

BOERS LIKE A BATTLE

Boers Concentrating Fifteen Miles From Bloemfontein.

Burglers are daringly aggressive in small bodies, and are holding close to Roberts' headquarters...

London, March 30.—The Bloemfontein correspondent of The Morning Post, telegraphing Wednesday, says: "President Kruger boasts his intention to retake Bloemfontein within a week, and it appears probable that the Boers are advancing in force southward."

London, March 30.—The Boers are concentrating in force about fifteen miles north of Bloemfontein, in the rear of Glen, and Lord Roberts is sending forward troops to engage them.

Boers are daringly aggressive. In small affairs the Boers are daringly aggressive in all parts of the field of war. The Johannesburg mounted police, esteemed by the Boers to be their best mounted corps, is raiding the country near Bloemfontein, harassing the farmers who have given up their arms to the British, and carrying off cattle.

Boers are daringly aggressive. In small affairs the Boers are daringly aggressive in all parts of the field of war. The Johannesburg mounted police, esteemed by the Boers to be their best mounted corps, is raiding the country near Bloemfontein, harassing the farmers who have given up their arms to the British, and carrying off cattle.

Boers are daringly aggressive. In small affairs the Boers are daringly aggressive in all parts of the field of war. The Johannesburg mounted police, esteemed by the Boers to be their best mounted corps, is raiding the country near Bloemfontein, harassing the farmers who have given up their arms to the British, and carrying off cattle.

LITTLE CUBAN-AMERICAN.

Gen. Wood the Father of a Girl Born in Havana. Havana, March 30.—Mrs. Wood, wife of the governor general, gave birth to a ten-pound girl at the palace at noon yesterday. Mother and child are doing well. The records of Havana do not show the birth here of any other governor general's child.

Color Line on Trial Again.

Alton, Ill., March 30.—Alton's celebrated school case, in which the negroes of the city seek to gain admission to the public schools attended by the whites, is now on its third trial before Judge Schaefer in the Madison county circuit court.

Rating as to Foreign Companies.

Philadelphia, March 30.—The state supreme court yesterday filed an order in which the court holds that a company incorporated under the laws of another state and which fails to register in Pennsylvania, cannot recover at a suit at law.

Refused to Extend the License.

Rockford, Ill., March 30.—The city council by a vote of 5 refused to grant an extension of the franchise granted several years ago to the Carbon Dioxide company, of Chicago, under which a pipe line was to be put in for refrigeration and fire extinguishing purposes and illuminating gas, as a by-product, to be sold at $1 per 1,000.

DEMOCRATIC POLITICS.

Organization in Indiana—Probabilities as to the Platform Issues.

Indianapolis, March 30.—D. W. Ferguson, at a meeting of Springfield, Ill., representing the national Democratic committee, are here to assist Parks Martin, state Democratic chairman, in making a thorough canvass and organization of the state and to collect funds for the national committee.

MICHIGAN LANDMARK MOVED

Old Mill at Tawas City That Was Built Forty-Six Years Ago. Tawas City, Mich., March 30.—By the removal of what has for years been known as the Winona Salt & Lumber company mill, Tawas City and Tawas bay loses its oldest mill.

Michigan Christian Endeavor. Grand Rapids, Mich., March 30.—The thirteenth annual Michigan Christian Endeavor convention opened in this city Tuesday evening with two rousing meetings which packed the Grand Congregational and Fountain street Baptist churches to the doors.

Wild Rose is Worked Up.

Wautoma, Wis., March 30.—The citizens of the village of Wild Rose, nine miles north of here, are considerably worked up over a disease that has appeared in the family of Postmaster E. M. Clark's family. His little 9-year-old daughter has been ill for several days with smallpox. All due precaution has been taken against the spreading of the disease and the family put in quarantine.

Congressman and Ex-Cavalry Fight.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 30.—A fight on the street occurred between Congressman George W. Faris and H. C. Pugh, ex-United States consul to Palermo, on the evening of the 29th of the withdrawal of the congressman from the race for renomination. The congressman was knocked down and badly bruised but suffered no other ill effects than a blackened eye and bleeding nose.

Coincidence in Death.

Chicago, March 30.—Harvey L. Goodhall, proprietor and publisher of the South Side Daily Sun and the Chicago Daily Drivers' Journal, and Edward R. Ryder, one of his bookkeepers, died Wednesday. Goodhall died of heart trouble at 9 p. m., at his home. Ryder died of pneumonia at 11 a. m.

Philippine Commission Meets.

Washington, March 30.—The Philippine commission met and agreed upon the personnel of the staff that is to accompany the commission to Manila. They also agreed on certain outlines which they will follow in their work in the Philippines. These will be submitted to the secretary of war.

Elopement That Was a Success.

Mattoon, Ill., March 30.—William Mazoe, of this city, and Miss Garnet Long, of Newman, eloped to Tuscola and were married Wednesday. The bride's mother objected at the altar. The bride is a daughter of S. W. Long, a prominent banker, who died recently.

