The Plattsmouth Journal

PUBLISHED WEEKLY AT
PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA.

R. A. AND T. B. HATES,
PUBLISHERS.

Entered at the postoffice at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, as second-class matter.

THE Mormons can't see why the president should oppose polygamy, if he really wants to see more large families.

JUDGE PARKER, Richard Olney and Senator Gorman. Can any one deny that there is plenty of good presidential timber in the democratic woods?

SENATOR STONE, of Missouri, is responsible for the statement that W. J.
Bryan would like to be the chairman of the democratic national convention.

The tariff question is a thorn in the flesh of every republican leader, beyond a doubt, and the "Iowa idea" is a veritable nightmare to the apostles of protection.

In one Texas county there is but one negro, and despite the lamentations of the president and Senator Hanna, he refuses to become a postmaster, and doesn't want a pension.

The Louisville Courier-Journal tells Mr. Cleveland to lapse into obscurity, and the New York World tells him to step into the White House. The overwhelming probability is that he will do neither.

As Kansas objects to having the battleship named for her christened with wine, why not attach a bottle of the obnoxious fluid to the prow of the vessel and permit Mrs. Nation to smash it with her little hatchet?

THERE are a few men in public life who can straddle a mooted question with the facility of Senator Allison.
The Cumminsites and the anti-Cumminsites both believe that the senior senator from Iowa is "all right."

The negroes of Mr. Hanna's home town have appealed to the crown heads of Europe to protect them from their enemies—the Americans. In the light of Mr. Hanna's recent ex-slave pension bill we are not altogether surprised.

SENATOR DEFEW is worrying over the possibility of a democratic victory and the possibility of a change in the present coinage standard of the nation.
Mr. Dewey need not worry. There will be a democratic victory and Mr.
Bryan's councils will prevail but even then there will be no return to 16 to 1.

STRIKES are being inaugurated in all parts of the country and the present outlook in the industrial world is not encouraging. Workers are beginning to realize that the cost of living is increasing because trusts are advancing prices and that they cannot save what they used to save unless they get more for their work.

The Hastings Tribune says that "the Lincoln Daily Star got its wires crossed Tuesday and ran in a picture of Dan Cronin with the name of Frank E. Helvey beneath it. This merely goes to show that mistakes are bound to happen in the best regulated families." Cronin should immediately institute suit against the Star. It's awful to be taken for a Nebraska City editor.

The Brooklyn Eagle, which has had so much to say about eliminating Bryan in Nebraska, simply utters the desires of the leading republicans of the nation, as it has now leaked out that that paper has been owned and controlled by republicans long before Mr. Bryan's nomination in 1896. As this fact becomes generally known the Eagle will wield but very little influence among democrats where heretofore it has only been regarded as simply off on the money question.

CHAMP CLARK, the brilliant and witty congressman from the ninth Missouri district, wants Senator Cockrell for the democratic standard-bearer in 1904. The Journal has no objections.
Senator Cockrell has served his state in the United States senate for a quarter of a century, and no man has more friends in that body or wields a greater influence with the departments of government at Washington, notwithstanding his democracy. He is a grand old man, and to know him is but to love and respect him.

THE municipal elections which occurred in Ohio, Illinois, Michigan and Missouri, Tuesday show very flattering returns for the democrats. In Ohio, outside of Cincinnati and Columbus, the democrats carried most of the principal cities. In Illinois the democrats were victorious in Chicago, Springfield, Quincy and other points.
The democrats carried St. Louis by 18,000 majority, and in fact made great gains everywhere. If the republicans can find any consolation in the election returns, they are certainly most easily consoled, and are welcome to all they can get out of them.

THE Nebraska legislature has appropriated $35,000 for an exhibit at the St. Louis exposition. This is $35,000 more than ought to have been appro-riated. The writer was a member of the Missouri commission to the Omaha exposition and has not forgotten what a time we experienced in trying to raise money. The legislature failed to make any appropriation for an exhibit at Omaha. The members of that commission visited all the principal cities in the state in their efforts to raise money for this purpose, and what a signal failure we made. But then we presume the Nebraska legislature thought of "doing good for evil" when they voted this appropriation.

Consumption

The only kind of consumption to fear is "neglected

People are learning that consumption is a curable disease.
It is neglected consumption that is so often incurable.

At the faintest suspicion of consumption get a bottle of Scott's Emulsion and begin regular doses.

The use of Scott's Emulsion at once, has, in thousands of cases, turned the balance in favor of health.

Neglected consumption does not exist where Scott's Emusion is.

Prompt use of Scott's Emusion checks the disease while it can be checked.

City Election.

The election in Plattsmouth Tuesday passed off very quietly, and but little interest was manifested in any of the wards except the first and fourth.
In these two wards considerable effort was made in the interest of the republican candidates. There was no possible show to defeat H. N. Dovey for member of the school board, as he seems to be "the right man in the right place." C. A. Marshall, the other successful candidate, ran well, but not near up to Mr. Dovey. As both these are republicans, the board, so far as politics are concerned, stands the same as it does at present. Mr. Dovey succeeds himself and Dr. Marshall succeeds Ballance, republican. Below is the official vote by wards:

A Story Worth Telling
We never tire of telling the story of Uneeda Biscuit. We do not believe that lovers of good, wholesome food ever tire reading it. Uneeda Biscuit are the result of two ideas. That soda crackers could be made better than they had ever been made before. That it was possible to convey them to the home fresh, crisp and clean. The importance of the soda cracker as an article of daily consumption, made this worthy of extraordinary effort. True, many people laughed at the idea of so much thought—time—labor—capital, being devoted to a soda cracker. But the greatest industries of the greatest country in the world have been developed from smaller things than a soda cracker, and so it seemed worth while to make the best soda cracker that could be made and to place it on the table as good as it had been made. To do the first required the selection of the best materials, of the best equipment, the highest skill. To do the second upset all traditions. The oldest bakers said there was no way to keep a soda cracker good. That no one expected it any way. That people were satisfied to eat them stale, as they had been in the habit of doing. And so it fell to the lot of younger minds to do this unheard of thing—to keep a soda cracker good until eaten. The result was the creation of the In-cr-seal Package with red and white seal. An invention that kept out the air, moisture, dust germs, that first retained the natural flavor of the biscuit, keeping it crisp and fresh until it reached the table, and so Uneeda Biscuit became a reality. The little thing that seemed hardly worth while became a great thing that seemed hardly possible. To-day over 300,000,000 packages have been consumed by the thoughtful people of this country and the demand is ever increasing. That is the story of Uneeda Biscuit. Some day we will tell it over again for the benefit of those who are still "satisfied" with the stale and broken crackers that come in a paper bag, when they can get Uneeda Biscuit whole, fresh, and clean. 5c NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

The Best Whiskey! is the Cheapest in the End!
Poor Whisky is not only disagreeable to taste, but undoubtedly injurious to the stomach. A little good Whisky is a fine tonic and helps instead of harming. Such Whiskies as Yellowstone, for ingood as a doctor's prescription. If you don't know how good it is, come in and try it.
