A Strong Ticket And Everybody Well Satisfied.

Will Be a Sure Winner at the November Election—Tom Williams Receives the Nomination For Sheriff By Acclamation—Robert Case Is the Nominee For Superintendent

County Clerk... JAMES ROBERTSON
County Treasurer... J. L. BARTON
District Clerk... G. F. HOUSEWORTH
County Judge... J. E. DOUGLAS
County Superintendent... ROBERT CASE
County Assessor... F. P. GASS
County Surveyor... E. E. HILTON
Commissioner, Second District... J. H. DAVIS

The above is the full county ticket as nominated by the republican convention at Weeping Water Saturday. In its issue Saturday THE NEWS gave the nominations down to that of sheriff, but owing to the late hour could not wait until the finish to give the entire ticket.

The large number of candidates in the field made the contest for supremacy very lively; but, as was known when they went into the campaign, some of them were sure to be defeated, and only the best of feeling exists now that the smoke of battle has cleared away.

The nomination of Tom E. Williams was made by acclamation, there being no opposition.

The nomination of J. E. Douglas for judge removed Professor Oberkotter's chances for leading the nomination for county superintendent, leaving the contest between S. A. Morrison of Tipton and Robert Case of Nehawka, the latter being nominated on the fifth ballot.

The nomination of E. E. Hilton for surveyor and P. P. Gass for coroner, both of this city, followed. These candidates also had a walk-away.

The work of nominating a man for commissioner of the Second district was next in order, which was done after selecting a chairman and secretary for the convention of the delegates from that district, and the taking of 119 ballots. The candidates were G. W. Young, George LaFue of Union and John H. Davis—the latter finally winning out.

Delegates to the state convention are as follows: A. E. Sheldon, A. Jenkins, J. H. Butler, J. H. Becker, A. E. Lake, James Carey, E. A. Rose, C. A. Richey, L. C. Todd, A. P. Sterns, Charles Warner, Ray Baldwin, E. T. Young, D. M. Lyod, S. L. Furlong, M. M. Butler, Charles Anderson, J. H. Haldeman, Allen Coleman, L. Ottatt, W. H. Nowell, W. L. Pickett, J. M. Young, C. D. Kunz, R. B. Windham.

Delegates to the judicial convention: B. Wolfe, A. Beach, H. J. Snyder, Joe McKinnon, I. Toland, H. S. Taylor, E. A. Jenkins, George W. Young, J. G. Holmes, E. R. Todd, W. E. Finley, C. D. Clapp, J. T. Evans, D. C. Richardson, J. W. Edmunds, William Nagle, H. D. Reed, F. S. Girardet, George Stoner, H. N. Dovey, G. M. Spurlock, C. A. Rawls, F. R. Ballance, R. H. Patton.

A resolution instructing the delegates to the judicial convention for Paul Jensen was tabled.

Death of Miss Tucker.

From Monday's Daily.
The many friends of Miss Mary Elsie Tucker were greatly shocked at the announcement of her death, which occurred yesterday afternoon at the family residence. She had been sick for many months, but the patience and fortitude displayed during her long illness so endeared her to loving friends that when the final summons came, it found them still unprepared and unwilling to give her up, while they feel that she has "gone home" and that she will never know sickness or sorrow any more, many days will pass before Time, the great healer, will soften the blow that has fallen so heavily upon the bereaved friends.

Always thoughtful of others, her energetic and hopeful spirit made many rough places smooth to the younger brothers and sisters who were left in her care by the death of both father and mother. She was a devout Christian and an active member of the Episcopal church, and no higher eulogy can be pronounced than the words of her divine Master—"She hath done what she could."

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the home, Rev. Mr. Burgess officiating. Friends of the family are invited to be present.

Settled An Old Grievance.

"Buck" Adams, the old-time ball player and all around sport, is into it again. He met Adam Strott in Andy Broback's saloon last evening and they proceeded to settle an old grievance. They both reside at Louisville and it appears they had some trouble at that place on the fourth of July. This trouble was revived by Strott, he using language which caused Adams to assault him. One blow from the latter settled Strott and the police came along and escorted them to jail. In police court this morning Judge Archer gave each $1 and costs, amounting to $6.20, which they paid. "Buck" Adams has joined the Thirty-ninth infantry, and it was necessary to get out of this trouble in order to join his regiment.

