

Brief Local

Happenings

Sam Redmon and John Clarence were visitors in the city today.

Wm. Tritsch came in to line up on the prices of grain today.

Acorn cigars 5 cents each. Smoke an "Acorn" and be happy.

Mrs. Geo. Born drove out into the country today for a visit with the family of Philip Born.

D. Despain and wife came in Wednesday morning from their home at Lincoln to be present at the Downings-Pickens wedding.

Miss Lizzie Heil was a business visitor in the city Wednesday. Miss Heil is a sister of W. H. Heil, owner of the fine pleasant view stock farm near Cedar Creek.

Former Mayor Henry R. Gering was in Plattsmouth today attending to business matters connected with his drug store and the Building & Loan Association.

James Walker was in the city on business today. Mr. Walker resides about one mile south of Murray and is one of the early and prosperous settlers of Cass county.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Richey and son, Livingston, drove into the country for an outing today. They will visit at the home of Claud Everett, a relative living near Union.

Wm. Schutz was in the city today and had a settlement with the Duff Grain Co., to whom he recently delivered about 1400 bushels of corn at 67 1/2 cents per bushel.

W. A. Getty of Lincoln was in the city on business today. Mr. Getty represents the Fowler Pub. Co. of that city, standard reference books being the firm's leading line.

Clarence Staats, local timekeeper for the Bell Telephone Co., informs us that lack of work was responsible for the laying off of several of the company's workmen for a few days.

The box and ice-cream social given by the Ladies' Aid on the lawn at the splendid country home of R. W. Long was well attended. The ladies took in the neat sum of thirty dollars.

Henry Creamer drove into town Wednesday with a large hay rack filled with baled hay. He stated that there were two tons of hay on the wagon and was worth $30. Mr. Creamer lives near Murray.

Friends in the city will be pleased to learn that the condition of Mrs. Alice Towle, who was reported as being very ill at her home in Omaha, is no worse, and the patient is holding up remarkably well. Mrs. Towle is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. A. N. Sullivan.

In county court yesterday the case of the State vs. Dean Kamin was continued to July 15, '09. This case comes from the vicinity of Alvo, and the defendant is accused of taking a sum of money from a carpenter's coat left hanging in the building on which he was at work.

Miss Laura Chaffin arrived in the city Wednesday morning for a visit with relatives in Plattsmouth and Cass county. Miss Chaffin stated her family had been broken up by the death of her mother recently and it was her intention to spend some time here with the family of Chas. Shopp and other relatives.

Bennet Chrisweisser drove out to his farm near Murray yesterday, to inspect the crops and look after the repairing of some chimneys. John Kinser went with him to do the chimney work. Ben says that some fields of corn have been washed badly, and the stand is poor, while some fields are all right. He says the late rains have put the farmers back in their corn planting and that there was a heavy rain in that

JOHN BAUER

Barber Your Lawn

A good, close clip will add greatly to its personal appearance, as well as prevent "dandruff" and "falling out." In other words, your lawn will do better if kept in shape by regular trimming with a good mower. We have them in several styles and prices from $2 25 to $15.

vicinity Wednesday which will cause still further delay.

Geo. Becker returned from Murdock Tuesday.

The latest styles in wall paper to choose from at Gering's.

Geo. Sayles made the lucky guess that won the one dollar prize Tuesday at Gering & Co.'s drug store.

Mrs. Isaac Wiles and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Luke Wiles were in the city to do some shopping today.

C. W. Haney, representative of the Glenwood Monument Works, was a business visitor in the city Wednesday.

Anna Hawkinson came in from Lincoln Wednesday for a visit with the family of Peter Carlson and other friends.

The Nebraska Telephone Co. desires to secure the services of a night operator. Apply in your own handwriting to the manager, H. L. Davis. 18-

Mrs. W. E. Boles of Malvern, Iowa returned to her home in that city Monday, after a few days' visit in Plattsmouth with the family of John Leesley.

Ward Clark, the barber, made the lucky guess that won the one dollar prize at Gering & Co.'s drug store last Saturday. He guessed that 405 customers would trade that day and this proved to be the exact number.

