

Weeping Water

From the Republican.
 A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holden on Monday, September 21.

Foot ball seems to be a little backward this year. There seems to be a great supply of material but a leader is wanting.

Z. Coglizer sold his resident property on the south side to Riley Reector and we understand started last Saturday for Mexico to visit his daughter, Mrs. Al. Winchel.

H. D. Travis, the democratic candidate for county judge was here Tuesday, shaking hands with old friends and looking after his political chances in this republican stronghold.

W. O. Ogden was in town the other day with 800 pounds of honey. He said that he had sold 1,400 pounds this season from forty-three stands of bees. This has been a great year for bees and they have turned out an excellent grade of honey.

Miss Grace Countryman leaves today for Meridian, Miss., where she goes to take up her school work. Miss Countryman has been teaching in the Mississippi capitol for several years. She will read the Republican to learn what is going on at home.

Word was received Tuesday afternoon by H. D. Reed from his wife at St. Louis, of the death of their little son Harry, at that place of diphtheria. Some weeks ago Mrs. Reed had taken little Harry to St. Louis for treatment in an Osteopathic hospital and the little fellow was doing nicely until diphtheria developed. Mr. and Mrs. Reed have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their bereavement.

From the Herald.
 We hear a great deal about corn in the milk, but we prefer to see the butter on the ear. This may be far-fetched, but to see the point you might churn it.

Frank Ashum left Monday for Buffalo, N. Y., where he will take treatment. Frank has been feeling quite badly for a long time, kidney and catarrhal trouble being the prime causes of a general break down.

C. H. Scoville has rented the E. F. Marshall house on the south side, now occupied by Frank Dickson and will move here from Plattsmouth as soon as the house is vacated. Mr. Scoville is getting up an atlas of the county.

Clark S. Newton was visiting his old friends at Wabash last Friday, and while there sold his farm of 84 acres two miles northeast of Wabash, to John Leuthens for $6,300 or $75 per acre. Mr. Newton says he will invest in Saunders county land.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Miller, accompanied by his father, D. R. Miller of Connet, Ohio, came down Saturday, and spent Sunday with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Cherry. Ben says it has been a good many years since his father has visited him.

John Kimball, an old time citizen of Weeping Water, a partner of D. C. Fleming in the merchandise business in 1873 and '74, was a visitor in town last week. Since leaving here Mr. Kimball has seen the ups and downs of fortune many times.

John Conley of near Elmwood last week sold to Mrs. Henry Bornemier the north-east quarter section 21-11-11, Elmwood precinct for $15,000. The land is cut through the center diagonally with the Rock Island railroad, but notwithstanding it brought nearly $100 per acre.

Attorney H. D. Travis was in town on business Tuesday, and paid us a pleasant call, as he usually remembers the Weeping Water people when a chance to visit offers. He is not making a canvass as yet for the office of county judge. He left for Lincoln in the evening.

The Nebraska Telephone Co. at the last meeting of the council, had an ordinance presented asking for a franchise to put an exchange in the town with rates at $2.50 for residence and $3.50 for business houses. The council turned it down for the fourth time, but any time the company want to do business on the same terms and under the same ordinance, as the Independent Co., they can get permission. The poles and wires of the Nebraska Co. have been ordered taken down other than the long distance toll lines.

Eagle

 Mrs. Peter Christopherson is very sick with little hope of her recovery. Mrs. McAllister has been quite sick the past ten days but is much better at this writing.

G. C. Trimble moved his family to Syracuse Thursday, where they will make their future home.

J. Adams & Son are enlarging their already commodious lumber yard and are building a six foot paling fence around it.

One day last week Will Bahr's team got fractious and threw him out of the buggy, breaking one rib and otherwise bruising him.

The Bank of Eagle has recently been designated a depository for county money, thus showing the reputation

A Cough

"I have made a most thorough trial of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and am prepared to say that for all diseases of the lungs it never disappoints."
 J. Early Finley, Ironton, O.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral won't cure rheumatism; we never said it would. It won't cure dyspepsia; we never claimed it. But it will cure coughs and colds of all kinds. We first said this sixty years ago; we've been saying it ever since.
 Three sizes: 25c., 50c., $1. All druggists.

Consult your doctor. If he says take it, then do as he says. If he tells you not to take it, then don't take it. He knows cases of his kind. We are willing.
 J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

of this institution and esteem in which it is held.

Geo. Reitter, sr., and Wm. R. Young and wife came home Wednesday morning from their tour in Oklahoma. Mr. Reitter purchased a farm near Alva and Mr. Young expects to locate in the near future.

Last Saturday as Amos Garlits and son, Charley were going home from town with a heavy load of rock, the lead team broke the chain which they were hitched to and got away and ran through two wire fences before they were caught. One horse was severely cut by the wire while the other received only a few scratches.

Elmwood

From the Leader-Echo.
 A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Reber, Saturday, September 19th.

Bert Reed and family returned Sunday night from Oregon, and expect to make their home here.

County Superintendent Wortman was in town Wednesday evening. He expects to make our school a visit in the near future.

The Rev. J. K. Maxfield who has been appointed to the Methodist pulpit in Elmwood will arrive with his family the first part of next week. He is highly spoken of as an able minister and pastor. He comes from Friend, Nebraska.