Killed by Falling Stone.

Saginaw, West Side, Mich., March 30.—A miner named Stewart Smith was killed in the here Marquette coal mine here, by falling slate. He leaves a widow.

TARIFF CLAUSE STAYS

Test Vote On Porto Rican Issue Has Been Taken.

Vote is Decisive, 33 to 16, and American Tells the Story of the End—Details of the Roll Call—Quiet Day in the Military Committee and No Bloodshed—Turkey Opens War on Our Pork, Which is Reverted with a Protest.

Washington, March 30.—A direct vote was taken by the senate yesterday on the proposition to strike from the Porto Rico measure the provision levying 15 per cent. of the Dingley law duties on Porto Rico products. The proposition was defeated by a vote of 16 to 33.

COMMUNER VERY RELIEVED.

Washington, March 30.—Commander S. W. Very has been relieved of the command of the Castine and ordered home from Manila by regular steamer.

LUNATIC DEPIES THE OFFICERS.

Barricaded in His House He Guards It with a Shotgun. LaCrosse, Wis., March 30.—Barricaded in his abode, and guarding the approach with a double-barreled shotgun loaded to kill, Fred Greenwood, a local eccentric, today defied the officers of the law to arrest him.

KILLED ON THE RAILWAY.

Chicago, March 30.—An unidentified man was killed yesterday at Sag Bridge, Ill., by a train on the Chicago and Alton railroad. The man, a stranger in the locality, was walking on the tracks when struck by the engine. He leaped in some manner, but was killed.

NEWS FACTS IN OUTLINE.

Thousands attended the funeral at Cincinnati of the late Rabbi Wise, who died here last week. The funeral was held at the synagogue.

House Military Committee Goes Gently as a Sucking Pig.

Washington, March 30.—The House military committee opened yesterday with no outward evidence of the exciting events of Wednesday, although there was considerable good natured raillery among members as to when the "first report" would be made.

TURKEY AND AMERICAN HOG.

Washington, March 30.—The news from Constantinople that the Porte had struck a blow at our hog was interesting at the state department. The cable stated that "the porte has informed the United States legation that in future the importation of American pork will be prohibited, giving as a reason for the prohibition that the meat is injurious to the public health."

Two Bananas Trees in Washington Park are Burdened with Ripened Fruit.

Liberal's navy, consisting of two giant sand stores, are reaching here a block on the railway is delaying arrivals from the south considerably.

BOERS LOSE A CHIEF

Their Most Renowned Leader Dies at the Capital City.

London Editors Speak Kindly of Britain's Greatest Hero in South Africa—Great Quantities of Stores Accumulated at Bloemfontein Thought to Indicate a Movement Forward by Lord Roberts—No Engagement Expected for Two Weeks if He Does Move.

London, March 29.—The death of General Piet Joubert, commander-in-chief of the Boer army, was officially reported yesterday. He died Tuesday night at 11:30 o'clock. The Pretoria correspondent of The Daily Mail, telegraphing yesterday, says: "General Joubert died of peritonitis. The funeral will take place tomorrow. The government is pleading with the widow to allow a temporary internment here, with a state funeral. Joubert always expressed a desire to be buried in a mausoleum built on his farm. His

GENERAL P. J. JOUBERT.

Successor in the chief command will probably be General Louis Botha, now commanding in Natal.

Specimen of His Generalship.

Although some of the younger commanders thought the old soldier waiting in dash and enterprise, his rapid march of 3,000 riflemen and six guns, considered the best piece of Boer leadership during the whole war.

INDICATIONS OF A MOVEMENT.

London, March 29.—General French, who has arrived at Bloemfontein from Thaba Nchu, says that Commandant Olivier has 6,000 men and is north of Ladybrand. Immense quantities of stores have been accumulated at Bloemfontein, and Lord Roberts' infantry is seemingly about to move, an impression which can be traced to the war office.

Seems to Have a Cinch on Dunlap.

Milford, Ill., March 29.—Dunlap, the noted bank burglar, has been brought to this county and lodged in jail at Watseka. Pate and Cashier Webster, of Wellington, Ill., identified a cigar box found in Dunlap's possession, which was used for small change, also a shot sack and a roll of nickels done up in paper and deposited by Postmaster Dell.

Shaw Appointed an Editor.

Des Moines, Ia., March 29.—Governor Shaw has announced the appointment of C. F. Winnerstrum, editor of the Swedish paper in this city, to be state labor commissioner. The governor had recommended that the office either be strengthened or abolished, as its usefulness at present is very limited. But the legislature has made no change, so the appointment of a new commissioner is made.

NEWS FACTS IN OUTLINE.

Russian officials have now replaced all the Finns in the state department of Finland.

Col. Marouli's Appointment.

