W. Swan. John Karnes, in charge of the B. & M. warehouse at this place, spent Sunday with friends in York, Nebraska. WANTED—A good lady nurse at the p-or farm. Good wages. Enquire of Superintendent or Journal office. Patton's Sun Proof Paint is guaranteed for five years. It costs more but it is the very best. Sold only by Gering & Co. For Base Burners, Organs, Furniture, Cooking Stoves of all kinds, go to the new and second-hand store, Boeck building. Wm. Brantner is again in charge of Wurl & Coffey's delivery wagon. Bill is an old hand at the business, and it looks familiar to see him at his old post. Street hats, in all styles, at Mrs. Street's. Ladies, call and see her elegant line of millinery, consisting of all the latest styles in hats, both for dress and street wear. Chas. Englekemeier, one of the Journal's staunch German patrons, living southeast of Weeping Water, called Saturday, and renewed his allegiance to the Journal. At a meeting of the Elks Tuesday night it was decided to remove their headquarters from the rooms over Morgan's store to rooms over Heger's bakery, in the Coates block. The appointments of Mrs. Thomas Walling, Henry Herold and D. B. Smith, as members of the library board, by Mayor Morgan, were unanimously confirmed by the city council Monday night. J. W. Ruffner was up from St. Joseph to spend Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Ruffner. While here he gave the Journal a very pleasant call. Mr. Ruffner is in the employ of the Burlington at St. Joseph. F. W. Young was here from Union Friday evening on business. Mr. Young is a staunch democrat, and a hustling young farmer. While here he called and enrolled his name for the Journal. Evidently the farmers appreciate our efforts to give them a good paper. J. D. Tigner, living south of Rock Bluffs, was in the city Saturday, and called and renewed for the Journal. Mr. Tigner says the people in his vicinity have a great kick coming on account of the irregular manner in which the R. F. D. man makes that neighborhood. It seems that he makes that section when he feels like it, and when he is in a hurry he doesn't.

Free of Charge.

For the next month we will send out a number of extra copies of the Journal. If you get a copy of it during that time remember that it will cost you nothing. At the end of that time if you desire to subscribe, please inform us.

Cause of Lockjaw.

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exists plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried beneath the skin as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes cuts, bruises and like injuries to heal without maturation and in one third the time required by the usual treatment. It is for sale by all druggists.

P. Pearson, of Silver City, Iowa, was in Plattsmouth Monday on some private business, and of course called on the Journal. Mr. Pearson and R. A. Bases of this office are old friends and neighbors, and while his visit was a surprise, it was highly appreciated just the same.

Clay Conner, one of the best fellows in the world, was here this week visiting his friends. He was accompanied by his wife, who visited her parents in the country. Mr. Conner was formerly in the saloon business here, and is now engaged in the same business at Elmwood. It is also said, much to Clay's credit, that he runs one of the neatest and most orderly saloons in the county.

Mrs. Plimor of Cordova, Iowa, says: "One of my children was subject to croup of a severe type, and the giving of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly, always brought relief. Many mothers in this neighborhood think the same as I do about this remedy and want no other kind for their children." For sale by all druggists.

"Consistency, Thou Art a Jewel!"
In the month of June, 1902, George L. Farley and his attorney, C. S. Polk, as officers of the Law and Order League, caused a warrant to be issued out of the county court for the arrest of some boys who were playing baseball on a Sunday afternoon in the ball park. This warrant was placed in the hands of Sheriff McBride, who brought the said parties before the court to be dealt with according to law. Was there anything else the sheriff could do? Assuredly not; yet a number of men are waging a campaign war against Sheriff McBride for serving this warrant. The News is certainly aware of the fact that this is being done as we have repeatedly heard it discussed by divers persons on our streets; yet, has the editor of the News ever said one word in his paper to the effect that Sheriff McBride performed his duty in serving this warrant that the said editor was instrumental in having issued? No; he simply sits back, laughing in his sleeves, and allows the sheriff to be censured for an act that he himself is responsible. Is the editor of the News "fair" in this campaign? We think—no!

Saves Two From Death.

A Romantic Wedding.

A special from Lockhart, N. Y., to the Omaha World-Herald, under date of October 8, contains an account of a very romantic wedding, in which a Cass county citizen is a central figure: "John T. Kruger of Wabash, Neb., and Miss Mamie Grant of Napanee, Ont., were married here last night by Rev. G. W. Gallagher. Neither had seen each other until an hour previous to the ceremony. Kruger, who is a young farmer, was furnished the address of the lady who is now his wife, by a relative of her, who met him while in the west on business a year ago. Kruger began a correspondence with Miss Grant, and in due time came an exchange of photographs and then an exchange of love letters. They became engaged. The home of an uncle of the bride, Thomas Grant, in this city, was selected as the place of meeting. Kruger arrived in this city at 7 o'clock last night and within an hour the wedding took place." Mr. and Mrs. Kruger are now ensconced on the groom's farm, near Wabash, to all intents and purposes as "happy as two larks."

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by all druggists.
