On Wednesday evening, June 24th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sackett occurred the marriage of their daughter, Miss Clara, to Ora H. Rush.

The Independent Telephone Co., have now direct connection with Nebraska City, so that they don't have to make a circle of the county to talk with them.

Lightning struck a tombstone in the Catholic cemetery north of town last week. This is where the church stood that was burned up last year from a bolt of lightning striking it.

Dr. Hingate figures out that his strawberry crop for 1903, amounts to a little over 1000 quarts, and they were marketed at 12c per quart. His berry patch is one-third of an acre.

Now that the ramrod to the old historical cannon has been found by a carpenter in Plattsmouth, it is up to the Nebraska citizens to either return the instrument of war to Plattsmouth or swipe the ramrod.

Wednesday June 24th, at 8 o'clock p. m. at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hunt, occurred the wedding of Isaac Reed and Miss Jennie Hunt. Rev. Wray pronounced the words that bound this couple in holy matrimony, and gladdened the hearts of two more of our citizens.

From the Republican.

Mrs. Chas. Tighe and children of Bancroft are visiting her mother, Mrs. Bourke, and other relatives here.

Mrs. Rouse of Plattsmouth, and Mrs. Miller and little daughter of California, spent last Wednesday here, the guests of Mrs. Zink.

Andrew Oleson is putting up a large hay shed west of town. Mr. Oleson has a large crop of hay, and is fixing to keep it in good shape.

With Louisville on the north, and Dunbar on the south, both mining coal and tanking petroleum, Weeping Water ought to be able to get fuel and light at a minimum cost.

While at work in the stone quarries on Monday, Claud Hopkins was unfortunate in having his thumb and wrist painfully injured. A large rock was being moved and fell catching his fist and mashing his thumb and crippling his wrist badly.

H. O. Reason was quite badly bitten by a dog belonging to Mr. Bills, last Monday morning. Reason was delivering goods at the home of Mr. Bills, when the dog ran up behind him and bit him in the leg making a painful wound.

Henry Behrens, sr., has the only orange grove in this section of the country and therefore has cause to be very proud of it. At Mr. Behrens' place, east of town, you may have the pleasure of seeing an orange tree, very healthy and full of its delicious fruit, growing. This is the only one of the kind we know of in the country. Who can beat it?

Mrs. Geo. Hay spent Monday here, the guest of Mrs. Jas. Gilbert. Mrs. Hay expects to leave on Thursday for her home in Central City, South Dakota. She says she likes the west very much, but the altitude is too high for most of the family and they are contemplating making a change, but have not decided yet where they will locate.

The City of Plattsmouth should feel proud of the honor bestowed upon her by the Masonic order in locating their state home within her borders. The Masons have never had a home for their feeble members and orphan children in this state before. It was probably through the influence of F. E. White, secretary for the order and whose home is in Plattsmouth that the locations was made there. The Masons have been accumulating this fund for thirty years.

Nehawka
From the Register.

Henry Gruber is rushing the stone work on Mrs. Alford's cellar and will soon have it done.

Will Porter has faith in having crops this year for he was hauling lumber Friday for a granary.

A card from Mr. Townsley, father of Bob, the Register foreman, says Bob has appendicitis and he will be unable to work for some time.

Mrs. Myrtle Minford and children are in from Colorado for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Carroll.

Byron Clark of Plattsmouth was in town the last of the week. It may be said to his credit that he is the only attorney in Plattsmouth that has never asked for an office.

Vilas Sheldon took a big range over to his new home Thursday. He will soon be able to see a light in his own window.

Earl Kirkpatrick has gone into the Missouri Pacific depot to keep in practice in telegraphy and station work. He will be ready when a supply man is wanted, or an agent.

Uncle Chapman is feeling miserable the last few days. He hasn't a weed in his garden, and therefore nothing to do. He sits on the porch and smokes waiting for a weed to show its head.

