

ITS TRUTH IS DOUBTED.

Story of a Big Find of the Counterfeit Sort.

WASHINGTON IS NOT YET NOTIFIED

And Thinks It Would Be if the Story Were True—Retrospective Law Is Badly Needed.

Washington, May 19.—The officials at the postoffice department generally discredit the report that counterfeit Cuban stamps to the value of $2,000,000 were manufactured at Muncie, Ind. Chief Inspector Cochran said yesterday that he had received no information in regard to such a discovery, and was certain that he would have at once been placed in possession of the facts if such developments had come to light. According to a statement prepared at the department the total value of stamps, stamped envelopes and postal cards supplied freely was slightly less than $1,000,000. The last shipment of stamped paper sent to Havana, so far as the department is aware, was made Aug. 19, 1930.

Dealing with the Neely Case

In accordance with the request of Attorney General Clegg the judiciary committee of the house yesterday considered means of dealing with the Neely case and like offenses arising in Cuba. It was finally determined that the questions involved were of such a far-reaching character touching our authority in Cuba that it would be desirable to secure cooperation with the senate and the United States government, and a subcommittee was appointed consisting of Ray, Jenkins of Wisconsin, Littlefield, DeArmond and Clayton of Alabama to confer with the other branches and report on the whole subject next Monday.

Will It Be Ex Post Facto?

With regard to the contention that the enactment of a law to extradite Neely would be retrospective, Judge Lay said: "As I understand the law it is merely a question of procedure. Congress has the power to pass a law for the extradition of persons accused of crime in Cuba since Spain surrendered sovereignty and the United States assumed the government of the island. Such a law would not violate the theory of ex post facto laws. It would not make a crime of anything not an offense before the passage of the law. It relates simply to procedure."

Terry Agrees with Ray.

Terry of Arkansas, the ranking minority member of the judiciary committee, said the object of the bill was to make it retrospective. "I think it can be made retrospective," said he. "A violator of the law has no vested rights as to the manner in which he shall be caught. A law to extradite a person, in my opinion, would not come under the inhibition against ex post facto laws."

Rathbone Is Still at Work.

The postmaster general yesterday received confirmation of the report that the inspectors at Havana have recovered $1,500,000 from Auditor Reeves. Director Rathbone continues to act in conjunction with General Wood in investigating postal affairs and the United States communication with the department here. The postmaster general declines to discuss the subject of Director Rathbone's future.

RIGHTS OF THE CANINE

Established as to the Hawkeye State by the Supreme Court.

Sioux City, Ia., May 19.—In a case originating in Sioux county, first decided by Judge Wakefield, of the district court, the supreme court of Iowa has held that dogs of this state cannot lawfully bite unless they do it at a time when the person bitten is engaged in violating the law. Canines have no right, according to the decision, to brood over wrongs and bite in revenge for accumulated injuries done them.

The lower court held that sticks and stones thrown by a child was conduct contributing to injury and that damages for suffering which might ensue must be paid by the owner of the dog. This decision is reversed and a dog's first bite condemns it as a habitually dog.

Harris, charged with the murder of John Maupin on Aug. 16, 1909, the jury rendered a verdict in Burnett's case of guilty of manslaughter and fixed the punishment at ten years in the penitentiary. No decision was rendered on Harris and the jury was discharged.

Beloit Collegians Rejoice.

Beloit, Wis., May 19.—The college end of the town was wild with enthusiasm Thursday night over the victory over Notre Dame. The college bells sounded and the students spent hours in celebrating. Nothing has brought more joy to the Beloit students in years than this victory.

Palmyra, Wis., May 19.—Gus Orel, an old-time Milwaukeean and late of Waukesha, who came here to work the farm recently bought of M. M. Sherman, also of Waukesha, was arrested yesterday by Marshal Roach, charged with attempting to kill George Farnam, a restaurant keeper of this place.

LANG HOLDS THE FORT.

Sentinels With Muskets Are Guarding the Doors of the Buildings.

