to appear at 9 o'clock this morning. Later Messrs. Black & Timblin again attempted to remove the goods, when Mrs. Conley, in the absence of her husband, locked the door of the store room, making the attorneys prisoners until they could procure a lawyer. S. J. Stevenson was secured and a warrant was sworn out and served on Black and Timblin for daylight burglary. They were taken before Justice Leigh, pleaded not guilty and after some parrying the examination was postponed to November 29, and Black and Timblin each placed under $200 bonds. The case will be a lively one.

We tell only what we positively know when we say "Dr. Sawyer's Arnica and Witch Hazel Salve will radically cure skin diseases, eczema, piles, burns, scalds, cuts or flesh wounds. A. W. Atwood.

Some Nebraska Boys Return.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16.—The steamer Moana arrived from Sydney, Apia and Honolulu this morning. The vessel brought another consignment of Australian gold. The shipment is valued at over $2,000,000 and is contained in 100 strong wooden boxes. There were forty soldiers aboard, having come from Honolulu. Twenty of them belonged to the regular army. Two of them belonged to the regular Eighteenth infantry and were San Francisco men. The other soldiers belonged to the Nebraska and Pennsylvania regiments. They were well enough to leave the hospital and were granted furloughs.

Try Grain-O! Try Grain-O!

Ask your grocer today to show you a package of GRAIN-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it, like it. GRAIN-O has that rich, real brown of Mocha and Java, but it is made from pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. One-fourth the price of coffee, 15c and 25c per package. Sold by all grocers.

Jos. Lane, John Smith, Wm. Woods and James Burnes were a quartette of tough looking bums who stayed in the jail last night and got lively walking papers from Chief Morrissey this morning to get out of town.

J. I. Uruh has just made a purchase of 100 iron bedsteads with a woman very spring mattresses, mattresses and pillows which he will offer at the low price of $5.00 each. The entire outfit for the price has never before been offered at such a low price. A complete bed can be seen in his store window. All who are needing anything in this line may get a bargain by seeing him before buying.

THE OLD MAIDS' CONVENTION.

A Large Audience Assembled at White's Opera House to Witness It.

From Wednesday's Daily. The seating capacity of White's opera house was taxed to the utmost limit last evening to accommodate the audience assembled to witness the Old Maids' convention. As the audience matured with their antiquated customs, their band-boxes and bird cages filled up the aisle and across the stage they were greeted with loud applause and their various clever specialties, aside from their regular conversation, were unanimously applauded.—Mr. Matthew and Henry Gering received to be special targets for local witlings, but other Plattsmouth humorists did not escape notice.

Mrs. G. F. S. Burton, as president of the convention, looked the old maid to perfection and presided in a most lady-like manner. Mrs. Travis, secretary, represented an recent member of several summers and writers and her retrospective account of the men she might have married, was received with a measure of incredulity by the convention. Mrs. Guild and Mrs. Pickett were giddy old girls. Mrs. Chas. Johnson also retained a youthful vivacity and her beautiful red curls concealed her identity, that the audience was a long time finding her out. Mrs. Burton with her sallow complexion, "Barbara Allen", and Mrs. Ritchey in her original poem and languishing love making were among the best of the specialties. Mr. Pickett as reporter, sustained the difficult part of one man in the bravest manner and made his retreat gracefully when the maidens overpowered him with attentions.

Miss Maury, Valley and Kessler presented themselves as samples of what the rejuvenating machine, over which Miss Maury presided in a charming manner, would accomplish, and the old maids, one and all, taking advantage of the offer, the stage was soon transformed and filled with charming young misses who closed an enjoyable evening's entertainment with a drill led by Misses Eaton and Wilson charmingly executed with much grace and precision.

We must not neglect to mention a solo very sweetly rendered by Miss Louise Drummond, one by Ida Pearlman and a duet by the Peterson sisters, all showing careful training and much talent.

