It has been discovered that the moon gets full but goes on shining; the rain drops, but gets up again; stars shoot, but not to kill; the willows weep, but never shed a tear; night falls, but doesn't break; day breaks, but doesn't fall; the fly swallows, and the swallows fly; the bees buzz, and so do the girls.

Boy Killed at Pacific Junction. Ray Lilly, a seventeen-year-old boy, was crushed to death under the wheels of a Burlington freight train at Pacific Junction Tuesday morning. Bob Mulica, one of the switchmen in the yards at the Junction, was over yesterday, and gave the Journal a pleasant call. Mr. Mulica states that the unfortunate young man was in the service of the company as "call boy," and had occasion to cross the track on which the train was standing. The train had been cut in two, and as they were backing up to join, the boy attempted cross, and in doing so fell upon the track. Before he could get up the moving portion of the train was upon him. His lower limbs were so horribly mutilated that he died within an hour after the accident.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After Ten Years of Suffering.

"I wish to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mrs. Mattie Burge, of Martinsville, Va. "I suffered from chronic diarrhoea for ten years and during that time tried various medicines without obtaining any permanent relief. Last summer one of my children was taken with cholera morbus, and I procured a bottle of this remedy. Only two doses were required to give her entire relief. I then decided to try the medicine myself, and did not use all of one bottle before I was well and I have never since been troubled with that complaint. One cannot say too much in favor of that wonderful medicine." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.
