"THE TOWN where 'no negroes are allowed' is not in the south. It is Elwood, Indiana, the state which is guilty of Perry Heath, Beveridge and other horrors.

From the amount of filling in and the tearing up of old wood sidewalks that is being done on Main street, our city can soon boast of some substantial walks as any town in the state.

The republicans pretend to laugh at fusion in politics but they are mortally afraid of a fusion of all democrats and the tariff revision republicans, on a platform which calls for moderate tariff revision.

While so much is being written about poenage in the south, the discovery has been made that a seventeen year old girl has been in bondage in North Dakota since she was two years old, having been sold by her father for $25.00.

Almost everyone but Roosevelt has forgotten the existence of a Cuban treaty and, left to itself, Congress would never pass the enabling legislation; but Teddy does not propose that it shall be forgotten, and he will call a special session to prevent it.

GENERAL LEONARD WOOD has seen thirty days actual service, but in four years he has risen from an army surgeon to the rank of captain, to a brigadier general, very nearly the senior brigadier, over the heads of several hundred seniors who have served all through the civil war.

There are reports of grave scandals in the Postoffice Department, Interior Department, the Department of Justice and in the Government Printing Office, while the Department of Agriculture is quietly investigating a little scandal of its own. Can any doubt that it is time for a change of administration?

SENATOR DANIELS, of Virginia, has knocked a large-sized hole in the financial legislation program. He calls attention to the object of the Aldrich bill, a roundabout method whereby the banks can secure the surplus in the treasury to loan to the people who need it in their business a good rate of interest. Mr. Daniels points out that the logical course would be to reduce taxation as to obviate any unnecessary surplus and permit the people to collect the interest on their own money.

The republican governor of Wisconsin is not talking for buncombe when he declares: "We are building up colossal fortunes, granting unlimited power to corporate organization and massing together business interests as never before in the commercial history of the world, but the people are losing control of their own government. Its foundations are being sapped and its integrity destroyed." There is but one remedy—the return of the people to the landmarks of the fathers of the Republic through the medium of democratic victory next year.

David A. Ball, of Missouri.

The irrepressible Dave Ball, of Louisiana, Missouri, accompanied by Mrs. Ball, while en route home from Colorado, stopped off here Saturday a few hours to visit Mrs. Kate Miner, a relative of Mrs. B. The writer was never more surprised in his life than to meet this eminent Missourian in Plattsmouth. The writer has been intimately acquainted with Mr. Ball for over twenty years, and we have often sit side by side in the councils of the democratic party of that grand old state.

Hon. David A. Ball is one of the leading democrats of Missouri, and a truer one never resided within her borders. The weather was never too hot, never too cold or disagreeable in any manner for Dave Ball to get out and work for the success of democracy. We remember in the early spring of 1897, when Hon. James T. Lloyd, the present incumbent, was nominated for congress in the first district to fill the place of the lamented Dick Giles, of Shelbyville, who was elected the fall previous, (whose death created a vacancy) Dave Ball was advertised to speak in Memphis. The day previous was a most disagreeable one, in fact a regular blizzard raged the greater part of the day, all night and all the next day. Being interested in the election of Mr. Lloyd (whose election we have never had cause to regret) we had arrived at the conclusion that the weather was too disagreeable for Mr. Ball to reach there. But when the hour of speaking arrived, perhaps one hundred and fifty people had ventured out to hear the gentleman from Pike, who is a great favorite with Scotland county democrats, who, like the writer, were doubtful of his appearance. We did not wait long, for soon the door opened, and in walked Mr. Ball, covered with snow, and amid the cheers of those present. This is the sort of a man Dave Ball is—he would swim the biggest stream in the world if it was necessary to fill an appointment.

David A. Ball has been Lieutenant Governor and was also a member of the Missouri senate for four years. Three years ago he was a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, and after a thorough canvass of this state, he saw there was no use to try to ebb the tidal wave in favor of Governor Dockery, and withdrew before the convention assembled. With any other man to "back" he would have stood an excellent show of success.

Mr. Ball is an able man, eloquent in speech, and one of the finest orators in Missouri. In intellect he is a peer among peers, and while he kindly consented to talk a few moments in the convention Saturday, we regret that he did not have time to give the democrats of Cass county a fair sample of what he really is—one of the most gifted, convincing and entertaining talkers in the west.

