THE LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY CASE COUNTY PAPER.

TUESDAY, MAY 15, 1900.

In Illinois the social democrats have placed a full state ticket in the field.

UNFARLISHED property ought to be all the platform the republicans need this year.

The fusionists are not a little worried over the nomination of Dietrich. He is a popular man and a genuine hustler.

THERE is talk of side-tracking Governor Poynter and nominating State Treasurer Meserve to head the fusion state ticket.

YESTERDAY'S Illustrated Bee had a fine full page half-tone picture of C. H. Dietrich, republican nominee for governor.

SILVER republicans of Colorado are rapidly returning to the fold. The keynote of their state convention yesterday was the cordial reunion of the silver and gold wings of the party.

THE burning question of the hour with fusionists is: Will their political kite have two tails again this time? There seems to be grave doubts whether or not the democrats will endorse a free silver republican for vice president.

BRYAN and Towne are the men the fusion pops want for president and vice president. Bryan, Allen, Butler & Co. were unable to prevent the nomination of Mr. Towne. They fear the democratic convention to be held in Kansas City will not endorse him.

JUST wait till the gold democrats, the republicans and the two wings of the prohibition party make their nominations and we will have an array of candidates for president. With seven in the field every voter ought to find one that will represent his ideas of government.

CHARLES A. TOWNE is willing to accept the nomination for vice president tendered him by the populist convention, but insists that there must not be the slightest backdown from the financial plank of 1896. If there is, he wants to be counted out.

DR. DISBROW left for Kearney this afternoon. His work in this city during the past five or six weeks has been watched with unusual interest. Those who have used his remedies believe in them and seem willing to testify as to their merits. He succeeded in organizing a company before leaving.

THERE are already three candidates in the field for president of this great nation, viz: W. J. Bryan, democrat; Eugene V. Debs, social democrat; and Wharton Barker, middle-of-the-road populist. It will take just one good man to paralyze that trio. The fusion house is sufficiently divided against itself to fall upon the slightest attack.

THE Knights of Pythias, as an organization, desire to help the public library, and to that end they have arranged with Mr. Willard to put on another play. Plattsmouth is to be congratulated on the fact that its citizens, old and young, are taking hold of this library question. A good public library means infinitely more to a community than we think or know.

THE dedicatory exercises Saturday evening were all that could be desired. The only regret expressed was that more of the parents did not attend. They could not have realized that it was especially desired that they be present. A goodly number remained at home, fearing there would not be room while others could not leave their families.

A FORMER member of the Filipino republic cabinet has become reconciled to American rule and will give his time and influence to bring about peace. He says his people are not capable of self-government and he has come to believe in our government and has faith that it will do what is right by them. He also thinks that Aguinaldo will soon come in, in order a cessation of hostilities and direct the surrender of arms.

D. CLEM DEAYER spoke of his profusion populist friends in convention at Sioux Falls as follows: "Some of our misguided friends are meeting in another part of the country today. Poor fellows, I pity them. They are rainbow chasers and they will not realize their predicament until the day of grace is past. Let us not hate them, but rather let us look upon them with mercy, believing as we do that many honest men are among them who ought to know better, but who have been misled by the bright and dazzling colors of the giant rainbow. They hope to secure reform through the democratic party, the party of stagnation, a negative party, a party that opposes whatever is, whether it be good, bad or indifferent. But as time rolls on they will see the folly of rainbow chasing, and will return to the fold wiser and better men."

SENATOR BUTLER defeated Mr. Eljstien in the contest for the national populist committee. The party headquarters will be at Washington.

THE ELKS gave C. H. Dietrich a reception in Hastings Saturday evening. It was a swell affair, many prominent men of the state being present.

JIM JEFFRIES defeated Corbett in twenty-three rounds—if you are particularly interested in them. It is not quite certain, but the impression is that the deed was accomplished by a "right hand swing" landing on the jaw.

