Weeping Water

From the Herald.

Dr. Thomas reports Mrs. Halmes improving. She has been very sick, threatened with typhoid fever.

Will Stoner, of McCook, at whose home his father and mother have been having a siege of the smallpox, has taken the disease. This means a longer visit for Mr. and Mrs. Stoner. It is to be hoped Will will soon recover.

Now that the new crop of corn is almost in sight many are disposing of the old. Among those delivering recently are: Geo. Towle, 3,000 bushels, Dow Critchfield, 3,500; S. V. Gerard, 1,200, and Tom Wiles 700.

The Misses Fricke, Gering, Clark and Leonard drove to Louisville, Saturday to take the train for Plattsmouth. They were the guests of Mrs. J. A. Donelan several days enjoying the beauties and excitement of Weeping Water scenery and social features.

At the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. John Henderson Cowles, of Cambridge, Neb., occurred the marriage of Ida Laura Cowles, to Mr. Carl Day, on Thursday, August 6, 1903. They will be at home after September 1st, at Weeping Water.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Jameson, Thursday, August 6, 1903, a boy. There is no sweeter word to Tom than "boy," to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gilmore, Saturday August 8, 1903, a boy. After a quartet of girls, the parents gladly welcome a heir.

Last month John Bourke met with an accident while repairing his separator, in which his foot was injured. He was laid up for three weeks, but as luck would have it he was insured in the Woodmen Accident association, and last week received $30 benefits from the company, which makes his confidence in the company unshaken and the injury not such a financial loss as it might have been.

From the Republican.

J. H. Davis and John L. Hutchins and their wives start Thursday morning for San Francisco to attend the national G. A. R. encampment.

Walter Wiseman is making some fine improvements on his home south of town and will have one of the finest homes in the country when finished.

S. R. Smith and wife leave this week for southern California. They have rented their house here for one year and expect to remain in the west that long and perhaps permanently.

The many friends of Mrs. Hingate and Miss Anna Hubbard, will be pleased to know that the operations were performed on Monday afternoon and were successful and the patients are doing nicely.

At an adjourned meeting of the city council Tuesday morning, it was voted to grant N. J. Calkin, a franchise for six years to operate a lighting plant in the city. Mr. Calkin took a few days to consider the matter before deciding to put in a plant.

Mrs. Ladd and son Willis left Monday for Oskosh, Wis., where Mrs. Ladd will enter the hospital owned by her brother, Dr. Oviatt for an operation for gall stones. Mrs. Ladd has been a great sufferer for months and hopes for relief by the operation.

Mrs. Lehman was successfully operated upon at the Presbyterian hospital last Friday by Drs. Allison and Hingate. Mrs. Lehman's health has been miserable for a number of years and the doctors think she will be sound and well after a few weeks at the hospital.

Dr. Hingate operated upon the hand of Miss Jessie Fodge, on Saturday morning, for septicaemia. Miss Fodge was digging potatoes one day last week and as they did not come out of the ground easily she picked up a stick that was lying near to dig them out. When she got in the house she noticed some small slivers in her hand and picked them out. It seems the stick had been used in putting Paris green on the potatoes and the consequence was Miss Fodge is suffering with a very sore hand.

Nehawka

From the Register.

Mrs. Chas. Banning's mother, Mrs. Morrow, who has been quite sick with fever for a few days is better now.

C. D. Keltner brought to this office Wednesday a tomato that is 16 inches in circumference and weighs 16 pounds.

Silas Mann brought to market a hog 36 months old, weighing 490 pounds, this is a gain of over one pound per day. Who can beat it?

Henry Heebner went to Walton yesterday to take charge of Mr. Day's elevator. We have been so used to seeing Henry around for years that we will miss him; but we are glad he has struck a paying job.

Thursday night Vilas Sheldon and wife stayed for the first time in their new home. A lot of their young friends went over and gave them a merry serenade; fun and hilarity reigned supreme for an hour or two, and every one went home regretting that the evening was so short.

Sunday about twenty-eight of Miss Edith Schomaker's friends knowing that it was her birthday, gathered at her lovely home to remind her, that she was not forgotten nor her birthday either. It was a complete surprise to Miss Edith; but as to Bertha, well, we will let her tell about that. Everybody went away happy and wondering why all time could not be one long birthday.

Last week R. F. Waldo's dog killed

a natural curiosity in the shape of a rabbit with horns. It had twenty-four horns of various lengths from one-half inch to one and a half, and were of a grishly nature. When Mr. Waldo told about it the fellows chaffed him; but next day he brought in several of the horns and some of the scalp, and there was no mistaking the fact that it was a horned rabbit. Mr. Churchill measured the horns, so there is no mistaking their length.

Union

From the Ledger.

T. M. Patterson of Plattsmouth visited his friend W. A. Swearingen last Friday.

Miss Harriet Murray of Plattsmouth was here last Friday visiting W. A. Swearingen and family.

The arrival of twin girls at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hill, northeast of Union, was reported Wednesday morning.

T. G. Barnum received a card from his daughter, Miss Vernie, the card being written on Pike's Peak amidst flying snow, and she states that she is enjoying a nice time and the best of health.

Last Saturday an old gentleman got off the train here, and being a native of Poland he could speak very little English, but John Arn could converse with him quite well, and it was soon learned that he was lost and without money. He said his name is Valentine Tomjask, and that he started from Bois, Illinois, to go to his son Tom Tomjask, who he has been told lives thirteen miles from Union, direction unknown. Efforts have been made to locate his relatives, but without success, and he is being cared for here and it is thought his relatives may yet be found—or find him. He says he is 98 years old, and is very talkative in his way. He has a violin upon which he takes delight in playing, and although he does not solicit contributions he accepts all offers with due courtesy and thanks.