Judge Sullivan.
Chief Justice John J. Sullivan was renominated for the position he has so creditably filled for nearly six years, by both democratic and populist state conventions on Tuesday last. His splendid legal attainments, his clear and honorable record as a jurist, his high standing as a citizen, and his wide-spread popularity should insure his reelection. It is felt, too, that his uniform fairness and freedom from bias on the bench, together with his freedom from all corporate entanglements, is sufficient to commend him to the voters who have become wearied of electing railway henchmen to high places in Nebraska. The argument is that, even among republicans, Deitrich and Mickey and their like have created disgust—that the domination of Spratlen, Baldwin and other corporation managers over the bench, the executive chamber, legislative committees and all other departments of state government has grown so tiresome to self-respecting citizens, and that regardless of politics they will join in a non-partisan effort to preserve the supreme court from the brazen and cynical rule of the railroad bosses. It is now up to the voters of Nebraska. If they will post themselves regarding the past careers of John B. Barnes, the republican-railroad nominee, and John J. Sullivan, the man of the people, and will vote as their own consciences dictate, Judge John J. Sullivan will undoubtedly succeed himself.

The recent republican state convention endorsed the Ramsey law. Of course they did. But how was it possible for it to do otherwise when the railroads run the convention?

The Death Penalty.
A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignificant cuts or puny boils have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve handy. It's the best salve on earth and will prevent fatality, while Burns, Sores, Ulcers and Piles threaten. Only 25c. at F. G. Fricke & Co's. drug store.

Cut the Weeds.
The road overseers of the county should do something with the weeds on the public roads. There is a good weed law in effect in this state and the road overseer has power to compel all to keep the weeds down adjoining their land. The season has been of the best for a good crop of rank weeds and with a little neglect the weeds will get the start of the crops next year and the careless will cause others to lose as well as themselves.

Republican Convention.

The republican party of Cass county has selected a county ticket that taken as a whole is perhaps as good a ticket as could be nominated under the existing conditions. And, by the way, these conditions will continue to exist just as long as the country districts consent to permit the nominations to be made behind closed doors in the city of Plattsmouth prior to the holding of the convention. This perhaps is not good republican talk but it is true as gospel just the same. The Courier has no objections to any of the gentlemen who have been nominated, but it would welcome the day when the people of the county are permitted to have a voice in the county conventions instead of having a few ring leaders dictate who shall hold the county offices. This is not only the opinion of the editor of this paper but it is common talk all over county and the only way to put a stop to the outrage is for the people to unite at the next county convention and give the Plattsmouth ring to understand that there are others who have their rights. Yes, we expect to hear someone say Mayfield is a knocker. Let that be said may, but in all candor isn't it about time someone had stamany enough about them to knock? Isn't it?—Louisville Courier.

How's This?

That was pretty fair logic Bro. Mayfield, regarding politics in Cass in your last week's issue. It is good common sense. But the man that throws the first stone should tie up the one whose favorite candidate tied up and received to the full extent vote for vote, for this same "ring" you speak of. When the people of Cass don't have a voice in the county convention, it is when your favorite and other candidates insist on trading. We have got a record of the vote.—Weeping Water Herald.

An Open Enemy.
Many of the leading republican newspapers of New York no longer veil their hostility to President Roosevelt as a candidate for the second term. For months these newspapers professed to be strong adherents of Mr. Roosevelt, but at the last of a sentence of commendation usually tucked in a grain of malice, so biting in quality that it more than counter-balanced the half-hearted praise. Like the false friend Brutus, with his deadly dagger concealed underneath his toga, they were prepared to strike at the fitting moment. That time in the estimation of the New York politicians has now come. The dagger is no longer hidden under the toga; it flashes in the hand, gleaming in the light as it strikes sharp and sure. Not the slightest action of President Roosevelt escapes his former allies; every movement is scanned with the hope of gaining material for a biting, sarcastic paragraph in the great periodicals. Harper's Weekly is especially vicious; for months it followed at the heels of the president, like a mongrel cur, occasionally giving him a vicious nip, but the bite was always filled with rabid poison. Harper's Weekly has an enormous circulation; it is a weekly visitor through all the western ranch country where President Roosevelt numbers his best friends. The great New York periodicals with their wide circulation hold the power of doing an incalculable injury to any candidate under their ban of disapproval. President Roosevelt must also face the bitterness engendered in the south by his attitude on the southern question. Senator Livingston, one of the leaders of the democratic minority, demands that one of the questions discussed in the coming session of congress shall be the attitude of the republican party on the color question, that they as a party must either support or repudiate the stand taken by the president in regard to the negro. Political plots will thicken as the months go by, until, as the time for each political circus shall arrive, a new set of bill boards may be in evidence, advertising performers now in obscurity.

Suicide Prevented.
The startling announcement that a preventive of suicide had been discovered will interest many. A run down system or despondency invariably precedes suicide and something has been found that will prevent that condition that makes suicide likely. At the first thought of self destruction take Electric Bitters. It being a great tonic and nerve will strengthen the nerves and build up the system. It's also a great Stomach, Liver and Kidney regulator. Only 50 cents. Satisfaction guaranteed by F. G. Fricke & Co. druggists.