THE students of the High school began work this morning in their new quarters. Teachers and pupils alike are delighted with their more pleasant surroundings. They are to be congratulated on having such a fine school home.

THE Beatrice Express says that the democrats kick because this government has acquired interests in foreign territory, and then do some more kicking because it does not get itself involved in the South African war. It is difficult to find out what they want.

THE republican state headquarters will be located in Omaha. The vote stood 154 to 144. Lincoln would probably have won had the candidates not favored Omaha. It is quite likely that the committee has acted wisely in the matter. The republicans will put up a big fight in the state this year.

IN the contest between the Beatrice and Lincoln high school debating societies, Beatrice defeated Lincoln on every point. The question was, "Resolved, That the Nicaragua canal should be constructed and operated by the United States and should be neutral at all times." Lincoln took the affirmative.

"THE First Battle," by W. J. Bryan, will be very interesting reading this fall. To read his prophecies as to the amount of money in circulation, the rate of interest, prices of wheat, corn and other farm products and the general depression that would follow the election of William McKinley will be very amusing.

INFORMATION AND OPINION.

How about "taxation without representation" of the hundreds of thousands of disfranchised American citizens in southern democratic states? The democratic cry of taxation without representation is the "stop thief" cry, and it fools no one who understands the political methods of the southern Bourbons.—The True Populist.

Matt Gering, with his raven locks, attended the populist convention, and was the acme of sociability. He was after the endorsement for his candidacy for congress. There were men here that day who say they would never vote for a man who wore hair like Mat's. They consider it shows a weakness or inclination to crankism. Better buy a lawn mower, Mr. Gering, and set the hired man to work. The convention failed to instruct for Matthew.—Weeping Water Republican.

Robert B. Windham, one of the electors placed in nomination by the recent republican state convention, was in the city yesterday on "purely personal business." It was noticed, however, that he had trimmed his sideburns a few inches shorter, exposing the coquettish smile that has been chasing itself around beneath the flowing growth ever since its nomination.—Omaha News.

The John Brown association is raising funds to preserve the old John Brown homestead in Torrington, Conn. Mr. Kilbourn, the treasurer, says the matter is progressing favorably and that the association hopes to be able to purchase the property before the centennial celebration on May 9. The mere purchase of the old house is a small part of what is required, as the house must be improved and the grounds beautified. The celebration of the centennial will be under the auspices of the John Brown club and the Young Men's Christian association of Torrington.

The Canadian government, finding no firm in its own territory that could do the work cheaply and quickly, ordered a lot of official maps of Alaska from a Chicago firm, but when it found that the boundary line was shown according to the American contentions, of course there was a row. After 100,000 copies of this map had been printed, another 100,000, showing the boundary as claimed by both countries, were struck off, but as yet even these have not been accepted.

"Way back in 1869, long before Representative Gilbert of Tennessee ever thought of aspiring to congress, he wrote a poem entitled "The Blue-Eyed Lassie." He is now seeking a second term, but someone has unearthed this long-forgotten poem. The verses are atrociously youthful and there is some danger that Mr. Gilbert may, as a consequence, be laughed out of court.

House cleaning is bad enough; but it is much worse when a woman undertakes to do some kyeing. There are times and seasons when the lady of the house rakes up a lot of old rage from obscure corners of the mansion and announces that they would be quite useful if they were colored. She buys a lot of dyes in paper packages, and goes to work and the execution she does if something awful. If there is anything that is particularly disreputable, it is an old rag that has been dyed at home; it always looks sickly and streaked and tough. And the woman has been dyeing. She gets the coloring all over her, and it is not unusual for a husband to arrive at home for dinner to find his wife with a pea-green face, and one hand red and the other blue. You can't wash the coloring off the skin, but it won't stay on the rags for any time. It is perverse that way. If the children happen to be home on the day of dyeing, they also become chromatic.—Wait, Mason.

