PERSONAL POINTS.

Picked, Penciled and Prepared for the Readers of the Journal.

Democrats! Remember your primaries on Saturday, August 15th, at eight o'clock p. m., COME OUT, AND SEE

That your precinct is fully represented at the county convention in Plattsmouth, Saturday, August 22, 1903.

Sam Archer has returned from his trip to Kansas City.

J. P. Falter was a business visitor in the state capital Friday.

John M. Swartz, of Nehawka, was a Plattsmouth visitor Friday.

Mrs. Clinton Miller, of Omaha, is the guest of Mrs. M. W. Twitchell.

Miss Clara Street sang in St. Paul's church in Lincoln Sunday morning.

H. D. Travis returned from a business trip to southeast Iowa Saturday morning.

John Schulhof and wife have returned from their outing at Lake Independence, Minnesota.

George Koehnke is the proud possessor of a bouncing baby boy, born Friday morning, July 24, 1903.

Don't forget the ice cream social at Woodman hall in Mynard, next Saturday evening, August 1.

Victor Sherwood has resigned his position with the B. & M. at Alliance, and returned home Friday.

Mrs. J. T. Baird and daughter may return Friday morning from their visit to Nashville, Tennessee.

A. Pitt, engineer on the B. & M. out of McCook, visited a few days with Plattsmouth friends this week.

A bouncing ten-pound baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Saffer Thursday last week.

J. L. Polk, mail clerk, on the B. & M. between Denver and Pacific Junction, was a Plattsmouth visitor Monday.

Mrs. J. M. Leyda and children visited with the family of George Olive and friends in Weeping Water the past week.

C. G. Mayfield, a candidate for assessor, was here again Friday. He believes in keeping in close touch with the ring.

Mrs. Margaret Pierce departed Friday afternoon for Marblehead, Connecticut, for a summer's visit with relatives and friends.

After a short visit with home folks, James Archer left Friday for Creston, Iowa. Jim is now employed with the ball team at that place.

Mrs. Louis Platte and children departed Sunday for Rulo, where her husband is employed on a bridge being constructed over the Nemaha.

The Fremont Tribune keeps the following standing at the head of its editorial page: "No pay, no paper," which is all right if made to stick.

Pat McCallan, of the B. & M. boiler shop, in company with his wife and daughter, departed Friday morning for a visit with relatives in Chicago.

Mrs. C. H. Parmele left Thursday evening last for Lincoln, where she will spend a month with her daughters, Mrs. S. H. Atwood and Mrs. Nellie P. Agnew.

Invitations are out announcing an entertainment in honor of Lieutenant George R. Guild at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne M. Twitchell, on Saturday evening, August 1st.

Mrs. Susan E. Smith has filed her petition in the district court asking for a divorce from her husband, O. J. Smith. Action is based upon the grounds of non-support and cruelty.

Thos. Walling has been confined to his home the greater part of the week with a severe case of tonsillitis. The Journal is happy to note that he has greatly improved and will soon be his former self.

Democrats are urged to attend the primaries Saturday, August 15th. Let us have the largest convention ever held in Cass county. Get ready to come yourself and get your neighbor to come also.

It is quite probable that the Burlington telephone system which has proved so successful between Omaha and Lincoln will be extended to Plattsmouth, Pacific Junction and other points along the B. & M.

Street Commissioner Hansen has had a force at work on north Fourth street the past week, which makes things look quite different on that street. And the good work will still continue on other streets, also.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brantner have removed to Murray, where they will take charge of the hotel owned and formerly run by Mrs. Brantner. Bill will make a good landlord, being naturally a genial wholesaled gentleman.

The workmen on the Burlington bridge at this place have been considerably thinned out this week, most of them going to Rulo, to work on a similar job at that place. Only a few remain to put on the finishing touches with paint and brush.

DUPED BY A DROVER.

A Former Plattsmouth Girl Sues for $10,000 Damages.

The Omaha World-Herald of last Saturday contained the following: "Jennie Carstens, a dining room girl at the Delmonico hotel in South Omaha has brought suit in the district court against Ole B. Ackerly, a hog drover in the stock yards, for $10,000 damages for the alleged betrayal of her affections.

"The girl sets forth in her petition, that she kept company with Ackerly for a year, and was engaged to be married to him. She says she trusted to his honor and to his promise with disastrous consequences, and that he Ackerly refused to keep his promise.