London, March 29.—A dispatch to

MR. MACRUM'S CHARGES

Tells a House Committee of the Opening of His Mail.

Washington, March 29.—There were interesting goings on in two committees of the house yesterday. The foreign affairs committee held before it ex-Counsel Macrum to hear his story of alleged indications published in the United States by the British censor at Durban. The military affairs committee had a riot nearly and there is no telling what the members of that committee will be doing to each other if things do not improve.

Washington, March 29.—There were interesting goings on in two committees of the house yesterday. The foreign affairs committee held before it ex-Counsel Macrum to hear his story of alleged indications published in the United States by the British censor at Durban.

Why He Wanted to Come Home.

He explained that when he asked for a leave of absence he desired to come home to his business, but also because he desired to place before the United States government certain facts which he deemed it essential should be known here.

Two Fires at Baltimore.

Baltimore, March 29.—Two disastrous fires, which cost the city $200,000, visited Baltimore yesterday. The largest of these was in the clothing establishment of Likes, Berwanger & Co., 12 East Baltimore street, which burned 3 1/2 hours.

Iowa Official in Disagreement.

Des Moines, Ia., March 29.—State Treasurer Herriot issued yesterday a statement regarding a seven-column statement with regard to differences between other members of the executive council and himself over railroad assessment.

Japan Hires Its Own Citizens.

Washington, March 29.—Consul General Govey at Yokohama had transmitted to the state department a copy of a reply to inquiries of Americans as to opportunities for employment in Japan.

Democrats Have Beveridge's Speech.

Indianapolis, March 29.—The speech that Senator Beveridge was to have delivered before the United States senate last Thursday, his free trade amendment to the Porto Rican tariff bill will be used as a Democratic campaign document in Indiana and other states.

HE RECOVERS HIS SPEECH.

Chicago Homelike Attempts Suicide and Can Talk Again. Chicago, March 29.—Vito Paoletto, the Italian saloonkeeper who killed Michael Glavito, his partner, Monday night, and who was stricken dumb a few minutes afterward, tried to commit suicide at the inquest. He failed, but the method he employed restored his power of speech.

STORY OF A LOST CHECK.

Returned to Its Owner with Interest Thirty-Six Years. Merrill, Wis., March 29.—Simeon Tripianer, now of this city, enlisted in company E, First Connecticut volunteers, in 1864. At that time he sent by express to his father at Montreal, Canada, his picture and a check for $300, which was deposited in the Bank de Parvane at Montreal. His father never got the check.

TYSON FAMILY IS WANTED.

There is a Matter of $13,000,000 Coming to Its Members.

New York, March 29.—Miss Elsie Tyson, of Humboldt, Cal., has sailed for England with an Australian attorney to assist in establishing the claim of the children and grandchildren of John Tyson, who died in New Providence, N. J., thirty years ago, to the $13,000,000 estate of James Tyson, who died in Melbourne in 1888.

London, March 29.—The death of General Piet Joubert, commander-in-chief of the Boer army, was officially reported yesterday. He died Tuesday night at 11:30 o'clock. The Pretoria correspondent of The Daily Mail, telegraphing yesterday, says: "General Joubert died of peritonitis. The funeral will take place tomorrow. The government is pleading with the widow to allow a temporary internment here, with a state funeral. Joubert always expressed a desire to be buried in a mausoleum built on his farm. His

GENERAL P. J. JOUBERT.

Successor in the chief command will probably be General Louis Botha, now commanding in Natal.

Specimen of His Generalship.

Although some of the younger commanders thought the old soldier waiting in dash and enterprise, his rapid march of 3,000 riflemen and six guns, considered the best piece of Boer leadership during the whole war.

INDICATIONS OF A MOVEMENT.

London, March 29.—General French, who has arrived at Bloemfontein from Thaba Nchu, says that Commandant Olivier has 6,000 men and is north of Ladybrand. Immense quantities of stores have been accumulated at Bloemfontein, and Lord Roberts' infantry is seemingly about to move, an impression which can be traced to the war office.

Seems to Have a Cinch on Dunlap.

Milford, Ill., March 29.—Dunlap, the noted bank burglar, has been brought to this county and lodged in jail at Watseka. Pate and Cashier Webster, of Wellington, Ill., identified a cigar box found in Dunlap's possession, which was used for small change, also a shot sack and a roll of nickels done up in paper and deposited by Postmaster Dell.

Shaw Appointed an Editor.

Des Moines, Ia., March 29.—Governor Shaw has announced the appointment of C. F. Winnerstrum, editor of the Swedish paper in this city, to be state labor commissioner. The governor had recommended that the office either be strengthened or abolished, as its usefulness at present is very limited. But the legislature has made no change, so the appointment of a new commissioner is made.

NEWS FACTS IN OUTLINE.

Russian officials have now replaced all the Finns in the state department of Finland.

Col. Marouli's Appointment.

London, March 29.—A dispatch to

GENERAL P. J. JOUBERT.