smouth Monday evening to spend the winter with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Pötsal.

The Alpine Warblers' entertainment at Turner Hall Tuesday night was very slimly attended. Evidently the managers did not do sufficient hustling. They are as fine singers as ever came to Plattsmouth, and deserved a large audience.

Oliver Rouse, deputy state commander of the Knights of the Macebees, of Omaha, is in the city for the purpose of organizing a camp of the order, and is meeting with very fair success. This is an excellent order, and we hope he will be able to organize a camp in Plattsmouth.

Mrs. Lucy J. Martin and daughter called Tuesday and renewed for the Journal another year. Mrs. Martin

San Jose, California. Mrs. Martin has been here for seven months in settling her husband's estate (C. J. Martin, deceased) who died in California, but will be compelled to return again after spending the winter in the golden

County Superintendent Wortman has been confined to his home most of the time for the past week with a very fair case of the grip.

Lee Mayfield was down from Louisville yesterday and gave the Journal a call. He reports the Courier booming, which we are always glad to hear.

Don't forget that every dollar you pay to your home merchants may some day find its way back to you, whereas if you send it to the city you simply kiss it an eternal good-bye.

season.

John Hinz, one of the Journal's staunch supporters, was a caller Saturday for the purpose of renewing another year. Mr. Hinz is also a rock-ribbed democrat as well as a clever journalist.

Prof. Wortman received a letter from his father yesterday, which conveyed the glad tidings that his brother, C. L., who is ill with typhoid, was much better, and the chances were now very favorable for his recovery.

Mrs. William Batterson, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.
D. Wheeler, near Mynard for several weeks, departed for her home at Tilden, Neb., last Thursday, and was accompanied as far as Omaha by her parents.

The first snow of the season fell here Monday morning, covering the hills and valleys for a short time only. As soon as the bright rays of Old Sol made its appearance the "beautiful snow" made its disappearance about as quick as it came.

It is very interesting to the Plattsmouth readers of the Omaha Bee to pick up a copy of that paper and peruse a telegraphic item from this city containing the particulars of something that occurred three days previous, and only twenty miles away, at that.

Miss Hoppling is organizing a class in dancing for married ladies and gentlemen. Admission will not be denied "old maids" and "old bachelors." Why not get up a class especially for the latter classes. A large attendance should be secured right here in Plattsmouth alone.

the hospital at Omaha Tuesday, where he underwent a surgical operation for appendicitis.

Ivon J. Taylor and Miss Ruth Sage, two well known young people of this city, were married Thursday evening, November 12, 1903.

A marriage license was issued Thursday, November 12, to Fred E. Betts, aged twenty, and Miss Mina M. Moore, aged sixteen, both of Avoca.

The new heating plant for the Cottes block was fired up for the first time last Friday. The system bids fair to give general satisfaction.

John A. Gutche sold his residence through one of our real estate agencies last week to B. F. Leischuske for the sum of $950.00. Awful cheap property.

G. E. Berger, one Cass county's energetic young farmers, living south of Plattsmouth, came to the conclusion that he wanted the best paper in the county, and consequently called Saturday evening and enrolled his name for the Old Reliable one year.

Judge Newell, of this city, is quite prominently spoken of in connection with the United States Marshalship.
There seems to be three aspirants, the present marshal, Matthews, Judge Newell and Jules Jenel, of Cedar county. It is none of our fight but we hope Judge Newell will land the plumb.

here to be equipped with steam pipes.
There seems to be plenty of work of all kinds at the shops.

Conrad Schlater was down town last Friday for the first time for several weeks. We were somewhat surprised to see him enter the Journal office, but were well pleased to see him looking much better than we expected. We hope he will continue to improve.

John H. Doughty, of near Nehawka, was in the city Monday on business, but found time to call at the Journal headquarters and enroll his name for the Old Reliable one year. Mr.
Doughty is a democrat and wants the gospel truth and he shall have it straight from the shoulder of the Journal editor.

Doesn't Respect Old Age.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr.

respective of old age. Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever, Constipation all yield

Plattsmouth Team Entertained.

Last Saturday night, a couple of hay racks mounted on wheels with horses for motive power, served as springless conveyances for carrying the two foot ball teams and the High School girls on a tour in and around town. It was not a noiseless crowd, but appeared to be an exceedingly happy lot of merrymakers. We understand they made a touchdown when one of the racks tipped over. The visitors departed on the late train for home via Union.—

County commissioners yesterday appointed Jas. M. Robertson to fill out the vacancy as clerk of the district court, made vacant by resignation of Geo. F. Houseworth, who steps down and out on the first day of December.
This appointment is perhaps the proper thing to have done; but how would it have been and the democratic candidate were elected and the commissioners were republicans?

work which is being sent here the coach department of the B. & M. shops have found it necessary to return to the ten-hour schedule. The sidetracks at the shop yards are filled with cars

A Narrow Escape.

Harvey Henneger, son of J. H. Henneger, living near Weeping Water, was the victim of a very serious, if not a fatal accident yesterday morning.
It seems that the young man had gone into the field to repair some fencing, taking a gun along with him, and while walking along, stumbled and fell, accidentally discharging the gun, the discharge entering at a point just below the chin, coming out at the back of the head, barely missing the jugular vein.

The father of the young man was here serving on the jury in the district court, the news having been received shortly after the twelve men had been selected to serve on the trial called.
The attending physician certain strong hopes for the unfortunate boy's recovery.
