Negroes on Temperance.

Sweeping indorsement of prohibition of the liquor traffic was a prominent and significant feature of the eighteenth annual negro conference at Tuskegee, Ala., last week. Speakers before the conference denounced strongly the attempts made in some prohibition communities to evade the law, and pointed out the benefits that would come to the black population of the South through the abolition of liquor selling. The most striking speech on the question was made by Booker T. Washington, principal of the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute, who said:

"Not since the emancipation proclamation has any legislation been passed in this country so beneficial to the negro as the prohibition law now in force in this state and so many other southern states. There is no class of people going to be so benefited by the closing of the saloons as the people of our race. For that reason, if for no other, just because we are going to get the greatest benefit from that law which closes the saloons, we should do our part in seeing that the law is enforced. Every one of you can help enforce that law. You can do it in the first place by refusing to patronize 'blind tigers.' You can do it in the second place by persuading your friends and neighbors not to patronize them. If you know of whisky being sold illegally in any part of the South report it to the sheriff or to the proper county official, whoever he is. We should all be in favor of closing these barrooms and 'blind tigers,' and we should be in favor of keeping them closed."

CONTEST IS CLOSE

The Contestants Are Finding It An Easy Matter to Secure Votes—If Nobody Represents Your Locality, Why Dont You?

The contestants who are working in the NEWS-HERALD and Nebraska Farmer grand automobile-piano subscription rally are meeting with great success wherever they go. They find it an easy matter to secure votes by inducing the people to subscribe for this paper, or if they are already subscribers to pay for another year. They are also meeting with success in securing new subscriptions for this paper and the Nebraska Farmer on the clubbing proposition. The price of the NEWS-HERALD is the same as before the contest started, $1.50 per year. The subscription price of the Nebraska Farmer is $1 per year but by paying 50 cents extra for a year's subscription to the NEWS-HERALD it will include a year to the Nebraska Farmer and give the contestant 800 extra votes.
 It only takes a little work on the part of contestants to secure votes and those so doing will be well rewarded. Is your locality represented in this race? If not why don't you get in? It is not too late yet as those who are working are only getting well started. There is an opportunity for everyone, and we should have a good lively representative in each locality of the county. There is someone in the office almost every day who pays subscription and wishes to cast their votes for someone in their locality, but if there is no one in the race from there they have to cast them for someone else or take them away to cast at some future date providing anyone gets in the race that they wish to vote for.

The declaration of the conference on this subject was in the following language:
 "As representatives of 700,000 negro farmers of Alabama and of the South, we urge our people to assist in the enforcement of the law against the liquor traffic, wherever they exist. As a people, we know the evils of the liquor business, and we should not fall into the habit, because the laws are made by some one else, of shirking our responsibility in seeing that they are enforced."

 The standing of the contestants for this week is as follows:

A Veteran Correspondent.

Few among the thousands who enjoy the youthful vim and enthusiasm of Walter Wellman's special dispatches in The Chicago Record-Herald are aware that with the present year Mr. Wellman will round out a quarter of a century as a Washington correspondent. The Record-Herald always has been noted for the brilliance of its special correspondents, but Mr. Wellman's career reaches far back of the consolidation which gave the paper its present name.
 Walter Wellman was born in Mentor, Ohio, in 1858. At the age of 14 he began his newspaper experience by founding a weekly paper in Sutton, Neb. In the next dozen years he was laying the foundations for the success of later years. In 1884, when he was still a young man of 26, he was intrusted with the responsible post of Washington correspondent of the Chicago Herald, a position which, through all his polar quests and various changes in the paper itself, he has held with undiminished honor to the present day. In that quarter of a century he has won a national reputation as a magnetic and forceful writer, a shrewd political prophet, a genius at news-getting and a daring explorer.
 In 1892 Mr. Wellman visited the West Indies for his paper and located the spot where Columbus landed, marking it with a stone monument. In 1894 he made his first dash for the pole, reaching the latitude of 81 degrees northeast of Spitzbergen. In 1898 he tried it again, penetrating as far as Franz Josef Land and mapping many islands that had never before been explored. Two years ago he made a daring attempt to cross the arctic ice fields in an airship. Mr. Wellman has not yet reached the pole, and perhaps he never will, but he has given abundant proof of his courage and perseverance. His chief laurels, however, have been won by his years of splendid work as a Washington correspondent.

Washington Day Program.
 The ladies of the Presbyterian church gave a very enjoyable Washington program at the elegant home of Judge and Mrs. Harvey D. Travis. Rev. J. H. Salisbury represented George Washington and Mrs. J. N. Wise represented Martha. After the program was concluded, the guests were ushered into the dining room where a delicious luncheon was spread. As they entered each guest was presented a little red hatchet as a souvenir of the event. All attest a most enjoyable time.

Wise talks by the office boy

 Some one sent the boss a bunch of books entitled, "Business Nuggets," "The Road to Success," "The Man in Front" and such like, I think he's been looking them over, for when I came to work this morning he handed me this: Everything comes to those that wait, and the lazy boy waits to greet it; but success comes on with a rapid gait, to the man that goes to meet it." I had to laugh, because he's the boss; but to tell you the honest truth, a boy on this job doesn't get any chance to apply these wise hunches. Actually it's no credit for a fellow to be industrious here, because he can't be anything else. If he lets up for an hour he wouldn't get his orders out and then there would be people coming in and saying lots of fierce things, but nothing about "business success" or the "lazy boy waits to greet it."
 Have you tried Curtis Brothers Janis. Retains all the fine natural flavor. Great. Picnic size, 25c. Don't forget to order a sack of Goods Best Flour with your next order.