PERSONNEL OF THE TICKET.

The republicans in convention at Weeping Water last Saturday nominated a ticket which every republican in the county should and will take a personal interest in and work for its success.

James Robertson needs no introduction to the voters of the county, his efficient work during the time he has held the office of county clerk being ample proof that he always labors for the best interest of the county. He received the nomination without solicitation on his part and the people will see that he is elected.

James L. Barton, the nominee for treasurer, is a gentleman with a character beyond reproach. He has been a resident of Cass county for many years, during which time he has always been found to be a straightforward man whose word could be depended upon. He is a very successful breeder of blooded swine and owns a valuable farm in Greenwood precinct, upon which he resides. He is a man of fine education, being a school teacher for many years, and he is fully capable of conducting the office of treasurer.

George F. Houseworth has held one term as clerk of the district court and attorneys of the county and others, regardless of politics, who have occasion to transact business in that office admit that he is the best clerk who has ever held the office. His books are the model of neatness and are absolutely correct. He is always accommodating to those seeking information as to business of the office, yet strict about allowing records or filings to leave the office or be misplaced. His election is conceded by conservative people.

J. E. Douglas, the nominee for county judge, has been practicing law in Weeping Water for the past ten years, during which time he has made many friends in the county. His extensive practice in probate matters makes him especially fitted for the office of judge, and that he will perform the duties of his office in a fair and impartial manner there can be no doubt.

Tom E. Williams of Eight Mile Grove precinct was reared in Cass county and has taken a lively interest in the affairs of the county ever since he reached his majority. He has always been a staunch republican and never missed doing everything in his power for the success of the ticket. He received the nomination by acclamation and without solicitation. His attitude toward the ticket this fall has been most commendable.

Early in the season he had thought of asking for the nomination, but had not announced his candidacy. A little later, or about the time the First regiment reached San Francisco, the name of Frank Johnson was mentioned very favorably in connection with the office. Upon hearing this, Mr. Williams stated that if it was the wish of the republicans that Mr. Johnson be the nominee he was perfectly willing, and from that time until J. hanson declined to make the race he had no stronger supporter than was Tom Williams. In the meantime Martin Frederick of Eight Mile Grove precinct entered the race for the treasurer'ship, and, although knowing that there could not be two nominees from that precinct, Mr. Williams did what he could for Mr. Frederick up to the time of the convention. He had urged the latter to enter the race and he would not go back on his word. He is well qualified to fill the office and is deserving of the hearty support of his party. And he will receive it.

Robert Case was born and reared in Cass county and when the republicans named him for the office of superintendent of schools they made no mistake. He has had seven or eight years of experience in school work in the county and is deeply interested in that line of work. He is sure of success at the polls.

P. P. Gass, a pioneer citizen of the county, will succeed John P. Sattler as coroner. He is an honest and conscientious citizen and will not put the county to unnecessary expense by holding inquests when they are not necessary.

E. E. Hilton is the present surveyor and is perfectly familiar with the work. He will have no trouble in being elected again.

For commissioner of the Second district John H. Davis of Avoca precinct was named. His long residence in the district has gained him many friends. He is well thought of by his neighbors and being careful and conservative in the transaction of his own business he will make a model commissioner.

For Sale at a Bargain—Five cottages and eight lots in block 97, being what is known as the Wright estate. Apply to R. B. Windham, executor.

A. W. Atwood sells stationery.

RAILROAD NOTES AND PERSONALS

Section Foreman Charles McGuire returned to his work yesterday after a seven weeks' lay off with illness.

The new mail-freighter was given another test in near Omaha yesterday afternoon. The test was entirely satisfactory and the catcher will be given a trial on No. 7, between Omaha and Lincoln, the latter part of this week. E. Bignall and other officials were here to witness the test.

Yardmaster C. S. Manchester went to Lincoln this afternoon to take in the street fair.

C. F. Stoutenborough arrived in the city last evening from a six weeks' visit in Chicago and other points in the east. Mrs. Stoutenborough has gone to Connecticut to visit a sister and will not return for some time. C. F. will take charge of the Missouri Pacific line again October 1.