Louisville

From the Courier.
 The man who kicks most about the inaccuracy of newspapers in general is the one who does least to assist in getting the facts accurately when he has an opportunity to do so.

Fred Boedeker and Henry Wanke returned Tuesday evening from Knox county where Mr. Wanke purchased a farm, having recently sold his farm in Cass county for a good price.

The school board disposed of the old school buildings last Saturday at public auction. C. G. Mayfield purchasing the largest one for $300 and the small one went to Martin Sjogren for $82.50.

Gering, the Plattsmouth druggist, is advertising in the local papers of that town that he will carry the best line of garden seed next season of any firm in Cass county. He evidently believes in the old saw of the early bird, etc.

The members of the Epworth League gave a social at the M. E. parsonage Wednesday evening which was largely attended and enjoyed by all. Since

8 Cents

Eight cents a pound is what a young woman paid for twelve pounds of fish.

She was thin and weak and paid one dollar for a bottle of Scott's Emulsion, and by taking regular doses had gained twelve pounds in weight before the bottle was finished.

Eight cents a pound is cheap for such valuable material. Some pay more, some less, some get nothing for their money. You get your money's worth when you buy Scott's Emulsion.

We will send you a little free.

the announcement that their pastor, Rev. Myers, was to be transferred to another charge they decided to convert the social into a farewell party to their pastor and his family. Rev. Myers goes to Unadilla and will move his family and household effects the first of the week. They will take with them the well wishes of their many friends in Louisville.

Adam Strott, who is employed at the Atwood & Newell sand pit north of town met with a very painful accident Friday just before the noon hour. In some way his right hand got caught in the pulley that carries the cable of the sand lifter and his thumb was mashed into a pulp. Foreman Rand saw the danger Strott was in of having his hand and perhaps his arm torn off and rescued him, and in doing so had the index finger of his right hand quite badly mashed. Dr. Thomas dressed Strott's wound and unless blood poison should set in amputation will not be necessary.

Union

From the Ledger.
 Miss Grace Brendel arrived from Indianapolis on Monday to make a visit with her relatives here and at Murray.

H. R. Lessel and wife returned to Plattsmouth last Sunday, after making a visit with their relatives near town.

The livery business changed hands again last Friday. Will Garrens selling his house and barn to Frank Eaton, who took charge immediately.

The Ledger received a confidential "tip" that one of our popular young ladies will return home today with her name changed and accompanied by her husband, but our information does not warrant mentioning of names at present.

Oscar Hoback had a lively time with a four horse team Wednesday afternoon, the animals with a drill attached running away and making a general tear-up. One horse had a leg broken, but Oscar was spilled out of the game in time to escape with no serious injury.

At 8 o'clock Tuesday evening September 22, death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Sikes and took their little daughter Lucina May, aged 1 year, 6 months and 17 days. The child first took sick Sept. 10, suffering from inflammation of the bowels, and the disease secured such a hold that medical skill could not successfully combat it.

Nehawka

From the Register.
 J. M. Palmer has sold his corn, 11,000 bushels, to H. M. Pollard for 38¢ cents. Switzer Bros. will do the shelling.

M. D. Pollard departed for his old Vermont home last week. It has been several years since he was back, and he will enjoy the visit very much. Tuesday evening Mrs. Keltner was out to Will Shepard's, and by some mischance her foot slipped and wrenched the ankle violently. She suffered very much that night, and will not be able to walk for some time.

All Tucker, who suffered so much for a few days with muscular rheumatism, got a bath cabinet, and after quite a number of steamings in it was cured. He is very enthusiastic in his praise of the cabinet method of curing rheumatism.

Tuesday night the first shipment of Angora goats to the market ever made from Cass county, was made by F. P. Rose from this place. He has had them cleaning up brush land for a year, and the work being done he shipped all but 35 to South Omaha. Mr. Rose thinks they beat a man cleaning up brush.

Mr. J. Q. Churchill our accommodating blacksmith has sold his stock on hand, and his residence to Tommy Fulton for $1,700. Mr. Churchill is going to Washington, where the climate agrees with him better than here. We hope he may find a place where his eczema will not trouble him.

George Reynolds slipped off in a hurry last week, and we wondered what was the matter. But it was all explained four or five days later, when George came back and introduced a lady as his wife. He married Miss Lucy Price, at Evansville, Ind. Success, happiness and a long life to you and yours, George.

Saturday evening Lester Stone was in town on a hay rack, and in turning at a crossing in front of the bank his team became frightened at the cars. The engine whistled suddenly and the horses became unmanageable, and in coming down the street toward the east corner of the hay rack struck Lou Todd's buggy upsetting it and smashing one wheel, and damaging another. Lester held on to his team and got them stopped back of Brandt's store without injury to the wagon or themselves.

Greenwood

From the Enterprise.

The editor's little daughter Olive, has been quite sick this week.

Elder Harmon and wife and three children visited at Dr. Talcott's home Tuesday. The elder was a former Greenwood pastor.

Walter Clark of Alma, visited over Tuesday with Harry Sanders. Mr. Clark expects to go on the road as mail carrier within a short time.
