Here is another one too good to hang up, especially as it happened in the vicinity of Nehawka: A few days ago a school marm after telling all about the landing of the Pilgrims, told her pupils to draw from imagination a picture of Plymouth Rock. There was siderable confusion when one little boy got up and asked if she wantad a hen or rooster. At last accounts the schoolmarm had fully recovered.

The time is close at hand when a general "clearin' up" time should be had. Health and happiness depends on cleanliness, which is next to Godliness, and if you do not know what to do with that pile of tin cans which has accumulated in your back yard during the winter, just arrange them in a low pyramid, cover them with good soil and you will have a splendid mound on which to raise flowers. The cans hold a great deal of water after a rain, and the effect of its constant presence is seen in the growth of the plants.
