Legislation in Favor of Yellow Metal Will Be Enacted Soon.

Bill is to Reach the Senate Before the Holiday recess—Congressman Robinson is Quoted as Saying That Bryan Will Not Push Sixteen to One Idea Along Old Lines.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Gold standard legislation will come sooner than its friends have anticipated. The debate in the house will continue a week and before the holiday recess the caucus bill will have reached the senate. Senator Allison says the filling of vacancies on committees is progressing so satisfactorily they may be announced in a few days. This means that the finance committee, reconstructed with a gold standard majority, will soon be in trim for prompt consideration.

The policy of the democrats has been in doubt until today. It was thought they might consume months in prosy speeches for the purpose of delay, but democratic senators will not obstruct orderly legislation; they are in favor of letting the republicans have their way, in the knowledge that factional opposition is useless. Senator Cockrell says the minority has no intention of resorting to dilatory methods. The democrats will confine themselves to an explicit assertion of their position for and against gold. After that no obstacle will be thrown in the way of the majority. As soon as all those who wish to speak have finished, a vote will be agreed to.

Enough progress has been made in the last few days on the senate committee assignments to pretty definitely predict that the republican majority in the upper branch of congress will be taken care of satisfactorily. Three new committees in the senate have been agreed upon answering to one new committee in the house, that of insular affairs, and they will be named: Committee on Philippines, of which Mr. Ledge is to be chairman; committee on Cuba, Mr. Platt of Connecticut; committee on Porto Rico, Mr. Foraker.

On this change about Senator Thurston, it is believed, will either go to the head of the committee on Indian affairs or patents, both of which are decided advances over his present committee.

Bryan and Sixteen to One.
In view of the fight which is to be made against the currency measure in the senate and which is now being discussed in the house, the following telegram from Wheeling, W. Va., to the Baltimore Herald of this morning is pregnant with much meaning:

WHEELING, W. Va., Dec. 11.—Local politicians are considerably interested in a statement from John A. Pendleton, ex-congressman, that the democratic party in the next campaign will not attempt to make an issue of silver at 16 to 1. Last week Congressman John Robinson of Nebraska visited Wheeling and it is alleged that he informed Wheeling leaders that Mr. Bryan had concluded that as the circulation of gold has measurably increased there was no necessity for prosecuting the 16 to 1 idea. According to the Nebraska congressman it was only the intention of Mr. Bryan to advocate silver in the hope of adding to the circulation of money. Now that that object has been attained by the introduction of gold in large quantities by recent discoveries no special stress is to be laid upon the original 16 to 1 plan.

Senator Warren today introduced a bill similar to that introduced by Mr. Mondell in the house, providing for an appropriation of $100,000 for the completion of a military post at Sheridan, Wyo.

Judge Keyser of Omaha, grand master of the Nebraska Masons, is in the city to participate in the exercises attendant upon the centenary of the burial of George Washington. This event promises to be historical in character, as prominent Masons are arriving from all parts of the country to the present on Thursday, when the exercises take place at Mount Vernon.

Nat Brown of the Murray way is in the city today on his way to Omaha. He stated that Nebraska would give a good account of itself next year politically and he believed that Bryan would not be able to carry his state.

Son of an Ohio Merchant Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea.

My son has been troubled for years with chronic diarrhoea. Sometime ago I persuaded him to take some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using two bottles of the 25 cent size he was cured. I give this testimonial, hoping some one similarly afflicted may read it and be benefited.—Thomas C. Bower, Glenwood, O. For sale by all druggists.

In Memory of Hayward.
A special from Nebraska City says: "Exercises in memory of the late Senator M. L. Hayward were held in the district court this afternoon. The entire Otoe county bar was in attendance and many citizens, filling the court room. On the wall behind the judges' bench was a large portrait of the late judge, draped with American flags. Resolutions paying tribute to the worth of the departed as a lawyer judge and legislator, his honest record in public and private affairs, his loyalty to his friends and his nobility of character, were unanimously adopted and ordered spread upon the records of the court. Eulogies were pronounced by Judge Jaul Jensen and other members of the bar."