The Old Maids' convention as a whole was a decided success, the length of the program being the only fault, but considering its excellence, not many were disposed to find fault.

A Lively Juror.

Last evening one of the jurors went with Constable Denson to help him arrest a sneak thief. They found the fellow down near the depot, but when he straightened up and showed fight, the juror realized for the first time that he was in close quarters, and his courage waned. The thief made an ugly threat and started at the juror with a vicious lunge, but the former showed a clean pair of heels. The race was short for, while the bum chased the juror, Denson was after the bum and just as he was about to deal the juror a staggering blow, Denson caught him by the coat tail and jerking him back, saved the juror from punishment. The crowd enjoyed the fun immensely, though the participants could not see where the laugh came in. Denson had a struggle with the fellow, and not being able to take him alone, he sent up town for the sheriff and bailiff, who marched the bum man to jail with a bloody head as he had to be handled roughly before he would go.

WEeping WATER ITEMS.

From the Republican. On Nov. 12, S. L. Dunham received from Wisconsin, a grand hog, one of the grandsons of the Great Klovers Model, the $5.100 hog. This hog Mr. Dunham has named Long Model 2nd, and will so record him. The name fits him to a T as he is long in body, also very heavy boned, finely marked, straight, black hair, and good finish throughout.

Rev. Donegan was down from Eagle, one day last week calling on old friends. Mr. Donegan and his son-in-law, Mr. Wiggins, associated themselves in business with Will English and have purchased the S. S. English company's store at Eagle. If Mr. Donegan is as successful in making friends as a business man, as he has been as a minister, the success of the new firm can be reckoned as an assured fact.

Mrs. McGill is looking for her brother, Victor Holmes, to make her a visit. He was terribly wounded in the first skirmish at Cavite, and has just got able to be sent home. She looked for him for several weeks on every ship that arrived from Manila and thinks he will stop here on his way to his home in Pennsylvania from San Francisco. She secured a letter from her mother last week enclosing one she has secured from the Colonel's wife, speaking in the highest terms of her brother and telling them of his condition. He was shot through the chest, shattering the breast bone and passing through one lung. His wonderful vitality and determination to get well and come home has pulled him through. Mrs. McGill is delighted with the prospect of seeing her brother again, whose condition has been such that she was fearful of the outcome.

For burns, cuts, bruises, lacerations, or injuries of any descriptions, Ballard's Snow Lintment is a sovereign remedy. It never fails to do good, and so promptly that its wonderful curative properties frequently create surprise. Price 25c and 50c. F. G. Fricke & Co.

Drummet for Second Nebraska.

WEDDING WARRIORS, Nov. 16.—Last night several sets of the drum enjoyed a social gathering at White's in the city. The drummers were quiet in the morning, but in the evening they were very noisy.

A social gathering was held at White's this morning at 10:30 and 11 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. L. H. Hester, a recent arrival from the West, who was entertaining a few of her friends and acquaintances. The young people were very merry and enjoyed the evening very much. The drummers were very noisy and the evening was very enjoyable.

WHEN YOU USE G. O. Taylor Whiskies YOU USE THE HIGHEST TYPE OF MEDICINAL WHISKIES IN EXISTENCE. A stimulant for use in the sick room, such as the G. O. Taylor brand, which is sold by more family druggists and prescribed by physicians more than any other brand of whiskey sold in competition with it, is safe to stand by. An old distiller caught adulterating his rum from the pump, by way of an apology said: "Water never hurt anybody." His statement was not wholly true, for much disease, suffering and lingering illness has been traced to the use of impure water. Physicians prescribe "G. O. T." for lung and throat troubles, as a flesh producer, with eggs and milk, after lingering sicknesses. Licensed dealers everywhere will sell you G. O. Taylor Whiskey if you insist on having it. It is not sold in bulk. Look for our firm name signature over the cork and on the label. Chester A. Graves & Sons.