Senator Clark of Montana will be able to retire to a New York mansion costing $5,000,000 or so, when he is turned out of the senate. This building is now going up at Fifth avenue and Seventy-seventh street, and to give it a more adequate site Clark has recently bought for $200,000 an adjoining lot and house, the latter nearly new, which he will tear down.

After W. J. Bryan made his usual talk at Gallup, N. M., recently, the mayor of the town presented him with a package containing a large Navajo blanket. Pinned to the corner of the gift was a note which read as follows: "My Dear Mr. Bryan: Under the republican administration the wool in this blanket sells for 22 cents a pound. Under the democratic administration it sold for 6 cents. Please tell that to your constituents."

The honor fell to Cass county to be favored with one of the presidential electors. Hon. R. B. Wiedman was selected and the honor could not be bestowed upon a better man. Butler of this city was an elector at the time Harrison was elected president.—Weeping Water Republican.

An Epidemic of Whooping Cough. Last winter during an epidemic of whooping cough my children contracted the disease having severe coughing spells. We had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy very successfully for croup and naturally turned to it at that time and found it relieved the cough and effected a complete cure.—John E. Clifford, proprietor Norwood House, Norwood, N. Y. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

W. W. Mayhew, Marton, Wis., says, "I consider One Minute Cough Cure most wonderful medicine, quick and safe." It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. It cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, grippe, whooping-cough, pneumonia and all throat and lung diseases. Its early use prevents consumption. Children always like it and mothers endorse it. F. A Woman's Awful Pert. "There is only one way to save your life and that is through an operation," were the startling words heard by Mrs. J. B. Hunt of Lime Ridge, Wis., from her doctor after he had vainly tried to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. Gallstones had formed and she constantly grew worse. Then she began to use Electric Bitters which wholly cured her. It's a wonderful Stomach, Liver and Kidney remedy. Cures dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite. Try it. Only 50c; guaranteed. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co., druggists.

Games, social conversation, etc., were indulged in and a general good time was had. Those present were: Messrs. Gutfeld Dixon, Elmer and Ivan Taylor, James Hunter, Charles Matous, James T. Walker, L. L. Patton; Misses Ella Hunter, Fern Striblin, Louise Renner, Edna and Maggie Warren, Lucy Vereheul, George Matous; Messrs. A. Mesdames R. D. Binn, J. H. Danson, Fred Danson, I. E. Thompson, A. F. Sheppard, Martin Houk and Mesdames James Higley, J. R. Hunter, Addie Osborn.

Tortured a Witness. Intense suffering was endured by witness T. L. Martin, of Dixie, Ky., before he gave this evidence: "I coughed every night until my throat was nearly raw; then I tried Dr. King's New Discovery, which gave instant relief. I have used it in my family for nearly four years and recommend it as the greatest remedy for coughs, colds and throat, chest and lung troubles. It will stop the worst cough, and not only prevents, but absolute cures consumption. Price, 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at F. G. Fricke & Co's drug store.

SCHOOL NOTES.

The Board took up the question of census enumerator and the vote resulted in the selection of C. W. Sherman, who will accordingly perform that duty during the month of June.

The teachers were given until the 20th of the month to file written acceptances with the superintendent. The board then adjourned until the next regular meeting, June 4th.

Miss Catharine Woods has been engaged by the board of education to take charge of the science department of the high school during the next term—A. L. Tidd, the present teacher, not having applied for the place.

Harry Dickenson was re-elected janitor of the Columbian building by a unanimous vote, and in view of his faithful and efficient services, on motion of Mr. Dovey, his salary during the summer months was raised $5.00 per month.

The Board of Education met in adjourned session at the new high school building last evening and inspected the building, especially with reference to the lighting system. The new members were present, and when President Windham called the meeting to order the only absentee was Mr. Fricke, who started for Germany Thursday evening.