Uncle Jake Gruber and wife took a very pleasant trip last week. They drove to the home of their son-in-law Henry Hinrich's eleven miles south then to Fred Nutzman's for a visit, then to John Nutzman's near Avoca, and after a good visit they got back to Nehawka Monday evening. They greatly enjoyed the hospitality of their relatives and friends.

Louisville
From the Courier.

Fred Tapper has bought the bowling alley and pool tables of L. F. Haddon and is putting it in shape to open for business.

P. A. Jacobson's delivery team ran away last Saturday throwing Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson from the wagon and slightly injuring them.

Quite a number of Louisville people drove up to Manly Sunday afternoon and witnessed the laying of the corner stone of the new Catholic church.

It is reported that Editor Smith is to move his newspaper out of Greenwood and take it to Missouri. Another newspaper corpse is thus added to the long list for that town.

It may be all right and the proper thing to have a dry town but when it comes to carrying the thing so far as to cut out the street sprinkler it is time to protest.

Weeping Water is up against a peculiar situation in the selection of a county judge. Between C. E. Tefft and the present incumbent they know not which to favor, both claiming Weeping Water as their home.

The school board will advertise and sell the old school house to the highest bidder. Wouldn't it be a good idea to organize a local stock company and buy it for an opera house? This could be done at a profit to the town as it is not at all probable that the building will bring what it would be worth to the town for this purpose. Let some action be taken in the matter by the Commercial club.

Eagle

There are 129 children of school age in this district, so says J. M. Gardner.

Lou Durbin was seriously injured by a kick from a horse Tuesday evening. Dr. Townsend was called and dressed his injuries and he is now getting along as well as could be expected.

County Superintendent C. S. Wortman of Plattsmouth was in our city yesterday on business. While here he made this office a pleasant call and we found Mr. Wortman to be a fine fellow even though he is a democrat.

Last Thursday as Grandpa Umland was doing some repairing on the roof of his house, he became overbalanced and fell about eight feet to the sidewalk below. Although he was badly bruised he is getting along as well as could be expected, so says Dr. Thomas.

Last Tuesday afternoon as G. C. Trimble was out driving, a bolt broke letting the front wheels come out from under the buggy. The team started to run but did not succeed in getting away. Mr. Trimble escaped with only a few scratches.

On Friday at 6 a. m., June 20, 1903, the soul of Mrs. Frohlich, wife of Herman Frohlich departed from this world. She suffered patiently for years while every means was used to restore her to health but to no avail, the end came at last. Mrs. Frohlich was one of those kind, patient Christians that it was a pleasure to meet, born in Germany but arrived in this country when three years old, was a faithful member of the Lutheran church. Mrs. Frohlich leaves a husband and three sons to mourn her loss, and the community will miss one dearly beloved. The remains were interred in the Eagle cemetery. May the family ties loosened here be united in the heavenly home.

The Misses Rhena, Anna and Eunice Towle left Tuesday for Boston, Mass., where they will attend the national educational association meeting. The remainder of their summer vacation they will spend in visiting relatives and points of interest in the east.

The Rev. James Mark Darby returned from Chicago yesterday, where on June 30th, he received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from Ruskin university. He also carried off second honors in the oratorical contest, in which there were nine contestants.

Rev. Mr. Darby is a hard worker and a deep thinker and well deserves the degree conferred on him. Here's congratulations and our best wishes, W. O. Darby.

Union
From the Ledger.

Earl Pickett and wife are "living at home" now, having purchased a nice outfit of furniture and moved the first of the week into a nice home of their own.

Mrs. Nettie Turner departed on Tuesday for two months visit, first stopping a few days in St. Louis, and from there she goes to various points in Ohio and Indiana.

John McClaffin and wife departed last Saturday morning for Pierce county, and will have their household goods shipped there, making their home near Plainview.

Otis Brendel, who had been visiting his Cass county relatives, was the guest of O. C. Douge and family Monday, and left that evening for his home in Indianapolis.

