Paine's Celery Compound

Permanently Cures Sick and Nervous Headaches that Make Life Miserable.

Sick and nervous headaches are among the worst ills of life. The man or woman who is subject to headache at irregular intervals, goes through life bearing a load of misery and wretchedness that is terrible to think of. Headaches as a rule, result from a disordered condition of the nervous system. Mental excitement, loss of sleep, bodily fatigue, and disordered digestion are exciting causes. When the brain becomes tired and debilitated, the whole nervous system is weakened, and headaches result. If the liver is sluggish, the kidneys inactive, and digestion deranged, headaches invariably follow. To cure and prevent headache, the nervous system must be strengthened and vitalized. The most persistent cases of headache, nervous feebleness, and sleeplessness, are permanently cured by Paine's Celery Compound; it is the great reconstructer of the nervous system. Mrs. Henry Westrick, St. Clair, Mich., tells of her release from suffering as follows:— "I have been troubled with dyspepsia and sick headache for a number of years. About every week I would have a bad spell of sick headache, but since I began using Paine's Celery Compound, my dyspepsia is gone, and I do not have any more headaches. I feel better than I have for years."

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP.

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. "When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only to be of late duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by all druggists.

Death of Hon. James M. Patterson.

Hon. James M. Patterson passed away at 6 o'clock this morning at his home in this city. It is well known by his many friends in Cass county that Mr. Patterson has been in poor health for many months, and at times a change for better or worse, was readily noticed by his most intimate friends and neighbors. Considering that he was reported much better in the past few days and would probably be able to get down to the bank in a day or two, the announcement of his death upon the streets this morning fell upon our citizens like a clap of thunder from a cloudless sky. The funeral services will not take place until Sunday, in order that his son Sam, of New York, and a favorite cousin, S. C. Patterson, of Columbia, Texas, will have time to get here. As the Journal goes to press early this morning, we defer an extended notice of our dear departed friend until our next issue, at which time we are promised extensive biographical sketch of the career of Mr. Patterson from the pen of one of his most intimate friends of many years standing.

A Bold Robbery.

A daring and bold robbery was committed at the home of Mrs. Greeson, on south Fourth street, Monday night between the hours of 11 and 12 o'clock, in which the robbers succeeded in getting about $65. It seems that Mrs. Sam Chambers, whose husband is in Oklahoma, was stopping with Mrs. Greeson, and that the money was received from him to pay her way to that country. An entrance was effected through a window, at least one of the robbers got in that way and then opened the door for the other. Mrs. Chambers was lying on one bed in the room with her dress on, in the bosom of which was secreted her purse and money, while Mrs. Greeson was lying on a bed or cot in another corner of the room. One approached Mrs. Greeson, while the other went to Mrs. Chambers. Mrs. Chambers was grabbed by the wrists and held fast to the bed with one hand of the ruffian and the purse and money secured, while the other one kept Mrs. Greeson quiet. The room was dark, and of course the robbers got away without being identified. Suspicion rests upon certain parties, but as there is yet no positive evidence no arrests have been made. One of Mrs. Chambers' wrists was badly bruised and it will be some time before she can use one of her hands at all. The officers are on the alert, and no efforts will be spared to bring the robbers to justice.

On last Thursday Judge Jesson announced from the bench a decision in favor of the plaintiffs in the case of Michael G. Kine et al., plaintiffs, vs. Cass county, et al., defendants. The question was whether or not a certain road in the vicinity of Nehawka had been abandoned for more than five years, and therefore vacated. Judge A. W. Crites, of Chadron, Neb., came in Saturday evening, and remained in the city over Sunday, as the guest of his sister, Mrs. B. S. Ramsey. The judge departed Monday morning for Omaha, where he had business in the district court. Judge Crites reports that his son Edwin, who had been in St. Elizabeth hospital at Lincoln for six weeks with typhoid fever, and who is now at his home at Chadron, is rapidly recovering but will be unable to resume his studies at the university for at least a year.