"Mrs. Mullen, the proprietress of the hotel, discovering the girl's health to be very poor, befriended her, it is stated by W. R. Patrick of South Omaha, who is the girl's attorney, and did everything in her power to nurse her back to health. Her condition was, for a time, very serious, but it is thought that she is now on the highway to recovery.

"Miss Carstens has worked at the hotel for the greater portion of two years, and is given a good reputation by Mrs. Mullen. Her father is a farmer, living near Blair."

Miss Carstens formerly resided in this city, and is well known in the vicinity. She always bore an excellent reputation, and those who know her so well believe she has been greatly imposed upon, and that her betrayer should be made to suffer the consequences generally meted out to such dastardly scoundrels.

An Undesirable Citizen.

There is a man not a thousand miles from here who is so constituted that he is never content unless he is stirring up a fuss among his neighbors. Any old thing serves as an excuse to make a row. Then if some one turns a modern rapid fire gun upon this antiquated old muzzle loader and shells some of the moss of off him he wants to get in to court and air his little grievances.

He has not the manhood to settle his disputes in a manly way but tries to hide behind the law, a power made to protect the weak against the strong, admitting his impotency. We would like to have an X-ray photo of the head of such a man. If the rays could penetrate the mossy shell there would be in the interior of the "house of too much trouble," suits to be pushed at the state's expense, injunctions, petitions and howls, with wheels and cogs enough to run the machine.

Reads Like a Romance.

A special to the World-Herald from Nebraska City, under date of July 27, says: "George Campbell left the home of his parents in this city over twenty-five years ago and since then his parents have not heard from him. This morning he returned and going to the old home, walked in upon his mother, who was at work in the kitchen. She at once recognized him and the meeting was a pathetic one for she had almost given him up as dead. The father could not for a time recognize the tall gray haired man as his son who had gone away a quarter of a century ago. The son had been in California all of these years where he had done well, and came home to comfort the aged couple."

Fine Peaches.

The man, or set of men who think there are no peaches raised in Cass county this year, are "away off" on their calculations. As the Journal representative was wending his way up Third street, Monday evening last, our old friend, W. D. Jones hailed us, and we crossed over to his home, and there beheld a sight worth looking at—several trees loaded down with the handsomest, juiciest and finest flavored peaches we have tasted in lo, these many years. Mr. Jones loaded the writer up with a lot, and the Journal family can fully testify to all we have said, and join us in thanking Mr. Jones for the rich treat.

Remember the Date.

Union will have her old settlers' reunion, Louisville the old soldiers' reunion, and Plattsmouth will have one big week. On Monday, August 17, is the date for the commencement of the Sappy-Cass counties teachers' institute, which will be in session the entire week. Then the biggest event of the season—democratic county convention—meets on Saturday of the same week. Don't forget the date.

ANOTHER MAN SUICIDES.

The Third to Take His Own Life Since the Fourth of July.

The suicide record for the month of July perhaps surpasses that of any city in Nebraska. Up to date there has been four successful suicides and one serious attempt.

The latest one on record is that of a young man named Otto Ulrik, aged about twenty-one years, who ended his earthly career by the "Rough on Rats" process which he took last Saturday night.

Young Ulrik was a cigarmaker and had formerly been in the employ of Julius Pepperberg, of this city, but for two weeks previous to the time of the suicide he had been in Omaha. Saturday afternoon he returned to this city and liquor, he purchased a 15-cent box of "Rough on Rats" at one of our drug stores. After reach the home of his parents, he proceeded to the well, and after drawing a bucket of water, placed the poisonous compound in a dipper of water and then drank the contents. He then entered the house, told his mother what he had done, and at the same time displayed the empty box.

He immediately became deathly sick, with symptoms of arsenical poisoning, and died Sunday morning after hours of most intense suffering. Several different causes for the act are advanced, but the most probable one seems to be an unfortunate love affair.

No inquest was held over the remains, as there seemed to be no doubt as to the cause of the young man's death.

The funeral occurred on last Tuesday morning at nine o'clock from the family residence under the auspices of the Omaha and Plattsmouth cigarmakers unions—the deceased having been a member of the former organization. After brief services the remains were conveyed to the Oak Hill cemetery for interment, the following gentlemen acting as pall-bearers: A. J. Libershal, Tom Jeffers, Anton Kanka, Howard Freet, Chris Jensen and Chas. Wilken.