Master Mechanic H. J. Helps and Assistant Chief Clerk Thomas Kempster returned from this morning from a ten days' trip to Denver. They were accompanied by their wives and report having had a fine time in the mountain city.

Two more large engines arrived at the Burlington shops this morning and are being fitted up preparatory to be taken out on the road.

Stole Sam Beer.

From Monday's Daily.
The cellar under Ed Donat's saloon was entered Sunday night and about fifteen bottles of beer and some brick cheese was stolen. An entrance was effected by prying open a rear window. A number of fellows about town were suspected of committing the robbery and were taken into police court and questioned, but only two were held—"Wine" Graves and Jack Beeson. A tramp was found who claimed that he helped them drink the beer. All three of them were placed in jail, the latter being held as a witness. A knife and one of the bricks of cheese was found near the cellar window. The cheese will be held, if possible, and taken into court.

Beeson and Graves will probably be given a hearing tomorrow.

CONSUELO'S GUESTS.

Taking the Knapp Cure Last Morning at Beautiful Frontenac.

Consuelo, duchess of Frontenac, inherited from her mother, Mrs. G. H. Belmont, the Knapp cure, the great entertainer. Progressive, entertaining, clever and rich, she is a daily devotee of new ways to amuse her guests and succeeds far beyond most other hostesses in England. For a month back she and her husband have been amusing themselves and their friends with what they call recuperation parties. Blenheim, one of the finest old country seats in England, is at its loveliest in the early fall, and just now is crowded with guests, mostly young people resting after the dissipations of summer and building up against the ravages of a winter campaign yet to come. The Knapp cure has many devotees among Consuelo's guests, and every morning they may be seen walking barefooted on a dewy lawn as large as a city square. Some where near 100 people are staying at Blenheim, and over half that number are taking the Knapp cure, believing that dew upon the feet in the morning acts as a nerve tonic in loosening up the entire system for all day.

The time for the dew cure is between 5 and 6 in the morning, for after that the sun has absorbed the dew. The walk is taken before breakfast, with only a glass of milk in the stomach. The bath follows, then comes breakfast, and after breakfast the Knapp girls play tennis. It takes only a few days of this treatment to bring back bright eyes and roses, but whether improved condition is due to the Knapp cure or to the fresh air and early hours which the Knapp duchess imposes upon her guests may well be regarded as an open question.

Long-Distance Mails.

A letter sent from New York to Bangkok, Siam, travels overland to San Francisco and thence by water, reaching its destination in about forty-three days, having been carried nearly 13,000 miles. A letter mailed here for Adelaide, Australia, also goes via San Francisco, travels 12,845 miles, and is delivered usually within 35 days. New York mail destined for Calcutta goes by way of London, traveling 11,129 miles in 29 days, while mail sent from this city to Cape Town, South Africa, takes 125 miles further in two days' less time. Mail communication between New York and Hong Kong ordinarily consumes one month of time; the letters go by way of San Francisco, and cover 10,500 miles of distance. To reach Melbourne, Australia, from this city, a letter will travel 12,295 miles in about 32 days, and to reach Sydney a letter will travel 11,570 miles in 31 days. The mail route from New York to Yokohama, via San Francisco, is 7,345 miles long, and about 22 days are consumed in transit. To go to Honolulu from this city a letter travels 5,615 miles in 13 days. Leaving New York on steamer day, mail matter is scheduled to reach Rome in about 10 days, Madrid in ten days, London and Liverpool in eight days, Rotterdam in nine days, St. Petersburg in eleven days, Berlin in nine days, and Athens and Alexandria in fourteen days. Communication with South American ports is much slower. It takes twenty-four days for a letter to go from New York to Rio Janeiro, which is only about 50 miles further from this city than is Alexandria. Mail matter going from New York to Buenos Ayres, which is 8,045 miles distant, consumes 29 or 30 days.—New York Times.

The report of the British Consul at Manila on the state of trade there says: "There is abundant evidence that when peace and a settled form of government are well established the future prosperity of the Filipinos will far exceed the past."

THE NEWS prints the news.

Story of Edison's absent-mindedness about every-day affairs is proverbial. He goes to New York at least three times every week, and yet last week forgot to purchase a ticket each time. When he does manage to remember this little necessity for travelers the ticket is generally covered with minute and intricate calculations by the time the conductor comes to collect it.