The trouble at the Beatrice institute between the present superintendent, Dr. Lang, and Governor Poynter is far from being settled. Many teachers have already been discharged by the doctor and the following dispatch in today's state papers would indicate that the present occupant intends to hold the fort by main force, if necessary:

"There have been stirring times at the state institution here and if anything was lacking to disclose to the public the real character of the person who presumes to act as superintendent of the state's property and wards, events out there of the past few days will be considered sufficient. Particulars regarding the state of affairs existing there are slowly leaking out, despite the precautions which are taken by Dr. Lang to suppress everything and to prevent any of the employees communicating with friends in the city, except those who have been enlisted in the war in his behalf. During the time when it was thought by Dr. Lang that an attempt might be made to secure possession of the buildings by force, the doors were not only padlocked, but a sentinel paraded the halls carrying a musket, ready to challenge any stranger who might present himself. Not only this but at the main entrances guards were stationed and plenty of arms and ammunition kept hanging by the doors ready for instant use. Those employees who had the hardihood to testify against Dr. Lang at the hearing are being discharged as rapidly as possible and upon any pretext possible."

Boy Has a Narrow Escape.

Clarence, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Beal, had a lively experience with their driving horse Sunday morning, and it is almost a miracle that the boy came out alive. Some of the folks wished to take a drive and Clarence went down to the barn to hitch up the horse. As usual, after hitching up, the boy started to drive out the alley—intending to reach the front of the house—when a neighbor's little girl suddenly jumped from behind the corner of the barn and frightened the animal. The horse sprang forward, and, in doing so, the vehicle struck a pole—throwing the driver out and badly demolishing the buggy.

Fortunately, the boy escaped with only a slightly bruised leg, but the vehicle was damaged to the extent of about $10.

Jumped for Their Lives.

Bessie Rummell-Allen, formerly a teacher in the Plattsmouth schools, had a narrow escape from death in Chicago Thursday night. She and her husband were staying on the Third floor of the Helena hotel in that city, and during a fire which destroyed that structure Thursday night they were compelled to jump to the ground. Both were seriously injured, and for a time it was thought Mrs. Allen could not recover. During her stay in this city the young woman made her home with the Westcotts. The letter which conveyed the news of the fire did not state the extent of the injuries which Mr. and Mrs. Allen sustained.

Students Piled in a Heap.

The following dispatch from Weeping Water appeared in this morning's State Journal:

"What might have proved a serious accident happened yesterday at the high school building. Arrangements had been made to have the pictures of the scholars taken and for that purpose a tier of seats had been arranged near the school house. About one hundred had taken their places on the seats when one of the braces sunk into the soft earth and the whole thing gave way and came down with a crash, piling scholars and seats in a confused mass on the ground. Miss Etta Fowler, one of the graduates, had one ankle badly sprained, but no bones were broken, and with this exception no one was much hurt."

Grandma Eaton Passes Away.

From Monday's Daily.

At 12:40 this afternoon Mrs. Malinda T. Eaton passed away at her home in the Second ward. Her death was caused by heart failure, brought on by an attack of acute bronchitis.

Deceased was seventy-three years of age and leaves three children to mourn her loss—Frank, of Colorado City, Colo.; Fred, of Spokane, Wash., and Miss Alice, of this city. She was born in Rochester, N. Y., in 1827, and removed to this city from Ohio in 1895, where she has since resided. Her husband, Emerson H. Eaton, died in this city some nineteen years ago.

Frank Eaton arrived from Colorado yesterday morning, and his brother, Fred, is expected to reach here in time for the funeral, which will probably be held Wednesday afternoon.

NO INCREASE OF EXPENSE

Benefits to be Derived From Consolidation of School Districts.

I quote from the school laws of Nebraska, subdivision 5, section 16: That a district board of any school district in this state, when authorized by a two-thirds vote of those present at any annual or special meeting, is hereby empowered to make provision for the transportation of pupils residing within said district to any other school * * * whenever the distance from such school shall render it impracticable for said pupils to attend without transportation.

