At his home southeast of town, on Monday, Feb. 24, 1903, Robert McMullin, died of apoplexy, aged about 75 years.

On Saturday, Feb. 21 at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Gilbert, on the south side, occurred the marriage of their daughter Louise to Mr. Edward U. Hoffman.

To Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Rouse, Wednesday, Feb. 18, 1903, a 71 pound girl. The little stranger was born at the home of Turner Zink, and Grandpa Zink will always reserve his whiskers for its amusement.

Geo. Rief, a cousin of Chas. Spohn, and who has made his home with him the past forty years, is very sick, and may not recover. Mr. Rief is 84 years old and quite feeble, and requires much attention in his sickness.

Frank Fowler has been suffering severely from a growth over his right eye, the sight of which is already destroyed, but the pain effects his left eye. He went to Omaha, Monday, to consult Dr. Gifford, the eye specialist.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hutchins on Wednesday, February 18th, when Mr. Torance W. Fleming and Miss Lena L. Hutchins were united in marriage. At eight o'clock the bride and groom accompanied by Miss Stella Miller and Elmer Workman entered the parlor, when in a short ceremony Rev. Hanford pronounced them man and wife. After extending congratulations the company were invited to the dining room where a dainty luncheon was served. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hutchins and is well known to this community, having grown to womanhood here.

From the Republican.

Mr. Shirley's boy who had his leg broken a few weeks ago is doing nicely and is able to be about with the aid of crutches.

George Dow, an uncle of Mrs. Al. Wideburg, who makes his home with her, has the measles. He is over 80 years old and has been very sick.

J. L. Corley was called to Adams last Friday by the serious illness of his mother. Charley Lyman looked after his business during his absence.

Fred Gorder will build out the front and rear of the Perkins house before he moves in. Fred has plans for making this one of the nicest houses in town.

Chas. Philpot has for some weeks been out at the cattle ranch and writes his son Will that the cattle are doing fine and they have hay enough to last until the first of May.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Waltz, near Elmwood occurred a very pretty but quiet home wedding on Sunday afternoon Feb. 22 when their daughter Myrtle Blanche and Mr. Lodge L. Caygill were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. E. Branch, of Lincoln, officiating.

Mrs. Capwell and family arrived here from Pennsylvania last week and will make their home on a farm near Elmwood. Mrs. Capwell is a sister of Frank and A. B. Dickson of Elmwood. We are glad to welcome this new family to our community and hope they will find their new home in the west a pleasant one.

A large number of friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Barker gathered at their home on Saturday evening to give them a farewell party. This estimable family have purchased a farm in Eight Mile Grove precinct, and expect to remove to their new home in a few days. The neighbors part with them very reluctantly but wish them much happiness and prosperity.

Louisville

From the Courier.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ahl, February 21, a boy.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sprick, Tuesday, February 24, a girl.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. S. Rodaway, Sunday, February 22, a girl.

The measles still continues to spread and all children in town will soon have had them.

Bert Jackson went to Plattsmouth Monday where he will take a course in shorthand and stenography.

Mrs. John Bradbury is lying at the point of death with heart disease with very little hopes of her recovery.

All plans have been arranged by J. K. Lee to begin boring for coal on his farm in a very short time. Omaha capital has been interested and will push matters to a successful end so far as making the necessary holes and if coal is there it will be found.

The school board met Monday evening and adopted the plans and specifications for the new school building as prepared by John Latenser of Omaha. In another column will be found an advertisement for bids for the construction of the new building.

From the Register.

Edgar Mark has gone into business in Murray and will move there in the near future.

The telephone fight in this vicinity has been settled. The independent company came out victorious and will commence work on their lines as soon as the frost is out of the ground.

Herman Hall came in from Chicago this week on a visit to old time friends.

The Only Liniment That Has Held The Farmers' Faith For Two Generations.

Why?

BECAUSE IT HAS CURED EVERY HURT OF MAN OR BEAST THAT CAN BE CURED BY A GOOD, HONEST, PENETRATING LINIMENT.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT.

It is the pioneer of liniments. It has stood the test of time. The more people use it the more faith they have in it. It is just as good to relieve your pains to-day as it was to relieve the aches and pains of your grandfathers over sixty years ago.

Greenwood

From the News. Joseph Parsell and family have moved back from Illinois and will make their home near Alvo.

H. F. Swanback, the oldest man in town, who has been ill was able to get out the last of the week, and made this office a pleasant call.

Paul Clark and family left Wednesday for Colburg, Iowa, their future home. Mr. Clark and his excellent wife have a host of friends here who regret to see them leave, and whose best wishes accompany them.

E. M. Brown of Ft. Collins, Colo., and his daughter, Ethel, are here visiting Mr. Brown's father, Thos. Brown and other relatives. E. M. played a good joke on his father by going disguised as a tramp to where he was working and asking for employment. The father had not seen his son for 20 years and did not recognize him.

There was considerable activity about the elevators, one day last week and a few cars of grain were shipped out, but not enough to relieve the crowded condition there. From the information our reporter had, he was led to believe that relief was in sight and that sufficient cars could be secured to move the grain now in the elevator, but it seems such is not the case.

It is said that troubles never come singly and this adage seems to be verified in the case of Jack Pope, whose good wife died not long since. Then Mr. Pope had the misfortune to get badly crippled and had just returned from the hospital when the house in which he was living, on land owned by the Boston Investment company, about six miles northwest of town caught fire and burned to the ground on last Monday morning, thus leaving Mr. Pope and his motherless children without a shelter in mid-winter. Mr. Pope succeeded in saving some of his furniture, and the kind neighbors have since opened their homes to this unfortunate family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gehard are the proud parents of a bouncing boy baby that came to gladden their hearts Thursday, Feb. 19. Mother and child doing nicely, and you ought to see the smile that Ed carries.

Elmwood

From the Leader-Echo.

W. J. Ranard has moved onto a farm near Plattsmouth.

John Schutrum and wife left last week for Oklahoma to enjoy a few weeks visit with relatives.

The measles situation is considerably improved over last week, when there were about eighty cases reported.

J. A. Muthersbaugh and family left Wednesday, via Kansas City, for Spokane, Washington, where they will make their future home.

Floyd Woolcott, cashier of the First National Bank, was taken very sick of appendicitis Thursday of last week and so far has gotten along without an operation. He is considerably better but as yet is not able to attend to his duties at the bank.

One of the fourteen months old twin girls of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. DeFord died Friday morning, from pneumonia. Funeral services were held from the home Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. A. M. Perry. Interment in Elmwood cemetery. The parents have the sympathy of all in their bereavement.

John W. Eaton leased a farm in Thurston county and moved their household goods about two weeks ago. Mrs. Eaton left for their new home last Sunday morning.

Will Rainey, who moved from here to Stella last fall, was in town Tuesday enroute with his household goods to Elmwood, having leased a farm near there.

As yet we have heard nothing new from our threatening friend C. H. Stall, the fellow who promised to do great things to us because we told the truth about his alleged show and we must conclude that he was not "spoiling" to have us prove our statements in court.

The movements on the "farm checker board" have been numerous this week, many of the tenants seeking new locations before the 1st of March, which leads us to think we may soon hear the robins singing and see the kids digging fish-worms.

Ed. Pritchard lost some of his good sleep Monday night on account of a sick child, and taking a little snooze in the shop next day cost him several pounds of nice pork chops, for while he enjoyed a little sleep some one swiped a fine hunk of meat off the block. Ed is not mourning on account of the value of the meat, but he'd like to know who wanted it so badly.