Supt. McHugh made a brief statement of the financial condition after which the board proceeded to the selection of teachers. Twenty-two of the present teaching force applied for re-election leaving four positions not filled. These four places were those of Miss Wright, Miss Blanche Kennedy, Miss Stoutenborough and Miss Richardson. In view of the excellent work of Miss Kincaid, she was promoted to Miss Richardson's room in the 8th grade. Upon recommendation of the Superintendent, Miss Marshall was transferred to Miss Blanche Kennedy's room in the Columbian building from Mercersville. After inquiring as to the merits of the teachers at present in the schools those applying for re-election were unanimously re-elected, the superintendent being instructed to assign them as in his judgment was for the best interests of the schools. In discussing the question of filling vacancies, the superintendent stated that it was his belief that all things being equal, that the home teachers should have the preference at all times, but that the interests of the children demanded that if upon looking over the applications there were no home applicants fitted for certain vacancies, that the Board ought not force in a home teacher to the detriment of the schools. This seemed to be the unanimous sentiment of the Board. Supt. McHugh was then called upon for his opinion of the various applicants, and after the Board had discussed the situation thoroughly, the following teachers were unanimously elected: Miss Mary Tritley for Mercersville, Miss Rose Winterstein for the 1st ward, Miss Elizabeth Beach for Miss Stoutenborough's room, and Miss Fern Miller for Miss Kincaid's room. Miss Capitola Back, Miss Verna Cole, and Miss Loretta Clark were elected as substitutes.

POLICEMEN FIRE LEAD INTO A MOB

But Hit No One, It Seems—One Rioter Reported Shot by a Police Sergeant—Some Cars Running.

St. Louis, May 12.—At 4:45 p. m. yesterday a report was received that a man had been shot at Shuandaoh and Grand avenues by Police Sergeant Conolly, who was escorting one of the transit company's cars. The wires were reported cut on the Bellefontaine and the California avenue lines. Trouble was reported from several of the lines of the transit company at 4:30 p. m., and the police were rushed to several of the points where they seemed to be needed most. The most serious reports came from Gravois and California avenues, where a crowd of 300 armed with stones and clubs waited for the cars to come. A crowd stoned a car at Park and Mississippi avenues and the police, after firing over the heads of the crowd shot into it. No one was hit so far as known.

Company Running Several Lines. In addition to all branches of the Suburban, cars were yesterday afternoon running on the following branches of the Transit company's system: Lindell, main line, out Delmar avenue and to Forest park; Page and Spalding branches of the Lindel division; the Park avenue line; the Bellefontaine line; the California avenue line. Cars on the Transit company's lines were not to be run last evening after 7 o'clock. When two cars were taken out of the station at Geyer and Jefferson avenues for Carondelet at 2 p. m., 300 strikers and their friends made an attempt to pull the motormen off. The police charged the crowd and made several arrests, after which the cars proceeded unmolested. A statement was issued by the transit company yesterday afternoon offering to reimburse any man who would return to work.

BARBER'S PRICES IN DAWSON. "Fixin'" Brought the Cost of Haircut and Shave Up to $12.50. A Chechawko lodged a complaint against a Dawson barber, complaining that he had been overcharged, robbed, as he put it. The barber replied coolly that the man had been overcharged. The man swore that the barber had taken $12.50 worth of dust out of his bag, and the barber acknowledged the dust. "Do you mean to say that you charged this man $12.50 for a shave?" demanded the magistrate. "No," said the barber. "His nibs had fixin's. Here is my bill," he added, passing a scrap of brown paper over to the court. This, according to the court's testimony, was what was written: Hair cut, $1; hair singed, $1; egg shampoo, $1.50; hair tonic, 50 cents; bay rum, 50 cents; shave, 50 cents; wild hair removed from nose, $2.50; mustache dyed, $5; total, $12.50. The man, being cross-examined, said all these operations had been performed, but he supposed they all went with the shave. "No," interrupted the barber, "fixin's is extra," and he produced other barbers who testified to the correctness of the bill. The barber was discharged, and the Chechawko cautioned to ask the price of fixin's in the future, which he probably did.
