Involves Irrigation Act. LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 18 .- Additional briefs were filed in the supreme court in support of the motion for a rehearing or modification of the decision in the case of the Crawford company against Hathaway and others. This action involves the constitutionality of the irrigation act of the state and is said by attorneys to be one of the most important cases on the supreme court docket. It was appealed fromDawes county, where Leroy Hall, a mill owner, secured, secured an injunction protecting his exclusive use of the water in White river. Judge F. G. Hamer of Kearney, who is fighting the injunction with much vigor, contends that if Hall is entitled to the was commissioned a colonel of volunorder then every person who diverts water from a stream above a mill wheel is likely to be enjoined by the mill owner and he insists further that the effect of this injunction is to strangle and destroy irrigation in Nebraska without proof of damage.

> As to the congressional and legislative irrigation acts it is said in the brief:

arian W. A. Thomas has been called on frequently to investigate a disease among cattle. He pronounces it epizootic fever and not the European foot and mouth disease, which it somewhat resembles. Few cattle die, but when the animals are not cared for death is likely to follow. Mr. Thomas said that the diseased animals have a high fever, sores appear in the mouth, drooping follows and sometimes a discharge from the nose, constipation, soreness of the feet and stiffness of the limbs; on cows the udder becomes ulcerated and the flow of milk almost disappears. One great difference be tween this disease and the foot and mouth disease is that the hoofs are not so badly affected as in the European foot and mouth disease. Mr. Thomas

LINCOLN, Sept. 14 .- Deputy Labor Commissioner Watson has addressed inquiries to fifty prominent persons of Nebraska asking them for their views on the subject of divorce legislation. His letter containing the questions follows:

"I would respectfully submit the following questions for your careful consideration and ask that, if convenient, you will kindly favor this bureau with such answers as shall be of interest and profit to the people of our state. "Are you in favor of more stringent divorce laws in Nebraska. If so, what steps do you deem necessary to proas now ascertained—were a branch | cure a practical measure of reform? "What is the effect of divorce on the integrity of the family?

> "Would a more prohibitory measure, reducing the number of causes of divorce as defined in the existing statates have a tendency to promote the moral purity of society in this state? "While the subject of divorce is gradually assuming a position of greater prominence before the country from year to year, yet its importance even when confined to state limits, might well engage the scholarship of a Newman or Liddon and awaken the enthusiasm ... a Wilberforce or Sumner."

Mr. Watson concludes by saying that complete returns from all counties in the state shows that there were 9,066 marriages solemnized and 758 divorces granted in 1900. In Lancaster county seventy-one divorces were granted and thirty-five cases were abandoned.