Section 4c. That * * * district board, * * * when authorized by a two-thirds vote of those present at any annual or special meeting, is hereby empowered to contract with the board of any neighboring district for the instruction of pupils residing in the first named district in schools maintained by the neighboring district, and to make provision for the transportation of said pupils to the above named school of the neighboring district, under the conditions named in the preceding section.

The plan of consolidation of schools contemplates the uniting of two or more school districts to be taught by two or more teachers as may be needed. In a number of instances two or more districts lying adjacent to a village could be united with the village, the children to be hauled in wagons to the village at public expense.

As I plan and figure the arrangement, no increase of expense will occur to the country schools, and very little, if any, increase to the village. The country school house could be closed this year, the board pay the village school for instruction and hire a team to do the transporting. This will enable the village to employ one or more additional teachers, thus greatly improving the instruction in town and at the same time give the country children the advantages of a graded school. The plan can be tried for this coming year, and if it does not prove satisfactory next year we can easily return to the old way and no additional expense or harm will have been incurred.

In many neighborhoods and villages parents are annually sending children to schools in other towns at a cost of from $100 to $150 per year for each student. A good school at home would keep this money at home, to say nothing about the number of young people who could get a better education, though too poor to go away. In addition, who can measure the material value of such a school to the town and community.

Last week I gave a report on Iowa, and this week two more are given in order to show what is now being done under conditions as they exist in Cass county.

From Forest City, Winnebago county: Number of children conveyed to school, fifteen. Average distance children are conveyed, four miles.

Number of terms used, one. Cost of team and driver per month, $20. Number of schools closed by reason of transportation, one.

Number of months children have been conveyed, eighteen. Estimated amount saved per month, $10. Is the plan generally satisfactory? It is.

Remarks—By the adoption of this plan the children have the advantages of being in larger classes, better classified, better disciplined and less exposed to bad weather.

Principal W. C. Lyons of Baldwin, Jackson county, submits the following report:

Number of children conveyed, twelve. Average distance children are conveyed, one and one-half miles.

Number of terms used, one. Cost of team and driver per month, $19. Number of schools closed by reason of transportation, one.

Length of time children have been conveyed, nine months. Estimated amount saved per month, $11. Is the plan generally satisfactory? It is.

Remarks—The pupils meet the bus at the old school house in the country, which is one and one-half miles from the Baldwin school building, and are left at the old school house by the bus in the evening. The bus has a regular time to be at the old school, and leaves there as regularly as any passenger train. If any pupil is not there on time he is left behind, just as he would be at a railway station, and will have to walk to school. Only one has ever missed the bus, and he did not miss it a second time. As a result of this arrangement the transported pupils are never late, and the attendance is very regular. The average daily attendance in the country before consolidation was about six, and the average from that district since consolidation has been eleven.

SORES and ULCERS

That old sore or ulcer, which has been a source of pain, worry and anxiety to you for five or ten years—maybe longer—doesn't heal because you are not using the proper treatment, but are trying to cure it with salves and washes. While these are soothing and relieve pain to some extent, no real, permanent good can come from their use, because the disease is in the blood and far beyond the reach of external applications.

A sore heals promptly when the blood is in good condition, but never if it is diseased. The tendency of the old sores and ulcers is to grow worse, spreading and eating deeper into the flesh. They are a constant drain upon the system, gradually but surely ruin the health and sap the very life. A person's capacity for work or pleasure is soon lost in the great desire and search for something to cure. S. S. S. makes a rapid and permanent cure of old sores and ulcers, and is the only medicine that does, because no other can reach deep-seated blood troubles. Ordinary Sarsaparilla and potash mixtures are too weak and watery to overcome a deadly poison that has taken possession of the blood. Do not waste valuable time experimenting with them.

A Gunshot Wound.
"Some years ago I was shot in the left leg, receiving what I considered only a slight wound. It developed into a running sore and gave me a great deal of pain. I was treated by many doctors, and took a number of blood remedies, but none did me any good. I had heard S. S. S. highly recommended, and concluded to give it a trial. The result was truly gratifying. S. S. S. seemed to get right at the trouble, and forced the poison out of my blood; soon afterwards the sore healed up and was gone, and well. I now have perfect use of the leg, which was swollen and very stiff for a long time. J. H. McBRAYER, Lawrenceburg, Ky."