Happy Little Souls.

Friday, July 24th, 1903, was the fifth birthday of Master Robert Walling, and Mr. and Mrs. Walling conceived the plan of inviting in a number of little folks of the city to assist the little fellow in celebrating the event. Consequently a number of invitations were sent out, all of which were responded to. To say that it was a merry gathering of little folks, expresses it very mildly. The afternoon was spent in various ways of amusement to the happy little souls, and when six o'clock arrived, refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake, fruits and other delicacies, were spread out upon the lawn. When they were seated around the table it was a pleasure to note the little ones in their enjoyment of good things set before them. May Robert live to enjoy many more similar events.

The Way to Help Matters.

There is always a few chronic criers in a town. Some are ready to find fault with everybody, some kick their home paper. They are generally the fellows that believe in doing business on the ground-hog style. They generally have nothing good for their town and always complaining about hard times, but never stop to ask themselves the question: "what can I do to make a change in the matter?" The town is just what you make it. So get out of the old rut and boldly come to the front and help make Plattsmouth the best town in southeastern Nebraska.

County Superintendent Wortman.

The Nebraska Teacher in its write-up recently of county superintendents of the state, refers to Mr. C. S. Wortman, of this city, as follows:

"C. S. Wortman, of Cass county, received his education in Nebraska, Cass county rural schools, Ashland high school, state normal and state university. He is a graduate of the university college of law. His six years' teaching has been, two years in a country school, two years in a college school and two years as superintendent of the Hartington schools. He was recently appointed to his present position by the county commissioners, Superintendent Smith having resigned to engage in other business."

The Teacher could have just as well added that Prof. Wortman is giving general satisfaction, and for the very efficient and faithful manner in which he is performing his duties, each day adds to his popularity; all this might have been said without varying one iota from the gospel truth.

A Solemn Service.

A solemn Requiem High Mass for the repose of the soul of Pope Leo, XIII, was celebrated by Rev. Father Bernard, of St. John's Catholic Church Tuesday morning. Miss Marista Cagney presided at the organ, and the full choir in attendance sang the solemn Gregorian Mass for the dead. The service was very solemn throughout, the altar being draped in black.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobick of Colusa, Calif., writes: "For 15 years, I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it relieved and cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by F. G. Fricke & Co., Druggists.

A Hurt Never Hurts.

After Porter's antiseptic healing oil is applied. Relieves pain instantly and heals at the same time. For man or beast. Price, 25 cents.

Well Bought is Half Sold.

You are familiar with this old business proverb; you believe it too; it states a truth.

Well bought don't mean chiefly price but refers to all other points in the general make-up of a suit as regards style, fit, workmanship, material, etc.

Our stock of clothing is larger and better today than ever before. Our Fall Goods are arriving daily and it is quite an effort to find room for such a large assortment.

We still have some of those $5.00 to $10.00 suits left. Also some of those wide rim field hats.

Omaha Knights in Plattsmouth.

One hundred K. of P.'s of Omaha, together with their wives, arrived in this city Monday evening to pay a friendly social visit to the Plattsmouth knights. It is unnecessary to remark that the visitors were most royally entertained, the members of the lodge doing all in their power to make their visit a most pleasant one.

Waterman hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion, with the colors of the order. Chancellor Commander T. L. Tidd, in a few very appropriate remarks, welcomed the visitors. Addresses were also delivered by Messrs. Britt, of Omaha, Goss, of Bellevue, and Hon. Matthew Gering, of this city. The visitors were treated to some excellent music by Misses Edna Marshall, Clara Street, Edith Martin, Louise Smith and Mr. E. H. Westcott, and in return the home people enjoyed the delightful music by the Mandolin club which accompanied the visitors.

The refreshments were served by sisters and daughters of members to the number of twenty.

The reception committee consisted of A. L. Tidd, Fred Ebinger, F. A. Murphy, Dr. Marshall, Matthew Gering and Geo. M. Spurlock.

The visitors returned to Omaha at 11 o'clock, no doubt feeling that they were well paid for their visit with their Plattsmouth brethren.

Direct From the Shoulder.