Philip Keil, a young farmer living near Murray was a visitor in the city today. Mr. Keil recently started a damage suit against J. W. Sage for injuries from kicking. The case has been continued and set for trial on July 12.

George Sayles received a card announcing the coming marriage of his cousin, Harland E. Cooley to Miss Edith F. West. The wedding will take place June 30, 1909, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. West at No. 6427 Vernon Ave., Chicago.

Mrs. R. R. Livingstone, mother of Dr. T. P., has received a letter from him stating that he is at present in Milford, Penn., near his old home and birthplace and is having a splendid time. The Dr. intends to leave for Washington, D. C. soon.

Mrs. Kate Smith and son Bennie, and Miss Helen Dales, of Chadron, Nebr., were over Sunday visitors in the city with the family of Wm. Cole. They left on Monday for Chicago where they will visit for a short time before returning to Chadron.

Mrs. E. E. Hilton, Miss Matilda Soernichsen, Mrs. G. F. S. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Long and two daughters, W. H. Venner and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Watters are attending a Christian Science lecture by Bignall Young, C. S. B., of Chicago, at the Orpheum theater in Omaha this evening.

First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Sunday Services, 11 a. m. Subject Is the Universe including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?

Sunday School, 10 a. m.

Testimonial Meeting, Wednesday 8 p. m.

Coates Block, Room No. 227.

Reading Room same address. Open daily except Sunday and Monday, from 1 to 3 p. m., where authorized literature on Christian Science may be read or purchased.

The public is cordially welcomed.

A Fine Mechanic.

Fridolph Nord, a young farmer from the vicinity of Orecopolis, was in Plattsmouth to do some trading Monday. Mr. Nord is a rustler and in addition to his regular farm duties he attends to the weighing and loading of grain at the Duff Grain Co.'s elevator at that station. Mr. Nord is a good mechanic and nothing pleases him more than to conquer a bulky gasoline engine.

Take a Kodak with you on your vacation. For sale at Gering's.

Down with Rheumatism.

Geo. P. Horn came into the city Tuesday for a visit with friends and to do some trading. His grandson George brought in a load of fine oats which were sold to J. A. McDaniel at 55 cents per bushel.

Mr. Horn says his son Henry has been bedfast for fourteen days suffering with rheumatism and the fact that he is a very heavy man, weighing 267 pounds makes it extremely difficult to move him about much. Mr. Horn thinks the long cool spring has made his recovery very slow and that his son expects to get up and around as soon as nice warm weather sets in. The NEWS-HERALD and his large circle of friends hope this will prove to be the case.

Will Return Again.

F. A. Dutton and wife arrived in the city last week and have been straightening up the premises of Mrs. Dutton's parents, G. W. Osborn who will return to this city as soon as the condition of Mr. Osborn, who has been very weak at a Lincoln hospital from the effects of an operation, will permit of his being moved.

Mr. Osborn had been building a house for his son-in-law at University Place but was compelled to retire from action on account of a chronic ailment. Since the operation, Mr. Osborn has been gradually growing stronger and his many friends here sincerely hope he will take up his residence among them in the near future.

Bought New Auto.

Fred Hild arrived in the city in his fine new Maxwell touring car Tuesday. Fred had as members of the party: Mr. and Mrs. Bert Philpot and little daughter, Mrs. Fred Hild and daughter, Geo. Hild and Miss Ethel Dennis, a sister of Mrs. Philpot.

Bert Philpot is the agent for these machines and had but recently sold the car to Fred Hild and he was helping Fred to make his initial trip.

Bert says he has sold three of these machines in Cass County. One to Fred Hild and two to parties living south of Weeping Water. Bert ordered the NEWS-HERALD sent to his address at Nehawka.

State Convention.

The following named delegates are attending the Nebraska grand convention of the P. E. O. in Beatrice this week: Mrs. J. W. Newell, Omaha; Mesdames C. C. Parmele, J. H. Salisbury, and J. B. Martin from Plattsmouth.

To Visit Oklahoma.

Dr. Gilmore of Murray was in the city Monday. The Dr. will soon leave on a vacation most of which will be spent in Oklahoma. He has engaged a physician of Omaha to look after his practice while gone.