Edward Pittman left Wednesday morning for Denver, and will engage in the barber business in that city if he finds the favorable opening that he expects. Mrs. Pittman accompanied him as far as Omaha, returning that evening to remain here until Ed selects his location.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lidgett had several guests from this village last Sunday to spend the day at their pleasant home northwest of town, and the visitors were royally entertained with an excellent dinner and a general good time. The guests were W. E. Tracy and wife, J. A. Nicholson and wife, Dr. Redfield and wife, Wm. Wolfe and wife, Dan Lynn and wife and R. E. Hasting.

The Independent Telephone Co. added four more subscribers to the Union list last week by putting in telephones at Nicholson & Banning's office, W. C. Carraker's residence, W. R. Cross' residence and Albin's hotel. The Union exchange now has 37 phones, of which 27 are in town and 10 on neighboring farms, and this number will be largely increased as soon as the company can supply the other farmers in this vicinity who want phones.

Peter Clarence was the most industrious farmer in the county Tuesday morning, not because he was in a hurry to finish his work, but because he didn't want a swarm of bees to make a hive of his bald head. Pete got into the hot time by running his plow into a clump of bushes where the bees were busy with their own affairs, and they immediately shouldered their little stingers and went after him, probably mistaking his bare pate for a mushroom. The team ran away, and after the bees had each probed Pete's hide he got disgusted and left town, but he wasn't in shape to become a contestant in a beauty show, because his eyes and face were very much disfigured.

Maple Grove
Special Correspondence.

Edward Gansemier and W. H. Puls made a business trip to Plattsmouth Wednesday.

Mrs. Alma Seivers, of Plattsmouth, is visiting relatives in this locality this week.

The people of this neighborhood spent the Fourth at different places. Some at home but the most went to Weeping Water and some to Cedar Creek.

Quite a number of relatives and friends were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Hild and family Sunday.

August Engelkemeier was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Puls Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gansemier, July 5, a baby girl.

Mata and Annie Puls visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Puls Monday.

Charles Boedecker and Robert Young shipped cattle to Omaha Monday. They had a fine bunch of cattle for which they ought to receive a fine price.

Mrs. John Bock left Sunday for Burwell, Neb., to visit her daughter, Mrs. Anna Hunter, for a few weeks.

Some have commenced laying by corn while others have commenced cutting their fall wheat.

Mynard
Special Correspondence.

Corn looking fine, and outlook growing better every day.

Some wheat about to be harvested and the yield it is said will be good.

A. S. Will has begun haymaking and has taken into his employ Bert Satchell, who will operate the loader.

Rob Heinrichs, and the Texan in the employ of J. R. Vallery "yumped their job," and have gone to the Dakotas on a harvesting tour. Likewise Frank Perry and Mike Goehry, who, however say northeastern Iowa will do them; and it may, too. The exodus of these four create a vacancy on the farms where they were employed hard to fill, as hands "skeerce." Perry and Goehry were in the employ of W. T. Richardson.

The sudden death of Tom Marshall Spires comes as a shock of surprise to all who knew him. Why, a hale young man in the early youth of his manhood, should shorten his earthly career as Marshall did, will perhaps remain a mystery until all of earth has passed into the hereafter, when he will have to answer the Judge of earth, heaven and eternity and give an account of the stewardship of his life. We believe Spires is none the less guilty of murder if he took his own life, than if he had taken the life of another. The life he had and the body he was using in caring for that life, was given him by his God. Who shall say he has any right to shorten the life given him by his Maker?

Your Cedar Creek fellow has no right to impute to us the responsibility for the warm weather, anymore than we have to claim the right to charge him with the responsibility for the cold last winter, and we feel sure his notes would cause a chilly atmosphere to predominate where they are read. But the beautiful portion of it is while at his patriotic duty of writing news (?) no brains would be frozen in your Cedar Creek correspondent's head.

W. D. Wheeler was a Mynard visitor on Tuesday.

Miss Mary Proget was a Mynard visitor on Tuesday in quest of a man (a man to hire) to work on the farm.

Mrs. J. M. Kiser returned home on Sunday from Elmwood, where she had been visiting for the last three weeks, to the delight of J. M. who had begun to look bacheloried, very. Y. N.
