Some one out hunting one day last week, got a little too free with a gun and killed a nice young calf for H. G. Strong. This is something too low for anyone with good sense to do, and the guilty party should be made to pay the penalty.

John Murdoch fell from the front of his wagon last Tuesday and his side struck the wheel, inflicting a very painful bruise. He thinks no bones were broken.

Daniel Tromble, who left here about twenty years ago for the Jim River Valley, has sold out there. He was in town last Wednesday and says he will start next Monday for Connecticut to visit his wife's folks, and may conclude to locate in Nebraska.

Miss Edna Tucker returned home last Wednesday from near Murray, where she has been attending on Mrs. Bayless, who has had smallpox.

The Missouri Pacific had a bridge crew here last week repairing the bridges between here and Union.

While walking alongside a load of logs Sam Reed was almost instantly killed on Monday morning. The accident happened near the Wyant farm south of Glenwood. Reed was hauling the logs to Hood's saw mill, and was walking beside the wagon to keep warm. In some way the logs became loosened and rolled off the wagon on Reed, crushing the life out of him almost in an instant.