S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known; is made of roots and herbs of wonderful purifying properties, which no poison can resist. S. S. S. quickly and effectually cleans the blood of all morbid, unhealthy humors, and the old, troublesome sores heal. At the same time the general health is invigorated and built up. When a little scratch or hurt fails to heal readily, you may be sure your blood is bad. S. S. S. will soon put it in order and keep it so.

Our Medical Department is in charge of experienced physicians, who have made blood diseases a life study. If you will write them about your case, they will gladly furnish all information or advice wanted, without any charge whatever. Address SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

About fifty Sabbath school workers met at the M. E. church yesterday afternoon and discussed the subjects: "On-timeness" and "Substitute Teachers." These subjects are always interesting ones. The exchange of ideas will be helpful to teachers and officers.

Tortured a Witness.
Intense suffering was endured by witness T. L. Martin, of Dixie, Ky., before he gave this evidence: "I coughed every night until my throat was nearly raw; then I tried Dr. King's New Discovery, which gave instant relief. It will stop the worst cough, and not only prevents, but absolutely cures consumption. Price, 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at F. G. Fricke & Co's drug store.

Carl, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hempel, was kicked in the face yesterday afternoon by a neighbor's horse. The blow was not vicious but it succeeded in knocking out three teeth, discoloring his cheek and producing a badly swollen mouth. The plucky little fellow didn't want to own at first that a mere horse had got the best of him and was inclined to lay the disaster at the door of another young man about his size. But the other young man is hardly built heavy enough to inflict such heavy damage.—Havelock Times.

It is said that the match trust is adding enormous sums to its profits each year by a very simple expedient. The wood of which the matches are made is cut across the grain or with the grain at such an angle that it will split almost lengthwise on the slightest provocation.

The ancients believed that rheumatism was the work of a demon within a man. Any one who has had an attack of sciatic or inflammatory rheumatism will agree that the infliction is demonic enough to warrant the belief. It has never been claimed that Chamberlain's Pain Balm would cast out demons, but it will cure rheumatism and hundreds bear testimony to the truth of this statement. One application relieves the pain, and its worth many times its cost. For sale by all druggists.

L. G. Todd returned from Plattsmouth Wednesday evening and was such a state of nervous prostration that he had to be assisted from the depot to Clark's store, where medical attention was required. He is slowly recovering from a long illness, but it is hoped that he will soon overcome this relapse. He was able to be taken home Wednesday night.—Union Ledger.

I consider it not only a pleasure but duty I owe to my neighbors to tell about the wonderful cure effected in my case by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I was taken very badly with flux and procured a bottle of this remedy. A few doses of it effected a permanent cure. I take pleasure in recommending it to others suffering from that dreadful disease.—J. W. Lynch, Dorr, W. Va. This remedy is sold by all druggists.

It is said in addition that the Pennsylvania has secured practical control, by recent heavy purchases of stock, similar to the plan followed in gaining control of the Baltimore & Ohio and the Chesapeake & Ohio.

"From a reliable source comes the statement that President Perkins will meet President Cassatt at the Pennsylvania railroad office tomorrow at noon. President Perkins is now on his way east. The statement as to the meeting could not be confirmed.

Marriage of Ernest Ackerman.

The following in regard to the marriage of Ernest Ackerman, which appeared in the Havelock Times, will be of interest to his Plattsmouth friends:

"A happy event occurred Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Pattison, the occasion being the marriage of Mrs. Pattison's daughter, Miss Myrtle Gallagher, to Ernest B. Ackerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Ackerman, Rav. Barch performing the ceremony. About twenty invited guests were present and the wedding gifts were numerous and valuable. A wedding feast was served at Mr. Pattison's restaurant. The floral decorations were superb and included a hundred dollar display of palms. Mr. and Mrs. Ackerman left the following day for Chicago, and will be gone on their wedding tour about a fortnight."