CAPTURE ROBBER BAND.

Colonel Smith Captures a Party of Guerrillas Near Malasqui.

MANILA, Dec. 12.—7:50 p. m.—Colonel Smith, with a detachment of the Seventeenth Infantry, captured a party of guerrillas who had made their headquarters there. The party included seven chiefs at Malasqui for friendship to the Americans. All are insurgents who became bandits when the disintegration of the Filipino army began. They kept the country around Malasqui in a state of terror for several weeks and committed twenty-five murders in that number of days. When they were caught they were promptly sent to General MacArthur's headquarters at Bayambang by train. It is expected they will be speedily tried and either shot or hanged as an example.

The whole country north of San Fernando and between San Fernando and Manila, except within the permanent line of troops around the city and the closely patrolled stretches of railroad, swarms with similar bands. Probably they will be increased by men from Pilar's army, many of whom are making their way south to join the insurgent force in Cavite province.

These people for the most part succeeded in dodging General Grant, Colonel Bell and Colonel Hood's troops, who are securing the country for them. They devote their energies to ambushing commissary wagons and to picking up soldiers who leave their commands. Every day some wagon train is fired upon or some soldier disappears.

General Wheeler's secretary, Mr. Garrett was disarmed and slashed by a boloman almost within sight of headquarters, his assailant pursuing him nearly into the headquarters building. The policy of these ruffians is to make the country uninhabitable for Americans and to frighten natives into refraining from giving assistance to the Americans, as well as to compel the inhabitants to support the insurgent force.

Worse Than Fighting Indians.

Frequently they raid and loot towns. The brother of the president of Insus went outside the town the other day to harvest some rice. He was captured by his compatriots, accused of being a spy and executed. Only a small portion of the insurgent arms have been surrendered and the problem of suppressing the guerrilla warfare is anything but easy of solution. Some of the American officers think it worse that fighting Indians, owing to the difficulties of the country and the trouble in locating the enemy, who resort, when hard pressed, to the amigododge and hide their guns.

SUIT AGAINST SALOON MEN

Benscoter Damage Suit to Come Up in Federal Court in Omaha.

From Wednesday's Daily.
Attorneys Matthew Goring and D. O. Dwyer went to Omaha this afternoon where it is expected that the damage suit of Julia A. Benscoter and minor children against four saloon men of this city, will come up for trial soon. Attorney Dwyer, representing the defense, received word last evening that the application for a continuance had been denied and that this case would be the next one called.

It will be remembered that on the 10th of last February John Benscoter, the plaintiff's husband, became intoxicated and during the night, or along towards morning, went into the alley at the rear of Bennett & Tutt's store, where he was found a few hours later in a badly frozen condition, the injury to his toes and fingers being permanent.

The names of the dealers who are defendants in the suit are Broback & Niska, Ed Donat, Fred Egenberger and H. H. Goos. The saloon men declare they will fight the case to the end.

He and his wife are visiting in Lincoln for a few days. They will spend Christmas in this city with his parents and then go to the capital to assume his new duties.

THE CONCERT A SUCCESS

The Nebraska Sisters Greeted by a Large Crowd in Omaha.

Miss Marie Louise Unable to Sing On Account of a Severe Cold—Accounts of the Entertainment in the Omaha Papers Are Very Complimentary to the Little Singers.

As will be seen by clippings from the Omaha Bee and the World-Herald given below, the Misses Lillian and Marie Louise Nebraska were well received at the Boyd last evening. It was very unfortunate, indeed, that the latter was too hoarse to sing, but Miss Lillian did remarkably well, and thus in a large degree made up for what was a disappointment there may have been in not hearing both the young ladies.