Here is a little old straight from the shoulder talk about matters lying near to our heart. There seems to be a feeling among business men that a newspaper has no business to make money. Why not? It is the most exacting business in the world, the most trying in every way. It means long hours and the greatest care in its conduct. The newspaper has the entire public to deal with. It is criticised on all occasions. It has to deal with all the cranks in the community, and to do this successfully requires judgment and patience. It has power and that power, to the credit of journalism, is nearly always wielded for the public good. No question of vital concern to the home people fails to find a strong support from the home newspaper and this too without remuneration. The publisher spends his money to further these projects and the community never gives a thought to the matter of cost to him. It is not paid out of the public pocket. Every community needs good newspapers and the way to have them is to assist in making the business profitable. The newspaper wants every concern to prosper. Why should not this good will be mutual. To make profit the newspapers must have a living rate for the paper and its advertising space.

No Pity Shown.

"For years fate was after me continuously," writes F. A. Gullede, Verbena, Ala. "I had a terrible case of Piles causing 24 tumors. When all failed Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me. Equally good for Burns and all aches and pains. Only 25c. at F. G. Fricke & Co., Druggists.

Crop Conditions.

The past week has been warm and dry. The mean daily temperature has averaged 1 degree above the normal.

The rainfall was confined to scattered showers, generally amounting to less than a quarter of an inch.

The past week has been an excellent one for haying, harvesting, and thrashing. Winter wheat is about all cut and the oat harvest is well advanced; thrashing of winter wheat is well advanced; thrashing of winter wheat has progressed rapidly in southeastern counties and is just beginning in western; the yields reported continue disappointing and are less than were generally expected. The condition of spring wheat in northern counties indicate that in many counties the crop will be below average in yield. The few oats thrashed in the southeastern counties indicate a fair to good crop, and prospects are generally excellent. Corn has grown rapidly and the early planted is now generally in tassel; in southeastern counties rain is needed for corn and pastures. Haying is general and the crop is abundant.

The second crop of alfalfa is being cut, with a fair to good yield. Potatoes have been injured somewhat by the dry weather and the crop is not as good as seemed probable earlier in the season.

Omaha Commercial College.

Robrough Bros., proprietors of the Omaha Commercial College of Omaha, Neb., have recently published a series of elegantly engraved half tone cuts, on fine paper 25x36 inches, showing the different phases of student life as exemplified at this institution. It is handsomely printed and is a most interesting picture to examine. They also publishing a "rod of positions," one of the most unique advertisements ever gotten out by a college. It answers the question, "Do you secure positions for your students?" These with a catalogue, will be sent free to any address. If the reader is at all interested in a commercial education and intends going to school this year, this paper would advise him or her to write at once and arrange to begin at the opening of the fall term, September 1st. You can work for your board.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free at F. G. Fricke & Co., Druggists.

Good Time at Mynard.

The M. W. A. will give an ice cream social at their hall in Mynard, on Saturday evening, August 1. Everyone invited and a good time guaranteed. Ice cream and cake will be served.

Millions for Science.

John D. Rockefeller donated several toward the scientific research and cure of consumption. It is announced that Dr. Ed. Maraglio, an Italian physician, is the first one having submitted in these days, to the board of Scientists, a new serum for the destruction of the bacilli of tuberculosis, even in the advanced stage of pulmonary consumption. If this remedy will do what it is claimed for, we shall without doubt welcome in it the greatest discovery of this age, although we believe that prevention is better than cure. Keep your organism strong by using Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine and it will easily resist all attacks of diseases. It acts directly on the digestive organs, makes the digestion perfect and thus renews the blood. This gives nourishment to the whole body and makes all organs strong and healthy. At drug-stores and at the manufacturer's, Jos. Triner, 799 south Ashland avenue, Chicago, Ill.

Will Recover.

Miss Gertrude Kunsmann, the young lady who shot herself on Monday evening, July 20th, with the full intent of killing herself, is getting along as well as could possibly be expected under the circumstances, has so far recovered as now to be considered entirely out of danger.

Game Postponed.

On account of the death of Hon. D. T. Hayden, a prominent attorney and citizen of Nebraska City, which occurred Monday night, the game of ball which was to have taken place in this city today between the Otoe and Cass county officials, has been postponed to Saturday afternoon next. The deceased was a most highly respected citizen, and his funeral occurred this morning.

Safeguard the Children.

Notwithstanding all that is done by boards of health and charitably inclined persons, the death rate among small children is very high during the hot weather of the summer months in the large cities. There is not probably one case of bowel complaint in a hundred, however, that could not be cured by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by all druggists.
