MURDOCK DEPARTMENT

By H. R. NEITZEL.

Bank Building. Murdock, Neb. Phone No. 99.

The trimmer for the Martin & Tool millinery department arrived Monday evening.

E. N. Green, Wm. M. Schewe and the Livery barn will be added to the Murdock exchange this week.

David Thingam and his sister Zelma left for a short visit with the family of Mannie Thingam near Sutton, Neb.

Fred W. Backemeyer took up a 25 pound red pig about February 1st. The owner can reclaim property by paying for this notice and cost of keep.

Mrs. Augusta Neitzel, mother of Louis and H. R. Neitzel of this place, died last week at her home in South, Bend, Indiana, from paralysis. Further particulars will be given next issue. H. R. Neitzel left for her bedside immediately upon advice of her serious condition.

Mrs. E. T. Tool received a dispatch Tuesday informing her of the death of her first father-in-law back in Storm Lake, Iowa. The old gentleman celebrated his 88th birthday on the 28th of February and died on the 2nd of March, cause of death being due to old age. Mrs. E. T. Tool and her two daughters left for Storm Lake to attend the funeral.

The postponed stock-holders meeting of the Murdock Telephone Company was held March 1st, when the following Directors were elected to serve the ensuing year, H. V. McDonald, H. A. Tool, Herman Kupke, J. L. Goehry and H. R. Neitzel. The report rendered by the Treasurer showed the business to be prosperous and besides having added materially to the plant a ten per cent dividend was declared on the stock, which is payable at the Bank of Murdock.

A Preacher Brakeman

Rev. F. J. Warren, the "preacher brakeman," who is conducting a ten days' revival campaign at the Salvation Army hall, 1430 O street, will give a lecture on Gen. Lew Wallace's "Ben Hur, a Tale of the Christ," tonight in the Army hall. The lecture will be illustrated by sixty slides; there will be several illustrated songs, moving pictures, good singing, and a free-will offering at the door.—Lincoln Journal.

Fred was born and grew to manhood in this city.

Party for Miss Sanders

At the home of Miss Freda Wolfarth, Thursday evening, the Misses Lillie and Minnie Ploeger and Freda Wolfarth gave a most delightful party in honor of their friend Miss Mary Sanders, of Cedar Creek. An elegant three course luncheon was served.

Among those present were Miss Ethel Jones, Freda and Otto Wolfarth, William and James Andrews, Minnie and Tillie Ploeger, Albert Timms, Anna Deutch, Katy and Louise Hesse, Glen Mullis, George Gobleman, Mary Sanders, Harold Williams, Henry Hesse, Eugene Dawson, and Jesse Ledgway.

New Store in Hard Luck

The opening of the new store of Falter & Thierolf, which was extensively advertised to take place Saturday, has been postponed, much to the regret of the management. To a NEWS-HERALD reporter Mr. Falter stated that on January 2 an order was placed for the fixtures, same to be delivered in Plattsmouth on February 15. However, owing to the crowded conditions of the furniture trade the goods were not shipped until February 23 at Grand Rapids, Mich., and have not yet been received, the result of course being that the "uncovering" had to be postponed.

Delightful Surprise

Friday evening a number of his friends gave Mr. Ray Smith a surprise party, the occasion being his 21st birthday. It was a most enjoyable occasion. Among those invited were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith of Illinois, Mr. and Mrs. Gobelman, Mrs. D. O. Dwyer, Misses Lillian Thompson, Olive Jones, Gretchen and Marie Donnelly, Edna Petersen, Esther Larson, Bernese Newell, Edna Shopp, Stanfield Jones; Messrs. Stapleton of Nehawka, Will Smith of Rock Bluffs, Roy Thompson, Clarence Beal, Earle Hassler, Wayne Dickson, Robert Newell, Carl Smith, John Falter, Will Shopp.

Former Lincoln Resident Dies

Harvey Shotwell, formerly a resident of this county died suddenly of heart failure yesterday morning at his home in Seattle, Wash. Information to this effect was received yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Wallace of this city, his sister-in-law, who immediately started for the northwest. Mr. Shotwell was married two years ago in January to Miss Lottie Pollard of Nehawka, sister of ex-Congressman Pollard and Mrs. Wallace. He was formerly a student in the university and is well remembered by the graduates of twenty years ago. He was connected with the engineering department of the city of Seattle.—Sunday State Journal.

Died From Paralysis

Mrs. Lewis Schutz, died this morning at her home north of the poor farm from the results of a stroke of paralysis last Wednesday.

Pianos for Particular People

When you meet a person who is very particular in musical matters it is safe to conclude that that person owns one of our pianos. The undoubted preeminence of our Pianos accounts for their adoption by the best judges of music everywhere. The action of our Pianos is up to the standard. Strike a note on one of our pianos a number of times and you will get a response for every note you strike. Nine out of ten pianos will simply result in a succession of blurred tones. We do expert tuning and repairing.