KODAK

VACATION

Time is Here

Take a Kodak with you and enhance the pleasures of your trip a hundred fold. We have them in all styles and at all prices and will appreciate an inspection of our line.

GERING & CO.

Second Church of Christ, Scientist.

Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.

Divine service at 11 a. m. Subject Is the Universe including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?

Mid-week meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Church is located on Sixth street, two blocks south of Main street. The public is cordially invited to all services. The reading room in the Coates block is open ever Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock.

New Automobiles.

Dr. E. D. Cummins, Cass County agent for the Ford Motor Co., of Detroit, Mich., received two fine new automobiles from his company this week. One he had bought for himself and the other he had sold to J. W. Crabill.

These are twenty horse power cars, Mr. Crabill's being a light colored runabout while the doctor's is a dark touring car. The machines present a handsome appearance and are noted for speed, durability and hill climbing.

Louisville

Gleanings

Special Correspondence

Geo. Frater was in Omaha Monday. James Alloway was in Omaha Tuesday.

James Stander was in Omaha Wednesday.

Mrs. Henry Ahl was in Omaha Monday.

Little Chester Conn is very sick this week.

Joe Klein of Lincoln, is in town this week.

Fred Wagener was in Omaha this week.

Ote Ward and daughter were in Omaha Thursday.

Emons Richey of Plattsmouth, is in town this week.

O. A. Palmer left Tuesday on a business trip to Chicago.

M. L. Williams returned Wednesday evening from Chicago.

Mrs. W. G. Erhart left Wednesday for Western Nebraska.

Miss Bernice Eller and Mirth Alloway were in Omaha Thursday.

Miss Ida Schoeman Sundayed with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Hoover.

Misses Edna and Clara Ball visited friends in Springfield Wednesday.

M. N. Droke and wife returned Tuesday evening from Louisville, Ky.

Chas. Richey, wife and daughter, Pauline, were in Omaha Wednesday.

Miss Eva Shellhorn is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. L. Williams this week.

L. J. Mayfield and wife were visiting relatives in Weeping Water Tuesday.

Miss Anna Treat of Lincoln, is a guest of Mrs. P. C. Stander this week.

Mrs. Ollis of Ord, wife of State Senator Ollis, and Mrs. Heltner of Nehawka, visited friends in Louisville Tuesday.

Miss Olga Ragoose of Des Moines, Ia., returned home Monday for a few days visit.

Miss Grace Johnson of Springfield, is a guest of Chas. Hayes and wife this week.

Mrs. George Berger of Elmwood, is a guest of Henry Stander and family this week.

Mrs. Geo. Hayes left Wednesday evening for Wabash to visit her mother, Mrs. Ottie.

Mrs. W. C. Dorsey and children are visiting at Table Rock, and Stella, Nebr., this week.

Mrs. Wm. Ossenkop and daughters, Mabel, and Mrs. Walter Blake were in Omaha Wednesday.

Aur. Stander, wife and two daughters, Celia and Barbara, went to Omaha yesterday morning.

Chas. Phelps and wife visited their daughter, Mrs. W. M. Leffer, of Elmwood, the first of the week.

Arthur Palmer is employed in the Frater drug store this week during Mr. Frater's absence to Lincoln.

The Herbs of Life Medicine Co., are showing in town each night this week in an Airdome on main street.

L. C. Stander and family left this week for Colorado Springs, Colo. Mr. Stander has gone west for his health.

Wet at Eight Mile

Chas. Hennings and wife, old residents of Eight Mile grove precinct were in the city Monday for the purpose of trading and paying a visit to relatives. While here they took dinner at the home of their brother-in-law, Jacob Tritsch.

Charley says crops in his vicinity look very well, though corn is quite weedy as the farmers could not plow on account of the wet weather.

Plattsmouth
Will not Celebrate

BUT...

You'll want a few fire works
just the same.

We have laid in a line which is as varied and complete as if we expected to hold a monster celebration. All the latest novelties in fireworks. Don't fail to see our stock.

J. W. LARKIN & CO.