The scene in Romeo and Juliet was particularly fine, and received enthusiastic applause.

Speaking of the concert the World-Herald says: "After a triumph in England such as few American girls have won, Marie Louise and Lillian Nebraska met with a fervent and flattering reception at Boyd's theater last night upon the occasion of their first appearance since returning home. They were assisted by the most accomplished musicians of the city in a grand concert of rare merit and distinction.

"Not a little disappointment was felt when at the outset it was announced that Miss Marie Louise Nebraska was suffering from a severe cold and would be unable to sing. All of the singing fell to the lot of Lillian, whose clear, sweet and cultured soprano was heard to splendid advantage in several classic selections. Marie Louise reserved her voice for the balcony scene from Shakespeare's 'Romeo and Juliet.' She played Romeo with fine ardor and poetic spirit, her sister assuming the role of Juliet. The beauty and vivacity of the young ladies, who are both petite and dainty, gave the scene a delicacy and charm that was thoroughly appreciated by the audience.

The Bee says: "Miss Lillian Nebraska did all the solo work of the evening, as far as the chief attractions were concerned. Her sister was unable to appear, owing to a slight hoarseness, which appeared shortly before the concert and would not succumb to treatment. This gave the soprano a great amount of work and to say that she did it well would be only slight praise. She was a revelation and her work cannot be too highly spoken of. It is seldom that a singer on the professional stage is obliged to meet reverses so early in a career and Miss Lillian Nebraska rose to the occasion. The sweet little production of a scene from 'Romeo and Juliet' was very well presented and showed undoubted histrionic talent, which responds and experience will develop.

These attending the concert from this city were: Mrs. George E. Dovey, Margaret Dovey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dawson, Fred Dawson, Dr. T. P. Livingston, Anna Britt, C. C. Parmele, J. G. McHugh, Mrs. Joe Klein, Jack Pierce and wife, Paul Groetsch, H. B. Groves, Cornelius Coffey, Mamie Coffey and George L. Farley. Others would have gone had a special train been secured.

AN EFFORT TO BRANCH OUT

Plattsmouth Telephone Company Will Try to Get Into Omaha.

The following is what this morning's Bee has to say of the Plattsmouth Telephone Company: An effort is soon to be made to secure in Omaha a footing for an independent telephone company, with a view of establishing an Omaha exchange therefor. Down in Plattsmouth a coterie of young men some time ago organized an independent company with a modest capital. The promoters are men of means, and they have developed and extended their plant and its business until now it has over 300 telephones in operation in Plattsmouth and is connected up with over 150 towns in southeastern Nebraska, southwestern Iowa and northwestern Missouri. It has over 100 miles of wire of its own strung outside of Plattsmouth, and has connections as far south as St. Joseph. Of course its connections are with other independent telephone systems, which are becoming quite numerous and comprehensive.

Some time ago this company strung its wires to South Omaha and put in a toll station at that point. Since that time its managers have been endeavoring to find some way of getting into Omaha in a way that would enable them to establish an exchange when they may so desire and go into the rental of instruments. It is claimed that they have found the desired way by effecting some arrangement with the Postal Telegraph and Cable company. It is intimated that the latter is possessed of a franchise that will permit its entering into the telephone business, and that it has secured an interest in the Plattsmouth company. It will also use the poles of the latter company for its own purposes, and in a few days will begin the stringing of its wires along them to a telegraphic connection with Nebraska City and points south.

The Plattsmouth company furnishes instruments to its patrons at the rate of $1 a month for residence purposes and $2 per month for business houses. It uses only the kind of instruments known as long-distance telephones, which it buys outright for something like $7.50 each, paying no royalty or rental of any kind. The chief promoters of this company are Thomas E. Parmele, the former Plattsmouth base ball magnate, and his brother, C. T. Parmele. The former recently announced his intention of moving from Louisville to South Omaha the vitrified brick plant which he has operated at the former place for several years.
