Figures Won't Lie

Liars Will Figure

It was highly interesting to see how much excitement was caused on the train going west Tuesday night by the fact that Wm. J. Bryan was a passenger. He was the center of attention of all the passengers on the car in which he rode. People in the car crowded forward to see him and nearly everyone insisted in shaking hands with the distinguished gentleman in their midst. Especially did the ladies manifest a desire to get acquainted with Bryan and all shake the hand of the young pushed forward to shake hands. This is only another instance of the popularity of this remarkable man. He never ceases to enlist the attention of all, no matter where he goes.—Glenwood Tribune.

Results of the Election.

Last Tuesday's election passed off quietly, without the least trouble or excitement, and resulted in the usual sweeping victory for the republicans. Although the democrats put up a strong fight, and made gains for several of their candidates, they succeeded in electing only two—McBride for sheriff and Smith for superintendent. Herold for treasurer was buried under an avalanche of votes, Barton receiving a majority of 705. Schlatter for clerk made an excellent race, but was defeated by Tyson by 73 votes, which is not as it should have been. Sage for sheriff got what was coming to him, his own party turning him down "in the most horrible manner." Smith for superintendent didn't get all he was entitled to, but got enough. Hilton for surveyor had practically no opposition, and Boeck for coroner got a big lift from his democratic friends. Walling for register of deeds received many republican votes, but didn't get quite enough. Moore for commissioner was not in the race to a very large extent. Incomplete returns from all the wards and precincts give the total vote and majorities of the candidates as follows:

FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT—Sedgwick, republican, 2252; Hollenbeck, fusion, 1801; Sedgwick's majority 451.

FOR JUDGE REPRESENTATIVE—Spurlock, republican, 2454; Parmele, democrat, 1868; Spurlock's majority, 586.

FOR COUNTY TREASURER—Barton, republican, 2424; Herold, democrat, 1719; Barton's majority, 705.

FOR COUNTY CLERK—Tyson, republican, 2196; Schlatter, democrat, 2123; Tyson's majority, 73.

FOR REGISTER OF DEEDS—Schneider, republican, 2144; Walling, democrat, 1012; Schneider's majority, 232.

FOR SHERIFF—Sage, republican, 2041; McBride, democrat, 2319; McBride's majority, 278.

FOR COUNTY JUDGE—Douglass, republican, 2409; Saxton, democrat, 1825; Douglass' majority, 584.

FOR COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT—Davis, republican, 2056; Smith, democrat, 2208; Smith's majority, 152.