George Leach suffered the only accident during the reunion, and is now laid up for repairs. He was assisting in Garrens' livery barn Saturday and in the evening as he was going past the horses one of them kicked him with both feet, knocking him against the side of the barn. George was unable to get up, but assistance was soon at hand and he was carried into the barn office and Dr. Dongan was summoned. The injured man was removed to the doctor's office, where an examination showed that his left knee was in bad shape, the joint having a small piece of the bone broken off, and he was bruised just above the hip. The wounds were dressed and he was removed to the residence of Elias Peck, where he is having the best of care, but it will be some time before he is able to be out.

Elmwood

From the Leader-Ex.

Mrs. A. D. Perry, a former resident of Elmwood, but lately of Auburn, died Saturday in an Omaha hospital, from dropsy. She had been sick for two months or longer and was a great sufferer during her illness.

Mrs. James Wilson died at her home seven and a half miles southeast of Elmwood last Thursday evening from apoplexy. Deceased was about fifty-seven years of age and leaves a husband, son and daughter to mourn her loss. Interment Sunday at Pleasant Hill cemetery.

A pair of wrens have appropriated one of the mail boxes in Will Sargent's R. F. D. wagon, built a nest and hatched out their young. Will takes the little family over his route every day, and they do not seem to be the least afraid of anyone or of traveling.

James Berry was at Omaha again Saturday having his eyes treated. The specialist has hopes of saving the member although it is badly ulcerated and has caused Jim a great deal of suffering.

Julius Langhorst has just closed a deal whereby Mrs. Bornemier of near Murdock, becomes the owner of the Fred Schavey quarter section northwest of Elmwood. Consideration $12,900, or $81 per acre. Mr. Shavey and

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

wife expect to move to Elmwood in the near future.

Mr. G. L. Berger closed a deal last week for the eighty acre farm of Harvey Beaver, four miles west and one south of Elmwood. Consideration $6,080 or $76 per acre. Possession to be given March 1st. Mr. Beaver will move to Elmwood in the property he recently purchased from John Current, while Frank Marts expects to rent the farm from Mr. Berger.

Eagle

Dave Hursh has been having a very sore hand, the result of getting poisoned by weeds.

Fred Trunkenholz has been having a serious time with blood poison on one of his hands.

Prof. and Mrs. H. H. Bronson and son returned Friday night from a two months visit with relatives and friends at Sedalia, Missouri.

Mr. Thomas J. Bahr and Miss Maude Jackson were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents near Mason City, Neb. Mr. Bahr was formerly principal of our schools and is well and favorably known.

S. S. English and family, former residents of this place but late of Tecumseh, will remove to Lincoln in the near future. Mr. English is traveling salesman for the Marshall Paper Co., of Omaha.

The funeral of old Mr. Lytle was held at the home of his son, James Sunday, Rev. Walker officiating. Mr. Lytle had been sick for a long time and succumbed to a complication of diseases last Friday. Interment was made at Camp Crook cemetery.

Last Thursday Fred Schroeder sent his hired man, who was a stranger to town with a load of corn. After selling his corn he cashed the check, which he had made out in his own name, then he tried to dispose of the team and wagon. He failed to sell the team and thought it best to take the first train out of town, which he did, and he is now numbered among the missing.

Greenwood

From the Enterprise.

John McNurlin of Eight Mile Grove was in town Tuesday night to attend the Kyles-Axmaker nuptials.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Mae Bouk to Mr. C. F. Stilwell, next Wednesday at high noon. It was a little slipperly to roll logs Wednesday but some of the "boys" rolled a few regardless of the mud.

W. W. Watkins purchased the bakery business of R. D. McDonald this week and is now running it in connection with his butcher shop.

Steve Mefford was home from Ashland this week. He is employed in the ice packing houses there and had met with an accident that of running a pike pole through his foot.

Miss Myra Ethel Axmaker and Mr. John Kyles were married Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Axmaker, Elder Utterback performing the ceremony.

Miss Litha Montgomery and Mr. Otis Camp were married at 4 o'clock last Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Montgomery, Rev. Utterback of the Christian church officiating. He performed the ceremony in the presence of a few relatives.

There was nothing dry about the M. W. A. Log Rolling picnic held here Wednesday. A heavy rain fell Tuesday forenoon but the sky cleared off and the prospects looked bright for a good day Wednesday, but when morning came the rain arrived with the first crowd into town and began to soak the saints and sinners alike; still the people kept coming and the rain continued falling. All day long it rained, and rained, and rained. The Murdock band played "God Save the Queen" and then it rained some more. The ball nine from Omaha swam out to the diamond and played nine innings during the downpour. The only dry spot was in the opera house where about 200 young people danced the merry hours away.

Louisville

From the Courier.

Avoca is to have a light plant, having voted bonds for that purpose.

Otto Becker was at the county seat Monday on business connected with a share in the estate left his son Otto in Germany by the death of a relative.

Miss Carrie Akesson, who has charge of the typewriting department in one of the Lincoln business colleges, is visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lehnhoff.

Gamblers will have to fight shy of Louisville during the G. A. R. reunion. Our jail has been put in shape to receive those who attempt to work any skin games. If that is your line you had best make a note of this fact.

Louisville needs a flouring mill, and needs it now—not next year, or the year afterwards, but now. No better location in the state exists, and yet we have no mill.

E. A. Holyoke and wife, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Holdrege of Omaha and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Parmele of Plattsmouth, will leave in a few days for Wyoming on a ten day's outing. They will take along with them plenty of fishing tackle and expect to land some fine mountain trout before they return.

Louisville extends a hearty welcome to all on the occasion of the G. A. R. reunion on the 25th, 26th, 27th and 28th of August. Nothing will be left undone to make this meeting of the old soldiers a ringer and all who attend will be insured a good time.
