THE true populists will hold their state convention at Grand Island July

W. J. BRYAN has decided to sit on his front porch during the proceedings at the Kansas City convention.

JOHN G. WOOLEY of Illinois and Henry B. Metcalf of Rhode Island have been nominated by the prohibitionists for president and vice president of the United States.

ON JULY 12 President McKinley will be officially notified of his re-nomination for president of the United States. He and Mrs. McKinley have gone to their home in Canton, and will there remain until the committee shall have given the official informa-

GEORGE FRED WILLIAMS of Massachusetts says to make any concessions on the money question today would be an admission that Grover Cleveland was right and the greatest man in the democratic party. There is no question but that Mr. Cleveland is a much more brainy man than the gentleman from Massachusetts.

HON. E. M. POLLARD of Nehawka was honored by being elected president of the Nebraska Republican League at their convention in Lincoln Thursday. The position was entirely unsolicited on his part and Mr. Pollard and Cass county may feel justly proud in his being placed at the head of the republican clubs of the state.

awake. They have decided to organize a mounted Rough Rider club. After they get their uniforms they will select the finest horses in that section and then show the boys in other towns how to ride and shout for McKinley and Roosevelt. We shall hope to see them ride into Plattsmouth some evening.

THE prohibitionists met in county convention at Weeping Water last Saturday and nominated F. C. Taylor will take an active part in the coming of Weeping Water for state senator campaign. He is said to be in perfect and B. F. Judkins of Eagle for the house. The balance of the ticket will campaign, and is impressed with the either be left blank or filled by the excellent condition of the country as central committee, of which Rev. D. S.
